Circle Meetings

Both Circles of Vass Presbyterian Women of the Church held their monthly meetings last week, with programs, business sessions, Bible study and refreshments.

Mrs. R. A. Edwards was hostess to Circle 1, with Miss Polly Gilmore presiding. Mrs. Donald Jessup conducted the Bible study and Mrs. Bill Caddell led the "Let's Talk About..." discussion. Two new members were enrolled: Mrs. Kenneth Hinsley and Mrs. Linwood Patterson.

Mrs. H. D. Jackson and Miss Agnes Smith were hostesses to the Jane McGill Circle at the church. Mrs. Ben H. Wood presided and Mrs. P. A. Wilson led the Bible study with Mrs. Eugene Hicks and Mrs. C. G. Crockett, Jr., taking part. Mrs. D. F. Cameron led the program. The group made plans for sending a donation of money to Flood Relief Emergency, Guerrant Presbyterian, Kentucky. Mrs. Johnny Hicks was enrolled as a new circle member.

Youth Meeting

The Methodist Youth Fellowship held its monthly evening meeting Sunday at the church, with the pastor, the Rev. James Eskridge, and Mrs. Eskridge present. Mrs. S. R. Smith led the program which consisted of an informal discussion of "What It Means to be a Christian at Home." The president, Norman Epler, conducted a brief business session.

A social hour was enjoyed, at the conclusion of which Mrs. W. A. Muse and Mrs. Smith served fruit jello and cup cakes.

Mrs. Gladstone Honored

The Senior Class of Vass-Lakeview High School gave their sponsor, Mrs. W. E. Gladstone, a surprise birthday party in their home room last Friday. They had a large decorated cake from the bakery which they served with Coke, and presented the honoree a gift from the class.

Attend Funeral

Mrs. John Flinchum of Pilot Mountain, sister of D. E. Hudson of Vass, died last Friday night. Attending the funeral Sunday from Vass were Mr. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hudson, Clifford Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hudson, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Blackmon.

Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Page Choate and Chick Sturdivant of Southern Pines entertained at a dinner party at their home Friday night as a birthday compliment to Horace Mullinix of Vass. Dancing was enjoyed after diner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mullinix, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan, and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Thomas.

Pre-Nuptial Courtesy

Honoring Miss Patricia Bridges and George R. Blue, whose wedding will take place at 7 p. m. Sunday at the Baptist Church, the bridegroom-elect's sister, Mrs. R. A. Edwards, and Mrs. Horace Mullinix entertained at three tables of bridge at the Edwards home Tuesday night. They presented the couple a gift for their home-to-be. Party sandwiches, individual cakes bearing the names of the honorees, potato chips, nuts and lime ice were served.

Playing were Miss Bridges, Mr. Blue, Mr. and Mrs. Roby Futrell, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan, Donald Bridges, Miss Johnnie Cameron, the two hostesses and their husbands.

Attend Workshop

Misses Joan Baldwin, Carol Jessup and Janice Jackson of the Vass Presbyterian Youth Fellowship attended a workshop at St. Paul Presbyterian Church for PYF presidents and program chairmen of Fayetteville Presbytery.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Caddell, Herbert, Jr., Mrs. Mary Cox and Charles Hubert Cox went to Chapel Hill Sunday to see Wayne Caddell, who sustained a fractured skull in a fall at his home a week earlier. He was getting along nicely.

Mrs. Allen Thompson and children, Debby and Dennis, of Crossnore arrived on Wednesday of last week and are remaining through this week with the D. H. McGills and Baker relatives. Debby accompanied her grandmother, Mrs. McGill, to Hamlet Sunday and her great-grandmother, Mrs. W. D. McCraney, returned home to Vass with them. Mrs. McCraney had been there about two weeks because of the illness of her son-in-law, A. M. Hemphill, who underwent surgery. He hopes to get home from the hospital the last of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roby Futrell and children, Nicky, Andy and Donna, visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard DeMott at Charlotte Court House, Va., last weekend.

Miss Mary Ruth Clark of the Catawba College faculty in Salisbury and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Clark, spent last weekend here with the latter's sisters, the Misses Cameron.

Mrs. Bob Perry of Wake Forest spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Keith. They visited Mrs. Bertie L. Matthews at The Anchorage in Southern Pines Saturday afternoon.

Misses Agnes Boggs and Joyce Scott and Roy Frye visited Mr. and Mrs. Hal Womble in Raleigh Sunday afternoon and brought Mrs. Daniel Boggs home after a weekend visit to her daughter and family.

Norman Epler returned home from the Veterans Hospital at Durham last week after spending 10 days there for examination.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mullinix, their daughter, Jeanette, and son, Jimmy, visited Mrs. W. N. Mullinix, Sr., at Uwharrie Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Mullinix, Jr., of Uwharrie visited here Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Yow and two little daughters of Albemarle visited Mrs. Yow's parents, Mr.

and Mrs. W. F. Smith, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gschwind and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gschwind of Kansas City, Mo., visited their sister, Mrs. Frank Jeffreys, in High Point Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gschwind left by plane Tuesday morning on the return trip home.

Mrs. P. B. Irby, Jr., and children, Susan, Chip and John, were in Raleigh from Friday until Sunday visiting the children's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Irby. Mrs. A. M. Cameron went with them to Raleigh and spent the night, going from there to Buies Creek Saturday to spend several days with her mother, Mrs. J. F. McKay, and sister, Miss Martha McKay.

Girl Scouts Troop To Collect Old Uniforms

For its February service project Girl Scout troop 50 of Southern Pines has elected to collect outgrown or unused uniforms, according to Mrs. Jack Reid, troop leader.

The uniforms—either Girl Scout, Brownie, or leader—are greatly needed, she said, and will be distributed to various troops that request them. Mrs. Reid said that the drive would be conducted through next Wednesday. Persons wishing to donate such items may leave them at the Red Cross building on South West Broad Street, or call 2-8134 and someone will pick them up.
