

Reid W. Pleasants Of Carthage Dies After Long Illness

Reid Whitford Pleasants, 78, of Carthage, died early Monday morning in Moore County Hospital after a long illness. He was the father of James M. Pleasants of Southern Pines, a member of the Moore County Board of County Commissioners.

Mr. Pleasants, a native of Aberdeen, moved to Carthage early in life and went into the drug business. He later sold his store and became engaged in farming.

He was married twice, first to Miss Ollie McIver, daughter of the late Superior Court Judge J. D. McIver of Carthage, and, following her death, to Miss Sadie Gardner of Carthage, who survives.

Other survivors are one son, James Pleasants of Southern Pines, two grandsons; three sisters, Miss Lillian Pleasants and Mrs. E. P. Capps of Aberdeen and Mrs. C. J. Ellis of Orlando, Fla.; and two brothers, G. W. Pleasants, High Point, and Herman Pleasants of Atlanta.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Carthage Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member and deacon for many years prior to his death. Officiating were the former pastor, Dr. W. S. Golden, assisted by the Rev. C. K. Taffe of Cameron and the Rev. Carl Johnson of Page Memorial Church in Aberdeen.

Burial was in Cross Hill Cemetery, Carthage.

Waverly Simpson, Pinebluff Winter Resident, Passes

Waverly Clyde Simpson, 70, died at St. Joseph's Hospital Monday afternoon after being stricken with a heart attack earlier in the day at his home in Pinebluff.

Funeral services were held from Powell Funeral Home Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. James Hamilton, pastor of the Pinebluff Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was held in Elmwood Cemetery at Norfolk, Va., Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Simpson was born in Norfolk and attended Norfolk academy. He graduated from William and Mary College in 1906 with a degree in agriculture. He dealt extensively in real estate in Norfolk County and Florida.

For the past 32 years he has been wintering in Pinebluff. He is survived by one son, Waverly C. Simpson, Jr., of Virginia Beach, Va., three sisters and one brother.

Farmers in the United States marketed 2 to 3 per cent more products in 1956 than in 1955.
