

Basketball Summary

By GEORGE A. SHORT, JR.
Last Friday night's crucial tilts saw Coach Robert E. Lee's Aberdeen Devilettes and Coach Rex Gordon's Robbins Bearcats, the league leaders, come through with important victories as the Devilettes stopped Southern Pines 71-65 and the Bearcats polished off Pinehurst's Rebels 73-39.

Robbins' Bearcats were in high gear as they soundly whipped the Rebels after leading 35-18 at halftime. The Rebels had led 14-12 after the first six minutes of play but the Bearcats quickly overcame this and led the rest of the way.

This was the 11th straight win for the well-rounded Robbins' offense which saw Himmy Freeman score 17 points, Jackie Hussey and Bobby Brown hit for 16 markers each. Excellent all-around team play provided the important win that knocked the Rebels out of a first place tie with the Bearcats.

Leading the play for the Rebels was Wayne Hardy, who tallied 17 points, and Robert Garrison, whose hustling play gave a little brightness to the Rebel defeat.

In the other half of the Robbins - Pinehurst doubleheader Robbins girls trounced the Rebelettes 86-46 with Ina McCrimmon pouring in 32 points to power the offensive. Williams and Hunsucker also hit in the double figures as they netted 16 markers each and the excellent defensive work of Helen Britt aided in stopping the Rebelettes. Barbara Hunt tallied 20 points and Alice Garrison bucketed 15 to pace the Pinehurst Six who suffered their second loop loss of the season.

Southern Pines' Blue Knights

gained their fifth league win as they nipped Aberdeen 43-41 in a game that was a perfect example of why coaches get ulcers.

Southern Pines and Aberdeen, both rated as strong contenders in the 11-team Moore Conference boys' division fought down to the wire in this contest which saw Aberdeen lose its second contest in County play. Their record is now 3-2.

Cameron-Westmoore
Cameron's girls topped Westmoore 47-34 to keep their girls high in the Moore rankings and Cameron's boys stopped Westmoore 44-34.

Leading the way to victory for Cameron was Rnth Marsh, who poured in 29 points, and the fine defensive play of Holder and Morris. R. Moore paced the Westmoore offensive with 15 markers.

Phillips, forward, netted 22 points to lead the Cameron boys win as Morris shone on defense. L. Britt dropped in 12 points for Westmoore's five.

Cameron-Vass
Cameron's girls continued to win as they rolled over Vass 57-40. Vass's boys, however, knocked off Cameron 66-53 in the night's final contest.

Hall scored 32 and Marsh bucketed 19 points to engineer the Cameron sextet to victory as Hardy and Monroe starred defensively. Blue was high for Vass with 16 points.

The Vass-Lakeview boys won the second contest with the 25-point effort of Bule and the 19-point work of Apple leading the way. Phillips, of Cameron, netted 25 points to lead the point-getting for his team.

Carthage-Highfalls Carthage's girls had a very capable opponent on hand but they emerged with a 59-52 triumph over Highfalls and the Bulldogs also defeated Highfalls 52-37 in a battle of boys' fives.

Matthews, high scoring Carthage forward, blistered 34 points through the hoops to lead the scoring while S. Dupree tallied 24 to pace Highfalls. Carthage led 35-31 at intermission.

Mose Boyette propelled the Bulldogs' conquest of Highfalls as he bucketed 16 points. J. Upchurch dropped in 10 markers to lead Highfalls. Carthage led by a narrow 20-17 margin at halftime.

Farm Life-West End
Farm Life's Lassies rung up their 8th Moore County win, as against 3 setbacks, when they edged West End's scrappy Six 58-55 last Friday night at the Carthage Hi School gym. West End's rangy boys overpowered the smaller Farm Life Quint 70-53 in the nightcap.

Carolyn Ragsdale, Farm Life's torrid scorer, provided the big spark for the victory as she netted 23 points. Matthews tallied 19. Martin led West End as she scored 20 points. Farm Life led 35-26 at intermission. Donald Porter was the big gun in West End's attack as he pushed in 25 points in the boys' encounter. Sineath added 18 markers for Farm Life who trailed West End by 32-29 when the second half began.
