

4-H Club At Eagle Springs Donates Flag

A flag, presented in memory of Howard Jordan, has been given to the Eagle Springs school by members of Mrs. Jordan's fifth and sixth grade 4-H girls and boys. The presentation was made at a recent meeting of the PTA of the school. Last Tuesday the members of the 4-H club there assembled around the new flagpole for the raising ceremony, with Roger Thompson, president, and Darrell Cole in charge.

Approximately 600,000 acres of tobacco are grown in North Carolina each year.

Charles Wicker, Former Resident, Dies In N. Jersey

Mrs. Russell J. Lorenson and Mrs. Nathan H. Adams have returned from Atlantic City, N. J., where they attended the funeral of their brother, Charles Wicker, who died Tuesday night of last week after a short illness.

Mr. Wicker, who made his home here until he moved to Philadelphia some 30 years ago, had been living in Atlantic City for the past few years.

Funeral services were held Saturday morning and burial was held in Valley Forge.

In addition to his two sisters, he is survived by two brothers, Carleton and Leith Wicker, and a sister, Molella.

A large paper mill uses approximately 50 million gallons of water per day—more than enough to supply a city of 500,000 people.

Pasture Expert To Speak At Farm Bureau Meeting

Sam Dobson, pasture specialist of the North Carolina State College Extension Division, will be principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Moore County Farm Bureau Monday, according to T. Clyde Auman of West End, president.

Dobson, an outstanding authority on methods of increasing pasture yield and building new pasture lands, will also answer specific questions at the end of his talk. Farmers and others who have been seeking methods of improving pasture lands are urged to attend the meeting.

The annual meeting of the Moore County Breeders Co-op will be held along with the pasture meeting. Three new directors will be selected and a financial and progress report will be given.

The North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station has developed a new breed of sheep, the Polled Dorset. This new breed is one of the most likely prospects for commercial lamb production in the South.

Music Program Slated For PTA Session Tonight
