Invitations Issued

Mr. and Mrs. Leuin Ellis Bridges have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Patricia Lee, to George Rosser Blue, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Blue of Vass, which takes place at 7 p. m. on Sunday, February 24, at the Vass Baptist Church.

Woman's Club

The Vass Woman's Club will meet at 7:30 p. m. Friday, February 8, at the home of Mrs. Paul Jones, with Mrs. Jack Morgan as co-hostess. Mrs. W. A. Muse of the Education Department is in charge of the program and she has secured Mrs. William J. Graham, Jr., of Southern Pines as speaker.

Birthday Party

Honoring her son Mike on his eighth birthday, Mrs. Ray Griffin entertained a number of his young friends at a party at the Griffin home Wednesday afternoon of last week. The valentine motif was used in decorations and refreshments.

The birthday cake was heart-shaped and decorated in red and white and there were valentine cupcakes, each topped with a candle, and ice cream. Baskets, each containing candy and a valentine, were given as favors.

Mike's guests were Marjorie Leslie Bullock, Ann Thomas, Karen and Cathy Wolfe, Barbara Parker, Barbara Thomas, Carol Parker, Grace Wilson, Jimmy McRae, Kent McGill, Larry Matthews, Philip Keith, Grover Henning, Paul McNeill Burns, Walter Trogden, Wallace Hutchinson, and Chip Irby, with Mike's older brother, Butch, lending a hand.

Recreation Program

In an effort to meet the need for wholesome recreation for children and young people, the Baptist Church is planning to hold weekly recreational meetings, starting this Saturday night with a Family Night meeting for the entire church. The tentative plan calls for games for the 8 to 12-year group and for those 12 to 17 years of age, with supervised, rather than directed, play.

Newcomers

Pfc. and Mrs. Tommy Bassett of Mississippi moved into Miss Bessie Cameron's upstairs apartment last Thursday. He is stationed at Fort Bragg.

Attends Meeting

Mrs. P. A. Wilson attended a luncheon meeting of the council of the North Central District, Classroom Teachers Association, at the S & W cafeteria in Raleigh Saturday. She was accompanied to Raleigh by Mrs. R. G. Rosser, Miss Bessie Cameron and Mrs. S. R. Smith.

Prayer Service

A service of prayer for E. L. Finch, who was injured in an automobile accident Saturday, and for Mrs. Frank Jeffreys, who is ill in High Point, both members of the Vass Methodist Church, and for their families was conducted by the pastor, the Rev. James Eskridge, at the morning service Sunday.

With The Sick

Mrs. Frank Jeffreys, who had been at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Garnet Fallentine, in High Point for about two weeks because of illness, became much worse Saturday and was taken to a hospital there, where she was immediately placed under an oxygen tent.

Her sister, Mrs. W. P. Parker, of Laurinburg, and Mrs. Charlie Gschwind and Mrs. Howard Gschwind went to High Point Sunday, the family having been notified Saturday night of Mrs. Jeffreys' condition. She seemed a little better Sunday. They were allowed to see her for a brief time.

Harry Laubscher, son of Mrs. Jeffreys, who has been at Duke Hospital in Durham for several weeks following major surgery, was scheduled to return to his home in Sanford last week, but a backset is keeping him longer. Visitors who saw him Sunday report that he was to undergo surgery again on Tuesday.

His mother-in-law, Mrs. Bright McRae, and sisters-in-law, Mrs. Max Edwards and Mrs. Pete McRae, spent Saturday with Mr. Laubscher. Going to see him Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McRae and son, also Pete McRae, Jimmy McRae, Willie Hilliard and Henry Borst.

Mrs. W. H. Keith continues to improve from her recent illness of influenza. Her sons Vick and Linwood and their families were down from Sanford Sunday afternoon to visit her.

Personals

Mrs. D. C. Beal and Pamela Buie spent Thursday in Sanford with Mrs. Gilbert Womack.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Graham and Miss Janice Graham of Asheboro attended the Vass Methodist Church service Sunday morning.

Mrs. George Stutts spent the weekend in Sanford visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Womble.

Mrs. Annie Shankle and Mrs. Bernice Turner, who had been visiting in the home of the Jack Morgans, have returned to Ansonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Culler of Southern Pines were Sunday supper guests of Mrs. Bright McRae.

C. L. Tyson returned last Saturday from a week's trip to New York, where he was purchasing merchandise for the Aberdeen Collins store, of which he is manager.

Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McMillan were his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McMillan and Joyce McMillan, of Selma.

Sunday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McGill were Airman 1c and Mrs. W. R. McGill and children and Mrs. P. A. Wilson.

Mrs. W. D. McCraney is spending some time in Hamlet with her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Hemphill, and family. Mr. Hemphill was scheduled to undergo surgery this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Beal and family visited friends near Moncure Sunday.

More than 2,200 farm people die as a result of falls each year. Tumbles on stairs and steps cause about one-third of these deaths, according to the National Safety Council.

Distributors Of Appliances Meet With CP&L Group

Twenty-one representatives of electrical appliance distributors for North and South Carolina heard the 1957 sales plans of Carolina Power and Light Co., during a meeting at the Mid Pines Club Friday.

Attended by 47 distributor and CPL representatives, the meeting was arranged by two Southern Pines men, John Howarth, division sales manager, and Paul Butler, sales coordinator, both with the power company's Central Division sales office.

The Friday meeting was the fourth annual meeting of distributors and CP&L salesmen to be held in Southern Pines. Another meeting will be held here February 22 for appliance dealers in the 12 counties in CP&L's Central Division. About 300 dealer representatives are expected to attend.
