

In The General Assembly

By CLIFF BLUE

By CLIFF BLUE
Hodges . . . Governor Hodges' statement Monday that he was retreating from his 9.1 per cent salary increase recommendation for the Tar Heel teachers caused quite a bit of favorable comment among the members of the General Assembly. However, some of the conservatives were not too happy with his new position. Frankly, I was not surprised at his new position although it came a little earlier than I anticipated. I am delighted that he saw fit to cut himself from the 9.1 per cent salary increase recommendation of the Advisory Budget Commission.

S. P. School Bill . . . At the request of John Howarth, chairman of the Southern Pines school board, I introduced a bill in the House this week authorizing the Board of Education of Southern Pines to grant to the State Highway and Public Works Commission an easement for the re-location of U. S. Highway 1. The property involved contains 1.75 acres, more or less.

Unsatisfied Judgment . . . Rep. Watts Hill, Jr., of Durham, and I have been studying and working on a bill to strengthen our automobile financial responsibility act. I hope the bill will be ready for introduction next week but it takes considerable time to work out complicated legislation of this type.

Prison Separation . . . I have been asked to introduce the bill which would separate the prison division from the State Highway and Public Works Commission. The bill will likely be in the hopper before this column is in print.

Aberdeen Court . . . I have also been asked to introduce a bill permitting the judge of the Aberdeen Recorder's Court to be elected by the voters of the Town of Aberdeen from any section of Sandhill Township. I hope to get this bill prepared and introduced this week.

Quite Busy . . . I have been quite busy of late attending committee meetings and other legislative duties. The Appropriations committee met for four hours Tuesday afternoon. One speaker said the members had sat and listened long enough to get numb on both ends.
