

THURSDAY, JANUARY 3,

Wom

and San

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH,

Newcomers Are Now Living At Pinehurst Convalescent Home

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Newcomer have moved from Southern Pines to the Pinehurst Convalescent Home, and they will be glad to have their friends call to see them. Mr. Newcomer, who was born in Ohio, and his wife came to Sandhills in 1927, living first at Pinebluff and for a good many years in Southern Pines where he became known as "the clock maker" because of his skill in repairing clocks.

Camerons Are On Their Big Prize Florida Vacation,

Mr. and Mrs. Shields Cameron left by National Airlines Tuesday for Miami Beach, Fla., for a week's stay at the fabulous Monte Carlo Hotel—this being the grand prize offered in connection with the opening of the new Hotel Johnson's Motor Lodge and Restaurant on December 8, of which they were winners.

Paul Pressly McCain Christened Here

In a special afternoon service December 26 at Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church, Paul Pressly McCain III, son of Dr. Mrs. McCain of Wilson, was christened. The officiating minister was the baby's uncle, the Rev. John M. Reagan.

Present for the rites were the baby's grandparents and other members of the two families.

-:- In and Out

Sgt. and Mrs. J. K. Watson and children of Petersburg, Va., former local residents, spent some time here during the holidays.

Miss Irene Olive of Roanoke Va., was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Olive, for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Horne attended the Dixie Classic basketball series in Raleigh last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. While in the city they were guests of Mrs. Horne's uncle and aunt, and Mrs. Franklin Correll.

Miss Becky Hartgrove of Hamlet spent a week here visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Johnson. She had as her luncheon guests at Jack's Grill on Friday Misses Jean Bushby and Susan Huntley, and Miss Jeanie Butler was her luncheon guest Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Poe spent the Christmas holidays in Albany, N. Y., visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene B. Poe. On the way back they stopped in Portsmouth, Va. to see Mrs. Poe's sisters, Mrs. F. S. Hoggard and Mrs. R. H. McCready.

Seaman Jimmy Weatherspoon of the USS Vesole, stationed Norfolk, Va., spent a 10-day Christmas leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Weatherspoon of South Bennett Street. He had recently returned from the Mediterranean area. Also here a 10-day Christmas leave was Airman and Mrs. Leon Wilson of Quonset Point, R. I., who spent the holidays visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Weatherspoon, and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson of Aberdeen.

Mrs. Frank Totton of Laramont, N. Y., and friend, Mrs. W. W. Ship, were holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland McElvare at their home, Windridge. The visitors were on their way South.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Speight of New York City were holiday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Speight, at their home on Central Drive, in Knollwood. The Speights, who lived on aware Avenue for a while coming to Southern Pines a few months ago, have been occupying the Carpenter home.

Mr. and Mrs. Healy and children, Beth and Miss Allie McInnis, Mrs. M. F. Haywood, Mrs. Turner and Miss and her family in Greenville, S. C., during the holidays there Mr. Turner flew to Chattanooga, Tenn., to visit relatives. The Turners and Intosh spent last Sunday in Raleigh, with the Remberts on display at the Carolina Museum of Art, a special attraction.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown have returned from Knoxville, Tenn., after spending the holidays with her parents, Mrs. L. T. Penny, at the Knollwood.

Mrs. R. A. Chaney of Virginia, spent the holidays at the homes of her son, F.