

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

Local Clubwomen Enjoy Open House At Children's Home

The Greensboro Junior Woman's Club and the Children's Home Society entertained at an open house at the Children's Home on Cypress Street in Greensboro last Thursday from 1:00 to 4:00 p. m., and five members of the local Junior Woman's Club attended.

They greatly enjoyed visiting the babies at the Home, meeting the representatives of the Children's Home Society, and young clubwomen from throughout the State of North Carolina.

Work for the Children's Home is one of the major projects of Junior Women's Clubs, and this opportunity of visiting it added to the already keen interest of the local clubwomen.

Those attending the open house were Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., club president; Mrs. Victor Shepherd, club chairman of Children's Home Society; Mrs. John Tullett, Mrs. Stanley Austin and Mrs. Norman Caudle.

Miss Polly Dix Speaks To Circle On Puerto Rico

Miss Polly Dix of Southern Pines, who formerly did mission work in Puerto Rico, was guest speaker when Circle 1 of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service met Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Graves on May Street.

The speaker discussed the geography, climate, government, school system and other subjects pertaining to Puerto Rico which her hearers found most informative and interesting.

Mrs. Norman Calcutt introduced Miss Dix and Mrs. John Lowdermilk, Circle chairman, presided over the business session.

Six Churches Are Represented At Quiet Day Here

The annual Quiet Day for Episcopal Women's Auxiliaries of the Richmond District was held at Emmanuel Church here on Wednesday of last week, and in spite of the rainy weather, members were present from Hamlet, Laurinburg, Albemarle, Rockingham and Carthage to join with the hostess group in the observance.

Quiet Day started at 10 a. m. with Holy Communion, at which the rector, the Rev. Martin Caldwell, celebrant, was assisted by the Rev. John C. Mott, rector of Holy Trinity Church in Greensboro and guest speaker for the occasion. A short coffee period followed in the parish hall.

At 11 o'clock all returned to the church for three talks by the Rev. Mr. Mott, who had as his subject "New Life in Christ." He divided it into three parts: "The Way," "The Truth," and "The Life." Each talk was followed by quiet meditation or silent reading on the subject from books and pamphlets placed at the rear of the church.

A box luncheon was served in the parish hall at 1:30 p. m. Everyone seemed to feel that the day had been most satisfying.

Mrs. Matthews Is Paid Birthday Honor

When Mrs. W. D. Matthews, whose birthday was Saturday, returned from church Sunday, to her surprise she found a nice birthday dinner on the table and most of her family there to help enjoy it. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Matthews, had planned the celebration and she and Mrs. Harry Fullenwider had prepared the dinner. There was a decorated cake and the honoree was presented gifts.

There for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Matthews and children, Dee, Buddy and Emily, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fullenwider, Janet and Jon, all of Southern Pines; and Warren D. Matthews and sons, Duncan and Mike, of Fayetteville. Mrs. Warren Matthews and daughters, and Preston Matthews who is in Alaska were the only absentees.

Lorensons Are Back From Myrtle Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lorenson returned Monday from Myrtle Beach, S. C., where Mr. Lorenson attended a meeting of the 1957 Convention Committee of the North Carolina Society of Accountants.

The North Carolina Society will meet in joint session with the South Carolina Association next June at the Ocean Forest Hotel at Myrtle Beach.

MISS VELLE DAVENPORT

GOTHNER-DAVENPORT BERTHOAL TOLD; WEDDING AT "PICKRIDGE" IN NOVEMBER

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Velle Davenport, daughter of Mrs. William Kyle Davenport and the late Mr. Davenport, to Karl-Folke Gotthner of Soderhamn, Sweden, and New York City, is of interest in the Carolinas and Florida where Miss Davenport formerly resided. She is the granddaughter of the late Lillian Davis Collins and John D. Collins of Spartanburg, S. C., founder of the chain Collins Stores in the Carolinas, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Travis Davenport of Gaffney, S. C.

The wedding will take place in November at "Pickridge," the home of her maternal uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Collins, at Southern Pines.

Miss Davenport received her formal education at Florida State University and her dramatic training at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts and Yale Drama School. She is now a well known actress, having starred in national theatrical companies and in network television. She is currently the leading lady at the Lake Whalom Playhouse, the second oldest summer theatre in the United States.

Mr. Gotthner, the son of Mrs. Folke Ivan Gotthner and the late Mr. Gotthner, is a graduate of the Stockholm Technical Institute of Stockholm, Sweden, and served as an officer in the Royal Engineering Corps of the Swedish Army. He is associated in business as an executive technical specialist with Rosenblad, Ltd., of Canada and the Rosenblad Corporation of New York, both of which are branches of the parent company in Sweden.

MUSIC BY DEAF CHOIR ONE FEATURE OF EPISCOPAL WOMEN'S DISTRICT MEETING

The fall meeting of Richmond District of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church will be held in Emmanuel Church, Southern Pines, next Wednesday, October 10, beginning at 10 a. m.

There will be a Communion service with the Rev. Martin Caldwell of Southern Pines as celebrant and the Rev. C. E. B. Robinson of Rockingham assisting.

After the service there will be a business session. Mrs. Walter Bade of Greensboro will report on the Provincial meeting in Miami, Fla. A color film stressing the program of the church for the coming year will be shown.

At noon the Rev. James Fortune of Greensboro, missionary to the deaf, will talk on his work. Mr. Fortune is 1st vice president of the conference of church workers among the deaf for the Episcopal Church in the United States. He is bringing with him members of the choir of the School for the Deaf at Morganton and they will present some of the music of the church.

The public is invited to come at noon for Mr. Fortune's part of the program.

Presbyterian Circles Meet

Circle 8 of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church met Monday night with Mrs. Avery Evans with nine members present. Mrs. Dan S. Ray conducted the Bible study and Mrs. Wayland Blue presented the program article from Presbyterian Women.

Mrs. Davis Salmon and Mrs. Howard McNeill were hostesses to Circle 4 Monday night at the home of Mrs. Salmon. Ten members were present, and one visitor, Mrs. George Heintsh. Mrs. Harvey Horne led the Bible study and Mrs. Walter Harper gave the Presbyterian Women article.

Circle 2 met at the home of Mrs. W. C. Hilderman Tuesday afternoon with 13 members present. Mrs. Joe C. Thomas led the Bible study and Miss Ethel Britt spoke on "Church Extension."

Circle 1 was entertained at the home of Mrs. Dan R. McNeill Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. R. P. Brown conducted the Bible study and Mrs. Frank Warner presented the Presbyterian Women magazine article. Fourteen members attended.

Pvt. James C. Hackney and a friend were here from Fort Jackson, S. C., Sunday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hackney.

Church Of Wide Fellowship Notes

Church of Wide Fellowship Circles will hold their monthly meetings next week.

The Ruth Burr Sanborn group will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. W. C. Timmons, 260 North Ridge Street.

Four Circles will meet Thursday afternoon, the 11th, as follows:

The Margaret White Circle at the home of Mrs. P. P. Felton, 670 N. W. Broad Street, at 3 o'clock.

The Loyalty Circle at the home of Mrs. W. C. Timmons at 3 o'clock.

The Lena Sweezy Circle will meet in the church parlor at 2:30 p. m. for a short business session and at 3 o'clock will be joined by the Friendship Circle members for a study period on "The Philippines." Mrs. W. D. Matthews will lead the devotional service. Mrs. Harry L. Brown and Mrs. Harry H. Pethick will be hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Reed of Plymouth are expected tomorrow for a weekend stay with her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore and Mrs. Mildred Merrill.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Leo G. Lewis of Silas, Ala., have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Joyce Lee, of Fayetteville and Silas, to First Lt. Frederick Carl Patton of Fort Bragg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Finis C. Patton of Eunice, N. Mex. The wedding will be solemnized in Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church in Southern Pines on Saturday, November 10, at 4 p. m. Friends of the couple are invited.

Miss Lewis was formerly employed by the Southern Pines Pharmacy and has many friends here.

Officers' Wives Club Entertains Guest; Has 'Overseas' Program

Mrs. Henry Jones and Mrs. Matthew Toia were hostesses at Tuesday's luncheon and business meeting of the USAFAGOS Officers' Wives Club, which was held at the Highland Pines Inn.

A special guest at the meeting was Mrs. Norman Schwartzkopf, whose husband, Maj. Gen. Schwartzkopf, is at the school this week. She was introduced by Mrs. James Newkirk, who conducted the business session and presented the speakers.

The table centerpiece was a fall arrangement of chrysanthemums. This was later given as a door prize and Mrs. Schwartzkopf was the winner.

The program was based on "Overseas Assignments," and the guest and a number of members spoke and displayed articles which they had brought home from various countries.

Mrs. Schwartzkopf, whose topic was Iran, displayed interesting pieces of silver jewelry.

Mrs. Daniel W. Jenkins showed a collection of antique silver from Germany and England.

Mrs. Nelson Monson had Mexico as her "assignment," and she showed glassware and told something of how it is blown.

Mrs. Tom Nicholson showed colored slides of Japan and displayed an assortment of Japanese art, including silks, carvings and other things.

Mrs. Charles Brown had articles from England, most interesting of which was what appeared to be just a stool, but the top opened to disclose a tiny recessed tub, forerunner of today's baby bathtub.

Mrs. John Daunt displayed a bracelet of scarabs from Brazil, also a collection of butterflies and carved quartz.

The program proved to be one of unusual interest to all present.

Girl Scout News

The final session of a basic training course for Girl Scout leaders and their assistants will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church. Other meetings were held on Monday and Wednesday nights of this week. Attendance at this course is very important to the work.

The 22nd Regional Conference will be held in Savannah, Ga., Oct. 16-19. Savannah is the birthplace of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouts of America. Her home has been restored and will be officially open during the conference.

Attending the conference from local Troop 48 will be Senior Scout Carol Staples, an official delegate, who was also an alternate for the Big Round-Up held in Michigan during the summer, to which Phyllis Garzik of Southern Pines was a delegate.

Others attending the Savannah conference will include Miss Kathryn Cressman of Sanford, executive; Mrs. Casey Fowler, senior leader, of Lillingston; Mrs. J. M. Caddell of Sanford, staff and office chairman; Mrs. Roy Morris, membership and program committee; Mrs. E. L. Morgan and Mrs. J. D. Lynch of Sanford, community chairmen; and Mrs. P. R. Jackson of Pittsboro, 2nd vice president.

Candace McDonald of Carthage is another Moore County girl among the six Scouts selected from this area to attend.

Troop 48 has as its leaders Miss Carolyn Chester and Mrs. Mildred Merrill. Mrs. Garland Pierce is committee chairman and serving with her are Mrs. O. H. Rawlinson and Mrs. Donald Wellman. Patrol leaders are Phyllis Garzik and Sandra Bailey; assistants, Carol Staples and Johnnie McCrimmon.

Other troop members are: Connie Pierce, Karen McKenzie, Alice Farrior, Greta Newkirk, Betsy Scheipers, Nancy Rawlinson, Donna Poole, Becky Traylor, Linda Wellman, Jan McDonald, and Pat Farrior.

Troop 48 started selling Girl Scout calendars today.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil P. Clark had as weekend guests at their mountain place, "Wildwood," near Asheville, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Stratton.

MRS. VERNON RUSSELL WILSON

MISS BILLIE H. CALLICUTT IS BRIDE OF MR. WILSON IN CANDLELIGHT CEREMONY

Miss Billie Harlene Callicut, daughter of Mrs. June L. Callicut and the late Mr. Callicut of Robbins, became the bride of Vernon Russell Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gurney L. Wilson, also of Robbins, in a candlelight ceremony at 6 p. m. Saturday, September 29, at Acorn Ridge Baptist Church. The Rev. William F. Hancock officiated, assisted by the Rev. Edward Dupre.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli and mums against a background of greenery, interspersed with candleabra holding lighted tapers. At the center of the setting was a white prie-dieu.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Lenton Kidd of Highfalls, pianist, Miss Frances Lambert of Robbins, who sang "O Promise Me" and "Whither Thou Goest," and Herbert Lambert, also of Robbins, who sang "Seal Us, O Holy Spirit" as a benediction.

The bride's gown was of white slipper satin, fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt extending into a sweeping train. Clusters of seed pearls trimmed the round neckline. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown of pearlized orange blossoms, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with a purple-throated white orchid.

Miss Clara Callicut of Washington, D. C., was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length dress of twilight champagne satin and matching head-dress. Her cascade bouquet was of red roses.

Miss Leona Callicut, sister of the bride, and Miss Carol Wilson, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were of ice blue taffeta and they carried bouquets of blue and white carnations.

Junior bridesmaids were Ruby and Shirley Callicut, sisters of the bride.

The bride attended Strayer's Business College, Washington, D. C., and has been employed by Amertron Corporation in Aberdeen as secretary. The bridegroom attended High Point College and is employed in a family business.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride with Mrs. Everette Sheffield and Mrs. Frank Allred as hostesses.

For their wedding trip to an undisclosed destination the bride wore a navy blue suit with winter white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return they will be at home on Route 1, Robbins.

The bride attended Strayer's Business College, Washington, D. C., and has been employed by Amertron Corporation in Aberdeen as secretary. The bridegroom attended High Point College and is employed in a family business.

The bride attended Strayer's Business College, Washington, D. C., and has been employed by Amertron Corporation in Aberdeen as secretary. The bridegroom attended High Point College and is employed in a family business.

The bride attended Strayer's Business College, Washington, D. C., and has been employed by Amertron Corporation in Aberdeen as secretary. The bridegroom attended High Point College and is employed in a family business.

The bride attended Strayer's Business College, Washington, D. C., and has been employed by Amertron Corporation in Aberdeen as secretary. The bridegroom attended High Point College and is employed in a family business.

The bride attended Strayer's Business College, Washington, D. C., and has been employed by Amertron Corporation in Aberdeen as secretary. The bridegroom attended High Point College and is employed in a family business.

The bride attended Strayer's Business College, Washington, D. C., and has been employed by Amertron Corporation in Aberdeen as secretary. The bridegroom attended High Point College and is employed in a family business.

VFW District Meeting To Be Held Here

At the regular meeting of the VFW Auxiliary Wednesday, October 3, it was announced that the next meeting of the 9th District for the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held in Southern Pines at the John Boyd Post 7318, Sunday, October 14, at 2:30 p. m.

James Wallace, district senior vice commander, will be the presiding officer for the Post and Mrs. Carolyn Rasette, district president, will be the presiding officer for the Auxiliary. It is planned for the Auxiliary to meet in joint session with the Post, after which separate meetings are to be held. All members of the Post and Auxiliary are urged to attend.

In addition to plans for the 9th District meeting, a goodwill trip to McCain Sanatorium was scheduled for Wednesday, October 10. Plans were also made for a membership party in the near future.

Bridge Club Lists Winners For Week

The Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club had five tables at play Monday night at the regular weekly meeting held at the Southern Pines Country Club. Winners were: 1st, Dr. R. M. McMillan and Mrs. Roy Grinnell; 2nd, Don Moore and Mrs. Frank de Costa; 3rd, Mrs. James Besley and Mrs. C. D. May.

A master point game is scheduled for next Tuesday. The club welcomes visitors and extends an invitation to winter guests and army people. Persons wishing to play should be at the club at 7:45 as the game starts promptly at 8.

Looking Ahead

CHURCH CIRCLES

Three Circles of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church will hold their meetings next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, as follows:

Circle 3, with Mrs. D. W. Jenkins.

Circle 5, with Mrs. Foy Horton.

Circle 10, with Mrs. John Cline.

BAPTIST MEETINGS

Circle 4 of the First Baptist Church will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday with Mrs. Nellie Mann.

The Sunbeams will meet at the church at 3 p. m. Tuesday.

LEARN MORE CLASS

Because of the illness of the teacher, Mrs. C. C. Kennedy, the Learn More Class will not meet next Monday night.

INSTALLATION

A public installation of officers of the Order of the Rainbow will be held in the Masonic Hall at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, October 10. Parades are especially invited and urged to attend.

Lee Powers

Southern Pines

2-3141

A COLLECTION of DYED TO MATCH COORDINATES Skirts in flannels and beautiful tweeds Sweaters in Orlon and Fur blend fiber WOOL JERSEYS Skirts and tops dyed to match Also this season's fashion in blouses "THE BLOUSON" both in jersey and cotton

PHARMACISTS TO THE MEDICAL PROFESSION

ASK YOUR DOCTOR ABOUT OUR STORE

Let us fill your next Prescription

OPEN SUNDAY

BROAD STREET PHARMACY

Prescription Headquarters Phone 2-5411

Southern Pines, N. C. PHARMACISTS ON DUTY

Jerry Rhoades

Joe Montesanti, Jr., Prop.