

If a sound tobacco program is to be maintained, say officials of the Flue-Cured Tobacco Cooperative Stabilization Corporation, all efforts should be made toward producing what the trade wants instead of producing a high tonnage per acre without regard to who will purchase or receive it.

Police Surprise 16-Year Old Boy Attempting To Steal Car

A 16-year old Negro, listed as an escapee from Marston Training School, is being held in Moore County jail this morning under $1,000 bond on auto larceny charges.

The youth, Ray Baldwin, was captured Saturday night by Southern Pines policemen as he was driving a 1956 automobile from the Phillips Motor Company. The youth, according to Sgt. Gerald Wright and Patrolman Robert Yonts, had opened the doors of the garage from the inside and, without turning on the lights of the car, had started driving out.

The two policemen, on routine duty checking business establishments, were there when Baldwin drove out. The youth jumped from the car and ran but was caught as he scrambled into a ditch.

Chief C. E. Newton said the youth was also wanted here for questioning in connection with the theft of Army pistols from the home of Brig. Gen. Pearson Menoher in Knollwood.

On a previous escape from Marston, Baldwin had obtained a job working in Gen. Menoher's yard. Police had picked him up and returned him to the training school. Later, the pistols were found to be missing from Gen. Menoher's garage.

When questioned after being captured this weekend, Baldwin said he had been to New York after escaping. In the meantime, police said, he had turned 16 and was thus ineligible to return to the school. He was placed in jail after waiving a preliminary hearing on the auto larceny charge.

His 14-year old brother, from Aberdeen, was waiting for him at the door of the garage, police said, and was captured and turned over to juvenile authorities.
