

Lynn Warren, Red Cross Official, To Talk At Rotary

Lynn Warren, field representative of the American Red Cross in this area, will be speaker at the regular meeting of the Southern Pines Rotary Club tomorrow (Friday) at the Country Club.

Warren, who came here in July, 1955, from Shreveport, La., has been active in Red Cross work for a number of years. He was on the scene of the California floods last year and helped to coordinate the activities of the Red Cross disaster relief services there.

His talk tomorrow will deal primarily with disaster relief.

HAS NET OF 67

17-Year Old Wins Donald J. Ross Memorial Golf Tourney Last Week

Ed Justa, 17, shot a gross—and net—67 on the Pinehurst Country Club's par-71 No. 3 course last Thursday to win the Donald J. Ross Memorial Junior Golf Championship for the second time.

At 15 two years ago, his even par captured the title.

Justa played at scratch, thereby taking the net honors as well as the gross. Runner-up for gross honors was Jimmy Parks, of Columbia, S. C., with a 70. Sammy Estridge, of Cheraw, with a gross of 78, net 68 was second to Justa for low net in Class A, the boys from 15 to 18 years.

Class B gross prize went to John R. Leach, Jr. of Troy with a 75. His net 69 tied him with six others for low net in this 11 to 15 age class.

The scramble for prizes in Class C for the little fellows resulted in a tie for low gross between Russell Taylor of Roxboro and Kirk Ham of Florence. Each had a 47 for nine holes on the No. 4 course, with Taylor, aged 10, winning the sudden death play-off with a 5 to Ham's 6. The net prize in this division ended in a three-way tie between Ham, Richard Holderness of Greensboro, and Tommy Remmey, of Greensboro, each with 35.

The annual affair for the juniors drew an entry list of 153 players.

Girl Scout Fund Drive $350 Short, Ewing Announces

The Girl Scout Fund Drive in Southern Pines is still $350 short of the $2,200 goal, it was announced this morning by Robert Ewing, fund chairman.

Ewing said the deficit could probably be traced to the fact that Christmas and New Year's caused people to push the drive further back in their minds, but said he was comfortably assured the final goal would be reached.

"Southern Pines is the second largest town in the Central Carolina Girl Scout Council, which has hundreds of girls needing your help," he said. "This is an ideal way for contributors to make their first deductions—all gifts are deductible from income taxes—of 1957," he added.
