Symphony. Said Dr. Langner: "In the past six years these programs have become an inherent part of the teaching material in the public schools' music curriculum."

When It Started

In its first season the association could bring only one concert to Southern Pines—the North Carolina Symphony. The lone presentation was due to the fact that the auditorium was not finished until May, 1950; the concert, which had been scheduled earlier, had been postponed beyond its original date, awaiting completion. Voit Gilmore, president that year, said recently he remembered the concert well—"good music mixed with the smell of fresh paint." In its first year the association's accent on youth was carried further through organizing the Young Musicians' Concert, held annually at the Pinehurst Country Club in the spring. The concert is designed solely for young musicians in Moore County with each music teacher selecting a pupil.

In announcing the program schedule this year, Dr. Langner said the concerts had been designed to appeal to varied tastes through the presentation of both classical and modern offerings.

In addition to the committee in Southern Pines, other committee chairmen are Mrs. Myrton Stewart, Carthage; Mrs. Ralph Caldwell, Aberdeen; Mrs. Mulford Horr, Pinehurst; Mr. J. Culbertson, Robbins; Mrs. T. R. Webb, Pinebluff.
