Mrs. Louis Scheipers presented Mrs. Curtis Everett with her Past President's pin. David Whitehead closed the meeting with the Lord's Prayer. A social hour followed.

Christmas Card Brings News From Former Residents

News of interest to many Southern Pines friends of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Simonds, former local residents, comes by way of a Christmas card to Harry Fullenwider. They write from Saxton's River, Vt.:

Hardly think we will be down to Southern Pines this winter, but we think of our good friends and don't want them to forget us.

"We lost our only son last February and his wife passed on in September. Didn't think we would be happy in Newtonville (Mass.) so moved back to our old home town. Surely are getting some winter here, nearly a foot of snow—but the fall was beautiful. Never saw any more gorgeous foliage.

"Am afraid we will miss Southern Pines, but think we are doing the right thing. Still have The Pilot and keeping tab on our old friends."

Mr. and Mrs. Simonds are pleasantly remembered by many people here who will sympathize with them in their sorrow and hope that their days in their old home town will be happy days for them, also that they will find their way back to Southern Pines on visits if not to stay.

Miss Annis Fetes Local Group At Luncheon Party

Miss Lillie Lee Annis of Honolulu, who spent last winter in Southern Pines and is now visiting Miss Ellen Merrow at Eagle Springs, entertained eight local friends at a 12 o'clock luncheon and cards at the Merrow home last Thursday.

Guests were Mrs. Chester W. Areson, Mrs. H. C. Lefroy, Mrs. W. C. Timmons, Mrs. Carl Foss, Mrs. Francis Walker, Miss Carol Day, Mrs. Allie Sawyer, and Mrs. L. W. Fitch.

MISS MARY LOUISE BLACK WILL WED RICHARD MUNGER PREYER IN SPRING

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Black of Pinehurst announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Louise, to Richard Munger Preyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan T. Preyer of Southern Pines. An early spring wedding is planned.

Miss Black is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John N. Powell, residents for many years of Southern Pines. She graduated from Pinehurst High School and from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro. After graduation, she was with McCall's Magazine, and is now connected with an interior decorating service in New York. Mr. Preyer's parents, who re-

MISS JESSIE HALL BECOMES BRIDE OF DAVID LLOYD DAHMEN IN RITES AT AIKEN

St. Thaddeus Episcopal church in Aiken, S. C., was the scene of a wedding ceremony Saturday afternoon, December 29, at 4 o'clock when Miss Jessie Addison Hall, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Huger Tudor Hall, of Aiken, became the bride of David Lloyd Dahmen, son of Mrs. Lloyd C. Dahmen of Olean, N. Y., and the late Mr. Dahmen, who until recently were winter residents of Southern Pines for many years.

The Rev. George H. Murphy officiated against a background of white chrysanthemums and snapdragons and potted red poinsettias in mass arrangements.

Mrs. Henry A. Dickerson, organist, presented the wedding music. Selections included "Jesus, Priceless Treasure" (Bach), "O Perfect Love" (Mottel), and The Lord's Prayer. The traditional wedding marches were used.

D. R. Vaughn of Portland, Me., served as best man. Ushers were Joseph Dahmen and Lloyd Dahmen, brothers of the bridegroom, of Olean, N. Y., and Rodolfe Segavis Sias of Barranquilla, Colombia, S. A.

STAFF MEMBER OF CHILDREN'S HOME SOCIETY SPEAKS TO JR. WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. Madeleine Manginelli, administrative assistant of the Children's Home Society in Greensboro, was guest speaker at the January meeting of the Junior Woman's Club of Southern Pines, held Tuesday night at the Civic Club building.

Mrs. Victor Shephard, club chairman of the Children's Home Society, and her committee were in charge of the program and Mrs. Shephard introduced the speaker, who has just returned to the Home staff after a year of study in Italy.

Mrs. Manginelli gave an enlightening talk on the work of the Children's Home Society and showed slides of the babies that were most appealing to the young women of the club. These included pictures of a young couple posing as prospective adoptive parents visiting the

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM JOHN STEVENSON, JR.
NUPTIAL MASS AT PINEHURST UNITES
MISS JEAN COSGROVE, MR. STEVENSON

Miss Jean Cosgrove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin H. Cosgrove of the Mid Pines Club, became the bride of William John Stevenson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson of Arlington, Mass., at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass at the Sacred Heart Church in Pinehurst Saturday morning, January 5.

The Rev. Michael Carey of Shelby officiated at the ceremony, assisted by the Rev. John A. Brown, pastor of Sacred Heart.

Greenery and baskets of white gladioli were used as decorations. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. John Hemmer of Pinehurst presented a program of organ music.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Wilford Weldon, her father being unable to attend having broken his right shoulder the preceding night. She wore a ballerina-length ice blue dress with lily of the valley hat and blue veil, and carried a bouquet of small white orchids encircling a large one, which she later lifted for a corsage with her going-away outfit.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Wilford Weldon, as matron of honor, wearing a pale blue dress with headband of pink and white flowers and carrying a bouquet of sweetheart roses.

The groom had his brother, Richard C. Stevenson, as best man. Ushers were Robert Curtis of Boston, and Ray Flynn of Arlington, Mass., brother-in-law of the groom.

Mrs. Cosgrove wore for her daughter's wedding a dress of royal blue taffeta with matching hat, and Mrs. Stevenson was dressed in grayish blue taffeta and hat. Each wore an orchid corsage.

After the ceremony a receiving line formed in the vestibule of the church, where the couple received the good wishes of friends.

MRS. KNOTT OF HAMLET GIVES FLOWER ARRANGEMENT DEMONSTRATION HERE

Mrs. C. C. Knott of Hamlet, who works with the Richmond County Tuberculosis Association, was guest speaker at the January meeting of the Civic Garden Club, held last Thursday afternoon at the Civic Club building with the vice-president, Mrs. R. S. DuRant, presiding over a brief business session.

Mrs. Knott, who was introduced by Mrs. James Hartshorne, program leader, spoke on flowers and flower arrangement. With outlines drawn on posters, she first explained the basic principles of arrangement, then with real flowers and foliage demonstrated each design as to color, combination, balance, originality and suitability of container. Each arrangement was generously applauded.

The club felt honored to have as an additional guest Mrs. Irene Smith of Hamlet, an outstanding garden club member and one of a committee of judges for National flower shows.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, it has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to take from our midst our beloved sister, Margaret Tilghman, who was called to her heavenly home on December, 25, 1956,

Whereas, we, the members of Magnolia Chapter 26, O. E. S., have had our hearts saddened by the loss of this valuable link in our golden chain,

Now, therefore be it resolved: First: That we feel that we are better for having had her fraternal love and service, and will be eternally grateful for her friendship and inspiration.

Second: That we extend our deepest sympathy to her family and ask that: a copy of these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of this chapter, a copy be sent to her family, and a copy to The Pilot for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. Blue Entertains At Coffee Hour; News of Newlyweds

Mrs. D. Al Blue entertained at a coffee hour on Saturday before the Smith-Overton wedding honoring Miss Jean Overton, with around 15 guests. She presented the honoree a corsage of red and white carnations and a 50-year anniversary candle, which was lit at the couple's wedding reception.

The newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Smith, took a trip to Myrtle Beach and Charleston, S. C., and attended a New Year's dance in Columbia before returning to Winston-Salem, where both are teaching. They spent last Friday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Overton, returning to the twin city Saturday.

Mysterious Ending Marks Monday's Epiphany Luncheon

The women of Emmanuel Church held a Corporate Communion on Monday which was followed by an Epiphany luncheon in the parish hall. This is an old English custom.

Miss Polly Dix had made a huge cake which was covered with lighted candles and cut by Mrs. J. H. Towne. There were about 40 women at the luncheon and each one received a piece of cake which she ate with great care because of a bean and pea being hidden in it. Mrs. Franz Krebs found the bean, which means that she will be hostess next year, but the pea mysteriously disappeared and no one knows who her co-hostess will be.

Miss Harriet Barnum and Miss Dix were hostesses this year, having the bean and pea at last year's Epiphany luncheon.

Birthday Dinner At Manly Honors Mrs. Cameron, Others

Mrs. Eveleth Richardson, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Louis Honeycutt of Southern Pines, entertained at a birthday dinner in Manly Sunday honoring their mother, Mrs. J. B. Cameron. Sharing honors were the aunt and cousin of the hostesses, Mrs. S. R. Smith and Miss Bessie Cameron of Vass.

Present were the Richardson and Honeycutt families and the three honorees, whose birthdays occur within a week.
