

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

McLean Style Shop's Fall Fashion Show Is Big Success

Something different and highly pleasing in the way of fashion shows was staged by McLean Style Shop in Aberdeen Monday night, when an outdoor showing of their new casual and sport clothes was held. A dozen lovely models stepped from show windows decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and proceeded out to the sidewalk, which served as a stage. Spectators, estimated at several hundred, were seated outside.

The improvised stage formed an especially attractive setting for the models. The sidewalk was covered with grass mats, and banks of pines served as a background for colorful fresh flowers.

Organ music was furnished by Mrs. L. D. McDonald of Southern Pines and Mrs. Nancy McClellan was commentator.

Mrs. Bill Benson of Southern Pines won the door prize, and the consolation went to Miss Virginia Tribble of Aberdeen.

Mrs. Arthur Thomas and Mrs. Vann Are Hostesses To Club

The Manly-Southern Pines Home Demonstration Club met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Arthur Thomas in Pinehurst, with Mrs. Thomas Vann as co-hostess. Twenty members and guests were present.

Mrs. Robert F. Shaw led the devotions and Miss Flora McDonald, home agent, gave an interesting yeast bread demonstration. The finished product was highly praised, after members had given it the taste test. Miss McDonald also displayed beautiful pine cone and acorn arrangements.

Meeting for the first time in the Pinehurst home of Mrs. Thomas, who formerly lived in Southern Pines, the members were greatly interested in the decorative work she had achieved and in her handmade rugs, the colors of which were so effective with the fall flowers which she had arranged.

Officers for 1957 are: Mrs. J. B. Cameron, Manly, president; Mrs. G. H. Wright, Southern Pines, vice-president; and Mrs. Katherine Monroe, Manly, secretary-treasurer.

The hostesses served canapés, cakes and punch.

The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Mildred P. Miller in Pinehurst.

Joyce Little Is Honored At Party On Seventh Birthday

Joyce Little, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Little, was honored at a party given by her mother on Wednesday afternoon of last week in celebration of her seventh birthday. Joyce and 14 of her friends had a good time playing games and engaging in contests. Prizes were won by Carolyn Jean McRae and Mary Wright. Birthday cake and ice cream were served, each child was presented a favor, and the honoree was showered with many interesting gifts.

Guests included Anelle Frye, Linda Buchan, Joan Reid, Betsy Leonard, Jane Harris, Susan Trudell, Danny and Carol Nicely, Mary and Geraldine Wright, Donnie, Donnell, Carolyn Jean McRae, David McKenzie and Mike Bettini. Mothers attending were Mrs. B. W. Harris, Mrs. C. H. Donnell, Mrs. Bill Nicely, and Mrs. Eugene McKenzie.

Episcopal Nursery School, Kindergarten Opens Next Monday

Next Monday will be school time for tots attending the Episcopal Nursery School and Kindergarten, taught by Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin and Miss Barbara Beterley. The school will open at 9 a. m. and run until noon.

Mrs. Edwards' School Opens For Fall Term

Mrs. Walter Edwards' First Grade School opened last Thursday, and children are still being enrolled for the fall term. School hours are 8:30 a. m. to 12 noon.

Dr. Heinisch Attends Meeting In Asheville

Dr. George Heinisch has returned from Asheville, where he attended the annual joint meeting of the North Carolina and South Carolina Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Societies, held September 16-19th.

MISS GERALDINE BETHEA SPEAKS VOWS WITH CORDELL HOPPER IN CHURCH RITES

In a private ceremony at the First Baptist Church at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, September 16 with relatives and a few close friends in attendance, Miss Geraldine Bethea became the bride of Airman 2/c Cordell Hopper. The Rev. D. Hoke Coon, church pastor, officiated using the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Jeanne Saunders, organist, presented the wedding music.

The couple entered together, unattended, the bride wearing an afternoon dress of Capri blue silk with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of Royal Bouquet white orchids.

Following the wedding an informal reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodruff, uncle and aunt of the bride, at their home. Mrs. B. W. Harris served the cake and Mrs. Mary Hendricks presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Hopper is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bethea of Southern Pines. She is a graduate of Southern Pines High School and Kings Business College in Charlotte. Since completing her business training she has been employed as secretary by the Southern Friction Material Company in Charlotte.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hopper of Urbana, Ill. Soon after completing high school he entered the Air Force and is now stationed at Shaw Air Force Base in South Carolina.

After a wedding trip to Urbana, Ill., the couple will be at home in Sumter, S. C. For travel the bride wore a blue-grey suit with beige and navy accessories and her wedding corsage.

Social Courtesies
Mr. and Mrs. James Pate, uncle and aunt of the bride, entertained the couple and Miss Fay Lewis of Charlotte at dinner Saturday. Mrs. Lela Lawrence entertained Miss Bethea, Airman Hopper and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodruff and family at luncheon on Sunday.

BAPTIST WOMEN ELECT OFFICERS AND REORGANIZE CIRCLES FOR NEW YEAR

An enthusiastic meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church was held Tuesday night at the church, with a program on State Missions, reports of committees and election of officers on the agenda. Around 45 women attended.

Mrs. William Dale, program leader, was assisted by Mrs. Bill Thomasson and Mrs. Hoke Coon in presenting the program.

Mrs. Jack Davenport was re-elected to the presidency, and chosen to serve with her were: Mrs. C. D. May, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Norman Caudle, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Henry Clayton, recording secretary - treasurer; Mrs. Perry Frye, corresponding secretary - literature chairman; Mrs. Ben Steen, young people's director; Mrs. Raymond Parker, mission study chairman; Mrs. Harold Fowler, stewardship chairman; Mrs. David Gamble, community missions chairman; Mrs. S. S. Thompson, Mrs. William Dale and Mrs. Hoke Coon, prayer chairman; Mrs. William Darden, social chairman; and Mrs. George Little, publicity chairman.

Circle chairmen were elected for the coming year, and they, in turn, drew names for Circle membership. Mrs. C. R. Mills is chairman of the afternoon group; Mrs. Don Traylor, of the morning Circle, and those meeting at night have the following chairmen: No. 1, Mrs. Tom Howerton; No. 2, Mrs. Ray Schilling; No. 3, Mrs. James Pruitt; and No. 4, Mrs. Nellie Mann.

TEACHERS ARE GUESTS OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH WOMEN AT PROGRAM, RECEPTION

Members of the Southern Pines faculty were guests at the monthly meeting of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church, held Monday night in the church sanctuary with the president, Mrs. George Heinisch, presiding over a brief business session.

Mrs. Joe C. Thomas led the opening devotions and Mrs. Avery Evans, chairman of Christian Education, presented a program on religious education. A panel composed of Mrs. Wayland Blue, Mrs. L. L. Woolley and Mrs. James Stephens discussed "You Are a Pupil and a Teacher Every Day."

Methodist Woman's Society Holds Monthly Meeting At Parsonage

The Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service held its monthly meeting Monday night at the parsonage, opening with the WSCS purpose repeated in unison by the members.

Mrs. J. S. Hiatt presided over the business session, during which reports were heard and final plans for the public supper held this Wednesday night completed.

Mrs. R. L. Bame announced that the prayer groups will meet at the parsonage next Thursday, the 27th.

Mrs. Ralph Franklin was program leader. Theme for the new quadrennium just beginning is "The Spirit of Christ For All of Us." Goals for the four-year period were presented.

Fifteen members attended, and there was one visitor, Mrs. Norma Jean Howell of Charlotte, guest of Mrs. Allan W. Shaw, Jr.

Legion Auxiliary Installs Officers, Hears Reports

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the Legion Hut Tuesday night for a business session highlighted by the installation of officers.

Miss Grace Donaldson gave a report on the department convention held in Charlotte, and Miss Jean Howarth, the Auxiliary's representative at Girls State, told of this.

In an installation ceremony conducted by Mrs. J. S. McLaughlin, the following were inducted into office: Mrs. Veta E. Gorman, president; Mrs. L. L. Woolley, 1st vice-president; Mrs. F. M. Dwight, 2nd vice-president; Miss Grace Donaldson, secretary; Mrs. David McCallum, treasurer. Also, Mrs. Dan R. McNeill, historian; Mrs. G. L. Culler, chaplain; Mrs. L. A. Des Pland, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Ethel Blue Britt, child welfare chairman; and Mrs. James A. Springer, rehabilitation chairman.

Manly Church Circle Meets With Mrs. Vann

Circle 3 of Manly Presbyterian Women of the Church met Wednesday night of last week with Mrs. Thomas Vann in Southern Pines. Mrs. G. L. Culler, Circle chairman, led the program and Mrs. D. E. McDonald presented the Bible lesson, which was a study of "The Home in Bethany," of Mary and Martha. Refreshments were served by the hostess during the social hour which followed the program.

MISS CLARA JEAN GARRISON IS WED TO JAMES V. HATCH IN DOUBLE RING RITES

Miss Clara Jean Garrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Garrison of Pinehurst, became the bride of Airman James V. Hatch, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Hatch of Southern Pines, at 6 p. m. Friday, September 14.

The Rev. Tom Young officiated at the double ring ceremony which was performed before an improvised altar in the living room of the Culdee Presbyterian Church manse, decorated with greenery, candles and arrangements of white gladioli.

Families of the couple, relatives and close friends were present.

The bride and groom entered together, unattended, the bride wearing a ballerina length dress of blue lace with matching accessories. Her flowers were white orchids.

After the ceremony they left on a wedding trip through the Smoky Mountains.

The bride is a senior at Pinehurst High School, where she plans to continue her studies until graduation, after which she will join her husband at his base.

Mr. Hatch was graduated from Southern Pines High School in 1954 and entered the Air Force in January, 1955. For the past year he has been stationed in Saudi Arabia. He came home the last of August, and is to report to Ellsworth AFB, Rapid City, S. Dak., October 8.

BEULAH HILL CHURCH WOMEN ORGANIZE MISSIONARY SOCIETY AT RITTER HOME

Thirty-five ladies of Beulah Hill Church met at the home of Mrs. C. H. Ritter Monday for the purpose of organizing a missionary society. Mrs. Max Gilmore presided and gave a talk on mission work.

Miss Doris Moore was guest speaker. She gave an interesting account of her mission work in Africa, telling of her experiences in working with the African people. She expressed her thanks for the prayers offered for missionaries, and inspired her hearers to have a greater desire to aid the mission cause.

The group elected the following officers, who are to be installed at the 7:30 p. m. service at Beulah Hill Church on October 7: president, Mrs. Joe Wiseman; vice-president, Mrs. Altha Morgan; secretary, Mrs. Laverne Cole; treasurer, Mrs. Alma Ritter; song leader, Mrs. Altha Morgan; chairman of prayer, Mrs. Minnie Morgan; program, Mrs. Dan Lewis; enlistment, Mrs. Lou Weather-spoon; community missions, Mrs. Mildred Ritter; mission study, Mrs. Emily Cole; stewardship, Mrs. Flossie Currie; publicity, Mrs. Lexie Smith; and social chairman, Mrs. Floyd Cole.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Ed Cole at 8 p. m. October 11. At this meeting the group will be divided into Circles.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

CHURCH OF WIDE FELLOWSHIP MAKES PLANS FOR NEW YEAR'S ACTIVITIES

September meetings of the various Circles of the Woman's Society of the Church of Wide Fellowship were busy ones, with election of officers and planning for the new season highlighting the business.

The Ruth Burr Sanborn Circle, which met Monday in the home of Mrs. Robert Leland, elected the following: chairman, Mrs. Leland; secretary, Mrs. Veta E. Gorman; treasurer, Mrs. Bryan Poe.

Meeting with Mrs. E. V. Walker Thursday afternoon, the Friendship Circle chose Mrs. Walker as chairman; Mrs. Clayton McAdam, secretary, and Mrs. Sam Richardson, treasurer.

The Loyalty Circle held its meeting in the church parlor Thursday afternoon. Selected to lead the work of this group were: Mrs. James Besley, chairman; Mrs. Carl Foss, secretary; and Mrs. L. M. Daniels, treasurer.

Mrs. M. Y. Poe was hostess to the Margaret White Circle, which elected Mrs. Marshall Palmer, chairman; Mrs. Fred M. Trimble, secretary; and Mrs. Wade D. Stevick, treasurer.

The Church Night covered dish dinner Friday, with the Ruth Burr Sanborn Circle as hostess, is reported as a success from every standpoint—good attendance, good food, good fellowship. Tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday are the two days on which the ladies of the church will hold all church rummage sales in the church basement. Articles for the sale may be left at the church today, Friday or Saturday between 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., or if Mrs. Bryan Poe, telephone 2-3881, is called, she will arrange to have the donations collected.

Next Sunday, the 23rd, from 4 to 8 p. m., at the church, a setting-up conference will be held. All trustees, deacons, officers and teachers of the church school, all standing committees and officers of departments are asked to be present to aid in setting up the programs and schedule of activities for the fall months. The 11 a. m. service Sunday will be in preparation for this conference. Dr. Timmons will have as his subject "The Genius of Jesus."

The Women's Society will hold its monthly meeting at 8 p. m. Thursday, September 27, in the R. L. House chapel. Mrs. Harry H. Pethick will give a background talk preparatory to the study of Southeast Asia, the subject of the mission study selected for the year by the National Council of Churches. Anyone who is interested is invited to attend.

Duplicate Bridge Club Has Good Attendance At Tuesday Meeting

With an unusually large attendance the Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club met Tuesday night at the Southern Pines Country Club.

In North-South, Mrs. Roy Grinnell and Dr. R. M. McMillan were tied for first place with Miss Louise Blue and Mrs. W. L. Poole of Raeford, and in third place were Mrs. Agnes Johnson and Mrs. Graham of Raeford.

East-West winners were 1st, Mrs. Frank Roberts and Mrs. Lamont Brown; 2nd, Mrs. G. W. Coleman and Mrs. Robert Strouse; 3rd, Mrs. Curtis Townsend and Mrs. Jean Edson.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Adams Honored At Parties

Dr. and Mrs. Harrell Johnson entertained a number of friends at a dinner party Friday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Hal Adams, who will be leaving soon to make their home in Hartsville, S. C.

Mrs. Adams was again honored Tuesday morning when Mrs. J. P. Shamburger and Mrs. Paul Butler were joint hostesses to around 50 guests at a Coca-Cola party at the Shamburger home in Knollwood. Miss Page Shamburger, who is here from Great Barrington, Mass., to spend a vacation with her father, Frank Shamburger of Aberdeen, was a special guest.

Officers Wives Club Resumes Meetings

The USAFAGOS Officers' Wives Club held its first fall luncheon and business meeting this week, with officers elected last spring filling their posts.

New members were introduced, also a guest, Mrs. Wooten, who is visiting her niece, Mrs. G. W. Porter.

The table was decorated with an arrangement of miniature chrysanthemums, which was later given as a door prize to Mrs. Al Clark. Mrs. Ed Kitchens was winner in a game and her prize was a glass decanter.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. John Mims and Mrs. Robert Price.

Emmaday Collins Is Honored At Going Away Party

Members of the younger set enjoyed an outdoor party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don F. Traylor, Jr., Saturday evening, given by Misses Becky Traylor and Frances Harper as a surprise honor for Miss Emmaday Collins prior to her departure for Charleston to enter Ashley Hall.

Dancing and refreshments were enjoyed on the terrace and the honoree was presented going-away gifts by the hostesses and guests. There were about 50 guests.

Attend Funeral Of Mrs. Wiley

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Holland and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hinnant, Jr., of Richmond, Va., and Mrs. T. A. Rountree and Miss Penny Fuller of Lumberton were here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Verdie Wiley.

Frye Reunion Held Sunday

The annual reunion of descendants of A. Bragg Frye was held Sunday afternoon at the American Legion Hut near Carthage, with a picnic supper. Attending from Southern Pines were Mr. and Mrs. Graham Culbreth, Tom Culbreth, and Mrs. J. B. Eastwood. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. S. Massenburg and Miss Johnsey Massenburg, who came down from Raleigh.

Looking Ahead

LEARN MORE CLASS
The Learn More Bible Class will meet at 8 p. m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Jack Reid on North May Street.

EXECUTIVE BOARD
The executive board of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church will meet at 8 p. m. Monday in the church parlor.

BAKE SALE
The Junior Woman's Club of Southern Pines will hold a bake sale on the porch of the Jefferson Inn tomorrow (Friday), beginning at 9 a. m.

WOODMEN CIRCLE
Dogwood Grove No. 253 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle will meet Wednesday, September 26, at 8 p. m. in the Woodmen hall. Election of officers will be held and all members are asked to be present.

RUMMAGE SALE
St. Anthony's Guild will hold a rummage sale at St. Anthony's School auditorium just back of the Colonial Store, on Friday and Saturday, September 28-29, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. for the benefit of the new school. Plans for the sale were made at the first fall meeting of the Guild.

BAPTIST MEETINGS
The Sunbeams of the First Baptist Church will meet at 3 p. m. Tuesday at the church. The Brotherhood will meet at 7 p. m. Tuesday at the church. Circle 4 will serve the supper.

Mrs. Boyd Returns, Visiting Relatives On Way Back Home

Mrs. James Boyd returned to Southern Pines Tuesday after an absence of several weeks, the greater part of which time was spent at her summer place in Sorrento, Maine, on Frenchman Bay.

On the trip down she stopped in Millbrook, N. Y., to spend a couple of days with her sister, Miss Elizabeth Lamont, and in Paxtang, Pa., to visit her nephew and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alec Boyd and Jackson Emory Boyd, known to his friends as "Jeb." The Boyds are living in the little white house which was the birthplace of James Boyd.

Mrs. Alec Boyd drove her to Newville to have lunch with Miss Lucy Hayes, who spent many winters in Southern Pines with Mrs. John Y. Boyd, mother of James and Jackson Boyd.

New Heir-rivals

KIMBERLY ANN RYAN
Capt. and Mrs. William J. Ryan are the parents of a daughter, Kimberly Ann, born at Moore County Hospital Thursday, September 13, weighing eight pounds two ounces. Her other children are Ricky, four years old, and Kevin, two.

INS AND OUTS

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Grey and baby, Cynthia, have gone to Greenville, where he will complete his senior year at East Carolina College.

Mrs. W. D. Fullenwider of Monroe arrived Tuesday to spend some time in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fullenwider, who are now occupying a place on Morganton Road which they recently purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmelzer and daughter, Miss Blanche Sherman, have returned from a three weeks' vacation spent in the Finger Lakes section of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McDonald visited Floyd Snipes and family in Burlington Sunday. The two men were buddies in World War I and have kept in touch through the years.

Shop Sprott Bros. FURNITURE Co.

Sanford, N. C.

For Quality Furniture and Carpet

- Heritage-Henredon
- Drexel
- Continental
- Mengel
- Seria and Simmons Bedding
- Craftico
- Sprague & Carlton
- Kroehler
- Lees Famous (and all famous brands)
- Chromcraft Dinettes

SPROTT BROS.
1485 Moore St. Tel. 3-6261
Sanford, N. C.

CONTRACT PAINTING "IT COSTS MORE NOT TO PAINT" SHAW PAINT & WALL PAPER CO. SOUTHERN PINES Phone 2-7601

Exciting Magic!

That's what we work, with face-flattering Coiffures, for the girls who wear glasses... as well as for those who don't.

Let us prove it!

VOGUE BEAUTY SHOP
117 W. Penn Ave. Tel. 2-8711 Southern Pines

HUMPHREY'S STUDIO

is now open on full time basis

Portrait, News and Commercial Photography Photo Finishing

HUMPHREY'S STUDIO
EMERSON HUMPHREY, Photographer
240 S. W. Broad St. Tel. 2-3611 SOUTHERN PINES