

In order to keep the price support program on a sound basis, say officials of the flue-cured Tobacco Cooperative Stabilization Corporation, it is necessary that some means be devised to more adequately bring supply in line with demand. Every tobacco grower, through the various farm organizations, should carefully study the present situation and then take realistic approaches to devising some means whereby stocks of flue-cured tobacco will not continue to build in Stabilization as they have since 1951.

IN RECORDER'S COURT

Two Get Suspended Terms In Drag Racing Case; Rowe Warns Others

In one of the busiest sessions in recent memory, more than two dozen cases were tried in Moore Recorder's Court Monday, with a drag racing case drawing the most attention.

In the case, in which two 18-year-old boys were charged with racing at speeds up to 75 miles per hour, Judge J. Vance Rowe coupled a three months' road sentence with a stern lecture on the deadly possibilities of the new "sport."

The boys were Leroy Jackson of Route 1, Eagle Springs, and Thomas Stewart of Route 1, Robbins. They were charged by State Highway Patrolman J. F. Swaim with racing on a highway in the Robbins area.

Judge Rowe suspended the road sentence, as he has done in several similar cases, on condition each pay a fine of $100 and costs and suspended the operator's license of each for a year.

Other cases disposed of: Ervin Lambert, Carthage, forcible trespass, assault with a deadly weapon, threats, not guilty.

Cpl. Samuel J. Gafford and Sgt. James Blizzard, speeding, careless and reckless driving, $25 fine each and costs each.

Walter Lee Marshall, Raeford, unlawful possession of illegal whiskey, transporting, not guilty.

Billy David Rushing, West End, careless and reckless driving, speeding over 75, driving on wrong side, 60 days on roads, suspended on payment of $75 and costs, license revoked.

Harry Little Rust, Jr., Candor, driving drunk, careless and reckless driving, $100 and costs, licence revoked 12 months. Defendant appeals to Superior Court, bond set at $200.

J. H. Hooker, Candor, failure to comply. Six months road sentence put into immediate effect unless defendant pay one-half of amount he is in arrears now and one-half within 60 days, also pay costs of action.

Willie Green Carol, Raleigh, unlawful possession of illicit whiskey, drinking intoxicating beverages on public highway, 30 days on roads, suspended on payment of $25 and costs.

Robert Kennedy, Eagle Springs, failure to support wife and three children, state takes nol pros with leave.

James R. Maynard, Peoria, Ill., speeding, nol pros with leave.

Robert Eugene Richardson, Fort Bragg, exceeding safe speed, driving on wrong side of road, accident, $40 cash bond ordered forfeited.

James Harold Thomas, Route 7, Sanford, driving without license (chauffeur's license), $28 fine, including the costs.

James Fred Oliphant, Route 2, Fayetteville, driving without license and registration card, judgment continued on payment of costs.

Oliver W. Hodges, Rochester, N. Y., speeding 88, reckless driving, unlawful possession of seal-broken whiskey, 60 days on roads, suspended on payment of $75 and costs, license revoked as required by law.

Curtis C. Hodges, Buffalo, N. Y., unlawful possession of seal broken whiskey, transporting, 30 days on roads, suspended on payment of $15 and costs.

James L. Lassiter, Route 2, Cameron, improper muffler, allowing unlicensed person to drive his car, and Samuel Avon, Lemon Springs, driving without license and during period of revocation.

Lassiter found guilty of aiding and abetting in driving without license and with improper muffler, 30 days on roads, suspended on payment of costs. Avon found guilty and sentenced to 30 days on roads, suspended on payment of $25 and costs.

Abraham Hailey, Manly, driving drunk, accident, property damage, 60 days on roads, suspended on payment of $100 and costs, license revoked 12 months.

Bobby Verble, Aberdeen, bastardy and non-support, previous sentence of four months on roads ordered imposed.

Luther L. Stout, Burlington, speeding 75, improper passing, $75 and costs, license revoked as required by law. Appeal to Superior Court, bond set at $200.

Dora Garner Nichols, Columbus, Ga., driving without license and during period of revocation.

It appearing to the court that defendant's license was suspended for no traffic law violation, but because of failure to comply with Financial Responsibility Act, and that since that time defendant has moved to Georgia and obtained license in that state, the court finds her guilty of driving without proper license, $25 and costs.

Richard S. Schott, Fort Benning, Ga., careless and reckless driving, leaving scene of accident, failure to report accident, judgment continued on payment of $25 and costs, and on condition defendant pay damages caused.

John A. McPhaul, Southern Pines, failing to yield right of way, not guilty.

Wallace Mack, Southern Pines, turning too sharp at intersection, judgment continued on payment of costs.

Ray Powell, public drunk, cursing, attempted assault, capias issued, returnable next Monday, bond forfeited, new bond ordered.

William Allen, public drunk, capias issued, returnable next Monday, bond forfeited, new bond ordered.

Charles R. Cash, Route 2, Carthage, speeding, accident, judgment continued on payment of costs.

Foy Smith, West End, driving without license, no registration card, following too close, driving on wrong side, $25 and costs.

Robeson County Woman Charged In Roadhouse Brawl

Jessie Bell Oxendine Kilgore, 27, an Indian from Robeson county, was arrested last Wednesday evening in connection with the shooting of Charles Maples, 23, at the Carolina Pines roadhouse on US 1 close to the Lee County line.

Maples was struck in the abdomen by one of two bullets the Kilgore woman told officers she fired at him. He was taken to Moore County Hospital, where it was later reported his wound was not serious.

Mrs. Kilgore told Deputy Sheriff A. W. Lambert, who was summoned to the scene, that Maples was "fighting" her and "bothering" her, and so she shot him.

Both were employed by the Carolina Pines, which recently reopened with Frank Kelly, of Cameron Rt. 1, as manager. Kelly said the two had driven to Robeson county that afternoon to get Ruth Jane Oxendine, another Indian girl who had been working there, but who had gone home several days before. They had brought Ruth Jane back and she was unpacking her things in a cabin when the shooting took place in the restaurant.

Charged with assault with deadly weapon, Mrs. Kilgore made bond before a Carthage magistrate in the amount of $1,500, for her appearance at Moore Recorder's Court.

Eagle Springs, bastardy, failing to support child (two counts), motion to dismiss allowed as to first child, (statute of limitations ran out), three months on roads, suspended on payment of costs and $7.50 per week to Welfare Department toward support of the other child.

March Egg Month, 1957, will be observed throughout the nation to promote the use of eggs in the diet. The observance in North Carolina will be under the chairmanship of Ralph Kelly of the State Department of Agriculture.

Food experts recommend shelling pecans before storing them under refrigeration. Although unshelled nuts resist insects, molding, and rancidity longer than shelled ones, removing the shells cuts in half the weight and space needed for storage.

More Aid Provided Mothers In '56 By Pinebluff Group

A year-end financial statement released this morning by the Pinebluff Maternity Welfare committee showed a slight increase in the amount of assistance it offered during 1956 over 1955.

The committee, which operates the Thrift Shop in Pinebluff to raise funds with which to carry on its work, received almost $1,750 during the year. It disbursed funds for clinics, medicine, milk, and service fees and provided assistance to a number of needy mothers.

The committee said it gratefully acknowledges the cooperation and help received from doctors, hospitals, churches, the county Health and Welfare Departments and other interested organizations, as well as from the many people who made individual contributions.

Three Area Girls Competing For Homemaking Title

Three girls have been named Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow in this area.

They received the highest scores in their schools on a written examination of homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating high school girls.

The local school winners are: Georganna Verbal of Berkeley High School, Lucy Shepard McDaniel of Southern Pines High School and Patricia Angela Dowd of West Southern Pines High School.

Their examination papers now will be entered in competition with those of 393 other school winners to name North Carolina candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and will also be considered for the runnerup award in the state.

Each state winner will receive a $1,500 scholarship and an educational trip with her school advisor to Washington, D. C., Williamsburg, Va., and New York.

YEAR-END STATISTICS

ABC Men Had Successful Year

Bootleggers and others who ran afoul of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act in Moore County last year pretty well got their comeuppance according to year-end statistics just released by C. A. McCallum, chief enforcement officer.

Only one gallon and six pints separated the "white whiskey" boys from the "store bought" ones: the ABC officers seized 114 gallons, six pints of non-tax paid whiskey, and 113 gallons of the tax-paid variety. McCallum explained that absolutely all non-tax-paid whiskey is illegal, though a lot more difficult to find. All told the officers made 219 arrests, saw 206 of the defendants tried (only nine were acquitted) and still have 13 awaiting trial. Total sentences of 15 years and two months were meted out, and $8,421 in fines were assessed.

Twelve stills were captured, McCallum reported, and 1,460 gallons of mash were destroyed. Five automobiles were also seized.

The three enforcement officers traveled a total of 66,382 miles in their work, a distance equal to two and one-half times around the world at the equator.
