

Robbins Scout To Attend Special Dinner At Raleigh

Willie Howard Williams, Eagle Scout of Robbins, will represent the Oconeechee Council at a special "Recognition Dinner" at the Governor's Mansion in Raleigh in the fall, it has been announced.

Young Williams, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Taft Williams, is one of a group of Scouts, representing all eight of the Scout councils in North Carolina, who will attend the dinner.

Williams also holds the Eagle Palm award and the God and Country Award.

By DOROTHY McNEILL
Jr. Woman's Club

The members of the Aberdeen Junior Woman's Club held the regular monthly meeting on Tuesday night. The group met at the Legion Hut and then went together to Southern Pines for a tour of the Orchard Farm. Mrs. K. A. Bridges gave a most informative talk on Orchids and then presented each member a beautiful orchid. After the tour was completed the group returned to the Legion Hut where they were served delicious refreshments by the hostesses, Miss June Greer, Mrs. Ray Griffin, and Mrs. Tommy Gschwind.

When the grocery bill seems high, it might help to consider that about a third of the items in the basket scarcely existed 20 years ago. Another third now comes in an entirely different form. Instant pastry mixes and desserts; frozen juice concentrates, frozen fruits and vegetables; prepared meats and dinners are mostly things new and different. Fresh foods which used to be available only "in season" are now available all year. Consumption of convenience foods has risen remarkably.
