EMMANUEL CHURCH HOLDS DISTRICT MEETING OF WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The district meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held at Emmanuel Church on Wednesday, October 10th, with members attending from Hamlet, Rockingham, Wadesboro, Carthage, and the newly-formed Auxiliary in Raeford.

The meeting began at 10 o'clock with service of Holy Communion. The Rev. Martin Caldwell was celebrant, assisted by the Rev. C. E. B. Robinson of Rockingham. A business meeting followed conducted by Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins of Southern Pines, chairman of the District and Mrs. Garland McPherson, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. Walter Bade of Greensboro reported the Provincial meeting held in Miami, Fla. earlier this month, giving her impressions and highlights of the convention. This was followed by a colored movie of the Church's work and its significance in daily living, which was in preparation for the Every Member Canvass.

The Rev. James Fortune of Greensboro was introduced by Mrs. J. H. Towne. He is a worker for the deaf all over the state. His father was first to start ministry to the deaf in North Carolina in 1906, and he gave a brief history of what has been done since then. Deaf Bible classes have been established in many places and these are attended regularly. He brought a vested choir of several young women who sang in unison by pantomime signs, hymns and the 23rd Psalm, with graceful motions, done most reverently.

A luncheon followed in the parish hall.

LOCAL FOOTBALL FANS JOIN TREK TO STADIUMS TO WATCH THEIR FAVORITES

The football season is in full swing now and the past weekend saw a number of fans leaving Saturday morning for games over the state. Going up to Durham for the Duke-S.M.U. game were Dr. and Mrs. William Hollister, who had just returned a couple of days before from a week's vacation in New York City, where they saw three of the World Series games. Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Smythe were at the game with some Sanford friends. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Hiatt, Jr., took their sons, Joe and Bob and Jere Tollison and Pete Butler with them.

Spotted at the Carolina-Georgia Homecoming game at Chapel Hill were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Graves with Mr. and Mrs.

Robert Page of Aberdeen. They were luncheon guests at the Planetarium. Others there for the game were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dawson, Eugene C. Stevens, Charles Cole, W. A. Leonard, Tom Cunningham, Don Moore and Sam Richardson, O. T. Parks, Jr., and his son, Topper and Al Butler.

Going up for the Homecoming weekend festivities at The Hill were Misses Joan Howarth, Nancy Jo Traylor and Patty Hobbs. They were guests of Jimmy McDonald, B. G. Patterson and Jimmy Menzel for the game, dinner and dance that evening. They all attended church on Sunday morning and the girls returned to their homes here in the late afternoon—reporting a wonderful time.

Home Economics Girls Give Party For Pre-School Children

A circus party for a group of pre-schoolers was the assignment for one of the Home Economics classes, under the direction of Miss Vira Rogers, and it turned out to be one of the most successful parties ever! It was given in the Home Ec cottage at school last Wednesday afternoon, and the entire affair was staged by the girls themselves, as their teacher was away several days last week.

The table was arranged for a birthday party and three merry-go-rounds, gaily decorated with circus figures held the children's attention—as did the gumdrop apple men, and paper hat favors for the youngsters. Refreshments were ice-cream, cookies and punch. Games were played afterwards and several small prizes were given.

The young trees included Debbie Crabtree, Betsy Leonard, Dan McCrimmon, Marta Shelton, Larry Junkin, Michael Worsham, Bill Vine, Cheryl Hardy, Steve Hardy, Juanita Fortner and Linda Dawson.

The students who gave the party were Phyllis Garzik, Sandra Bailey, Patsy Garner, Johnnie McCrimmon, Vivian Bailey, Loy Clark, Barbara Nall, Elsie Dutton and Judy Parker.

Fall Fashion Show Presented At Civic Club Monday Night

A large and appreciative audience was on hand at the Civic Club Monday evening, when McLean's Style Shop of Aberdeen presented a Fashion Show for the benefit of the Civic Club.

A preview of fall and winter fashions for all ages—from the very young miss to the mature matron—was shown, by models from both Southern Pines and Aberdeen. The clubhouse was decorated with colorful fall flowers and evergreens, which made a lovely background for the clothes, many of which had been flown down from New York especially for the show. Adding to the enjoyment of the affair was the organ music played by Mr. L. D. McDonald.

Mrs. Nancy McClellan was the commentator and the models included Mrs. J. D. Arey, Mrs. Linwood Moon, Mrs. Todd Baxter, Mrs. Pat Starnes, Mrs. Stanley Austin and Mrs. L. D. McDonald. Junior models were the Misses Susie, Elizabeth and Nancy Bridgers of Aberdeen, daughters of Mrs. Jake Bridgers of McLean Style Shop.

Following the show, light refreshments were served by members of the Civic Club.

Ricky Kobleur And Beth Atkinson Have Joint Birthday Party

Ricky Kobleur had a fourth birthday party last week, and Beth Atkinson was three a few days later, so they were given a joint birthday party by their mothers, Mrs. Richard Kobleur and Mrs. Tom Atkinson last Friday afternoon.

The Kobleur home on North Bennett was the scene of the festivities. Halloween decorations were carried out in refreshments and favors, and the youngsters spent the afternoon playing games and having a wonderful time.

Guests included Ricky's brother, Mike Kobleur, Beth's older sister, Sally Atkinson, Patty and Sissy Perham, Patsy, Johnnie and Peggy Talbert, Pat Chuck and Peggy Patch, Tony Weeks and Julie and Kibby Schilling.

W.M.S. Officers Hold Installation Services

Officers and committees of the Women's Missionary Society of the Beulah Hill Baptist Church near Pinehurst were installed recently in an impressive candlelight service held at the church.

Holding a lighted candle, Rev. Max A. Gilmore read a portion of Scripture from Proverbs Chapter 31, after which he lighted the candle of Mrs. Gilmore.

Mrs. Gilmore led the installation service. As each member's name was called she came forward bearing a candle which she lighted from the burning taper of the president, Mrs. Joe Wiseman. At the close of the installation service the group joining in singing the hymn "Ready." Miss Janice Baldwin was the piano accompanist.

Mrs. Murray Clark was in charge of the program, which was a mission study lesson "Volcanoes in Southeast Asia."

Marshs Return From Trip To Virginia

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Marsh, who reside on Morganton Road, have returned from a nice trip to Virginia which they made last week. They visited the Plantation Herb Gardens in Lynchburg and spent two days in Williamsburg. Then up the coast as far as Christchurch for an overnight visit with the Rev. and Mrs. Charles Covell, former Southern Pines residents. They report the Covell family all well and they sent messages to their many friends here.

The Marshs went on to Richmond and had a brief visit with Mrs. Millicent Hayes and her sister, Miss Mary Webb, also well-loved former local residents. They returned home on Saturday, by way of Waynesboro and the Blue Ridge Parkway, reporting a most interesting trip. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh, being great flower lovers, enjoyed the gardens and fall foliage in the mountains. They were particularly impressed with the herb gardens, from which a number of the herbs now at the Shaw House garden were obtained.
