LONGER, lower "in motion" emphasis on design of Chevrolet's three series of passenger cars for 1957 is evident in this view of the new Bel Air sport coupe. Along with the exciting exterior and interior styling, a higher performance peak and marked mechanical advances are features.

firm announcement as yet from Thomas T. Hayes, local architect who designed the building, as to a beginning date for construction. He was interrupted several times when apparent changes were forthcoming and had to hold up the design from a structural engineering standpoint.

Home Demonstration Club News

Jackson Springs

The Jackson Springs Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday night with Mrs. W. E. Gratham, lesson on "Broiler Meals" ham. Mrs. Ruth H. Muse taught and demonstrated with a delicious oven meal featuring ground beef.

Officers for 1957 were elected as follows: Mrs. Claude Thomas, president; Mrs. John Patterson, vice-president; and Mrs. Charles McDonald, secretary and treasurer.

Plans were made to purchase and have laid a linoleum for the Community House kitchen. Mrs. Charles McDonald was appointed to serve as chairman of this committee.

A social hour and delicious refreshments followed the meeting. —By Mrs. W. M. Thompson, publicity chairman.

WITH THE Armed Forces

Army Specialist Third Class Johnnie W. Drakeford, whose wife, Lucile, lives in Aberdeen, recently participated in Organization Day activities with the 25th Infantry Division in Hawaii.

Specialist Drakeford, an assistant squad leader in Company A of the division's 14th Regiment, entered the Army in March, 1955, and received basic training at Fort Dix, N. J. He has been in Hawaii since the following August.

Army PFC James R. Sheffield, son of Mrs. Bessie K. Sheffield, Pinehurst, recently participated in Organization Day activities with the 25th Infantry Division in Hawaii.

A cannoner in the division, Sheffield entered the Army in November, 1954, and was stationed at Fort Chaffee, Ark., before arriving in Hawaii.

Municipal Bonds For Town Building Sold On Tuesday

The $100,000 in municipal building bonds for Southern Pines was sold to J. Lee Peeler and Co., Inc., Durham, at an average interest rate of 3.2279 per cent, it was announced yesterday by the Local Government Commission.

The bid was one of five received by the Commission, which by law markets all municipal bonds in this state. Highest bid was for an average interest rate of 3.4011 per cent.

For a town of Southern Pines' size the interest rate was considered very good and indicated that most companies look on the town bonds as sound investments.

The bonds will be retired in two phases: in the first 10 years, $5,000 each year will expire, and in the last five years, $10,000 will expire. There has, incidentally, been no

Specialist third class Mark J. King III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark J. King, Jr., of Boiling Springs Circle, has received orders to embark from Hawaii October 25 on rotation to Fort Jackson, S. C.

King entered the armed forces November 22, 1954, and has been stationed at Schofield Barracks for the past 18 months. He is an administrative specialist and was awarded the Good Conduct Medal recently by the commander of the 27th Infantry.

A graduate of Southern Pines High School, he plans to enter college next year.

Most fertilizers are corrosive, and when left in the hopper of a spreader or drill overnight, will cement or "freeze" the feeding mechanism. This may cause breakage of parts when the machine is started again. Extension agricultural engineers point out.
