THEATRES CAROLINA

Continuing through this Thursday-Saturday, is "Three Violent People," a super-western in Vista-Vision and Technicolor which offers strong roles for Charlton Heston and Anne Baxter (two of the stars of "The Ten Commandments") in a production that has thrills aplenty as well as romance in equal measure. It has something for every type of audience.

Coming Sunday through Wednesday, Feb. 3-6, with night shows at 8:15 and matinees Sunday and Wednesday at 3, is the new version of "The Barretts Of Wimpole Street," in Cinema-Scope and Technicolor.

Never has that hardy personal of stage and screen—the drama based on the love between poets Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning—been more opulently produced, more effectively delineated or more skillfully directed than in this remake of the venerable vehicle, with a superb cast consisting of Jennifer Jones, John Gielgud, Bill Travers, Virginia McKenna and many others.

Jennifer Jones plays the role that Katherine Cornell created on the stage, and which Norma Shearer played in the earlier screen version, and she brings to her interpretation a sympathy and understanding of the nature and character of Elizabeth Barrett that carries conviction. Sir John Gielgud, one of England's greatest actors, holds the centre of interest next to the characters of Browning and Miss Barrett, and Bill Travers plays the role of the impetuous lover, Browning, with force and vigor that give it distinction.

A rare treat is in store for all patrons who like the better things in screen attractions.

SUNRISE

The starkly and brutally realistic story of an infantry company commanded by a cowardly captain and trapped behind enemy lines during the Battle of the Bulge—this is the dramatic substance of "Attack!" opening on Thursday at the Sunrise Theatre through United Artists release.

"Attack!" stars an all male cast, headed by Jack Palance, Eddie Albert, Lee Marvin, Robert Strauss, Richard Jaeckel, Buddy Ebsen and William Smithers, the latter making his debut. Also featured are Jon Sheppard,

Vass Firemen Hold Dinner Meeting And Elect Officers

The Vass Volunteer Fire Department met at the community house in Vass on Wednesday night of last week for the annual election of officers and a fried chicken dinner served by the Vass Woman's Club with the Ways and Means department, headed by Mrs. D. F. Cameron, in charge.

Hugh McLean presided over the business session, during which the following were elected: P. T. Smith, chief; J. A.
(Buddy) McRae, 1st assistant chief; Pete Mashburn, 2nd assistant; Max Edwards and Hugh Mc-Lean, captains; Jessie Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

Fourteen firemen attended the meeting and there were five guests: Mayor A. G. Edwards, Jr., Commissioners Jack Morgan, Duncan McGill and James E.
Hudson, and Policeman Williams.

Chief Smith this week issued an appeal to the public to stop following the fire truck, thus interfering with the firemen in their work. He said that one person had been fined for running over a hose. The firemen are risking their lives, he pointed out, to protect the property of the citizens, and full cooperation will be appreciated.

Chief Smith also said that the firemen will be glad to do "burning off" for the townspeople if they will first rake around their buildings to secure them, then notify the department.

Although it is losing ground, the quart container is still the most widely used for selling milk, report consumer marketing specialists with the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Jimmy Goodwin, Steven Geray and Peter Van Eyck.

"Attack!" is a production of the Associates and Aldrich Company, and Robert Aldrich is producer and director. The screenplay by James Poe is an adaptation of the controversial Broadway success, "The Fragile Fox," by Norman Brooks. Joseph Biroc was chief cameraman, and Frank deVol was musical director.

Producer-director Aldrich handpicked his all-male cast for individual strength and versatility, with the end to achieve a finely balanced group of players.

Mail Takes Only 16 Hours To Reach Calif. Destination

Postmaster Garland Pierce received a letter this week unlike any he had ever had before: it was a hearty congratulations to the postal department for its speedy delivery of air mail.

The letter, from General A. V.
Arnold, pointed out that he had mailed a letter which was postmarked "Southern Pines, Jan. 20, 3 p. m." to Piedmont Pines, Oakland, California.

The letter, he said, was in the addressee's mailbox at 12 noon January 21.

"That's moving," the General said, "and you people can certainly stick your chests out in pride."

Moving it was. It took just 16 hours to travel close to 3,000 miles.

Recent Visitor To Scotland Speaks At FHA Meeting

Mrs. Jane Todd Regan, who recently returned from a trip to Scotland, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Southern Pines High School chapter of the Future Homemakers of America Tuesday.

Mrs. Regan, who with her husband has been doing advanced study at the University of Edinburgh, spoke of the customs and history of Scotland.

She was introduced by Miss Mary Logan, supervisor of the Southern Pines Public schools.
Twenty two members and their advisors attended the meeting.

A saving and spending plan worked out by the family to fit their own particular family and individual need is one of the surest ways of getting the greatest return for your money and having the wholesome, happy, and satisfying living, says Miss Mammie Whisnant, Extension specialist in home management.

J. B. Tollison To Head Band Boosters

J. B. Tollison has been elected president of the Southern Pines Band Boosters Club, succeeding Broadus Smith.

The club, which has as its main objective providing necessary support for the high school band, met Tuesday night to discuss plans for the new year and tentatively accepted several projects. Club leaders said a definite program would be worked out and announced at an early date.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Marvin Wicker, vice-president, and Mrs. George Little, secretary-treasurer.

THE S.R.O. SIGN—STANDING ROOM ONLY—

belongs to the theatre, not to our schools! Yet overcrowded classrooms have become common throughout the nation these days. In some localities, classes are being conducted in two shifts, just to make sure each child has a place to sit.

With greater numbers of children entering school each year, additional classrooms are vitally needed, many more qualified teachers must be obtained, and expanded facilities and equipment have to be provided. Our schools cannot do these things alone—they need the backing of the community. You can help, here in this community, by joining your neighbors in supporting programs for these necessary improvements.

Citizens committees and community conferences are working to solve our local problems. You'll find these groups an effective way to assure your children of the education they deserve.

A helpful booklet is available, free of charge—showing how similar problems are being solved in other parts of the country. Write: Better Schools, 9 East 40th Street, New York 36, N. Y.
