News and Personals from Vass

Bessie Cameron Smith, Representative — Telephone Vass 2171

Party for Anthony Blackman
Mrs. Douglas Blackman honored her son, Anthony, at a party at the community house last week in celebration of his third birthday. Games and refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and candy were enjoyed. Party hats and balloons were given as favors and Anthony was presented gifts.

Children attending were Ann Boggs, Connie and Marsha Hudson, Gary and Mike Hudson, Raymond and Jimmy Caviness, Nora and Doris Blackman, Pam and Gail Holder, Vicki and Marlene Evans, Janet Lee Hudson and Susan Blackman.

Adult guests were: Mrs. J. A. Hudson, Mrs. J. E. Hudson, Mrs. Bobby Evans, Mrs. Shirley Blackman, Mrs. Johnny Holder, Mrs. Bobby Hudson, and Mrs. Charles Caviness.

Mrs. Coore Honored
Mrs. Bobby Lee Lassiter and Mrs. Wilford Lassiter gave a stork shower last week at the home of the former honoring Mrs. Jesse Coore. Games and refreshments were enjoyed by the dozen or so guests, most of whom were relatives of the honoree, who received a number of dainty gifts.

WCSA To Meet
The Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet at 7:30 p. m. next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Albert R. Graham.

Nursery
To allow mothers of young children to attend the church services a nursery is now open at the Methodist Church each Sunday, with competent attendants on hand to care for the babies. Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., is in charge and she is being assisted by the pastor's wife, Mrs. James Eskridge, Mrs. James Hudson, and other young mothers in the church.

Debbie McGill Honored
Honoring her granddaughter, Debbie McGill, on her fifth birthday, Mrs. D. H. McGill, assisted by Debbie's mother, Mrs. Allen Thompson of Crossnore, entertained a large group of children at the community house last Friday afternoon.

Party hats, masks and horns added to the merriment as the children played informally, and they were interested to see the honoree open her gifts. A large cake decorated in pink and green held a place of prominence on the refreshment table, and there were cup cakes and ice cream.

Children celebrating with Debbie were Mike Gschwind, Connie Sue and Marsha Hudson, Susie Bullock, Harvey Lee and Myra Price, Paul and Kent McGill, Randy and Craig Cameron, Wanda and Linda Caddell, Junior Coore, Joe Parker, David and Bruce Morgan, Stevie and Ann Boggs, Donna Carol and Ilene Baker, and Debbie's little brother, Allen Thompson.

Mothers attending were: Mrs. Howard Gschwind, Mrs. James Hudson, Mrs. Lane Bullock, Mrs. H. L. Price, Mrs. W. D. McGill, Mrs. Hilda Parker, Mrs. Walter Boggs, Mrs. Jack Morgan, Mrs. Charles Cameron, and Mrs. Jeff Baker.

Laymen's Meeting
Twelve men from the Vass Methodist Church attended a dinner meeting of laymen of Fayetteville District at Fayetteville last Thursday night. Total attendance was above 800. Representing the Vass church were: the Rev. James Eskridge, H. P. Davis, J. M. Davis, Harold Lassiter, James Key, James E. Hudson, W. H. Frye, C. L. Tyson, A. M. Cameron, George Morgan, Cortis Thomas, and H. A. Borst.
