BLUE KNIGHTS

(Continued from Page 1) their lethargy. They've amassed 29 straight victories, which must be some sort of schoolboy record for North Carolina, but, with Leonard not discounting the possibility of getting knocked off Friday, that string may be cut short.

Three players that were injured last Friday night are expected to be in shape for the game: Tony Parker, who was slightly injured, is definitely back in the lineup, Billy Hamel, who injured his leg, will also play, and Roger Verhoeft, who was injured in the third quarter, is also expected to see some action.

James Morrison, who replaced Verhoeft last week, is also due for quite a bit of action. He looked exceptionally well against Pinehurst, and scored in the fourth quarter on a 30-yard pass from Bobby Parker.

Lynn van Benschoten, who was the workhorse of the Blue Knights earlier in the season, is coming around from an injured leg and should be back in top form.

And Kenneth Creech, who has been outstanding in the past three games, is expected to play a lot at his quarterback slot.

Leonard said this morning that if Maxton defeats Southern Pines, it would eliminate the Blue Knights for any chance at the district championship or the state championship. "On the other hand," he pointed out, "if we defeat them, they would be in the same spot. We're out for a win, but will definitely have to play better than we have in the past two games if we're going to get it."

Game time in Maxton is 8 p. m. A big crowd is expected to go from this area to see it.
