WEST END NEWS

Lions Club
The Rev. W. O. Nelson of Robins was a guest of the Lions Club last week. After a delicious dinner of barbecued chicken topped off with cherry pie, served by the 10th grade of the school directed by Mrs. Parish, the club adjourned to the Presbyterian Church to participate in the worship services which were held there each evening last week with the Rev. Mr. Nelson bringing the messages.

Youth Revival
The young people of the churches of this area are sponsoring a youth revival beginning Monday evening, April 1, at 7:30 at the Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Stuart Ritchie, pastor of the Troy Presbyterian Church, will be the speaker each evening through Friday, April 5. He will discuss problems vital to teen-agers. Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr., will direct the singing, accompanied by Dorothy Leigh VonCanon. The recreation each evening will be in charge of Mrs. George Houck.

This is the third year these young people have sponsored a revival and they extend a hearty welcome to the youth in this area. Joe Eifort is chairman of arrangements.

Cole Lad Sustains Burns
Michael Cole, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cole, was severely burned last Friday and is a patient at Moore County Hospital. The accident happened about 6 o'clock while the Coles were burning some trash. A can of paint thinner is thought to have been with the trash which exploded and caused bad facial burns on Mike.

Injured In Accident
Patricia Farmer was injured in an auto accident in Gastonia early last week and is a patient in the hospital there. Her father, Archie Farmer, and her pastor, the Rev. George Houck, visited her last Wednesday. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Farmer were dinner guests of the Robinsons in Gastonia and visited their daughter, who is recuperating nicely.

Raleigh Tour
Forty high school students from West End School, accompanied by Miss Bert McCrummen, the Senior advisor, toured many interesting places in Raleigh Wednesday and were guests of both houses of the Legislature. The tour included the gas chamber, the museum, the Governor's Mansion, the Hall of History, the North Carolina School for the Blind and the News and Observer.

The most educational and interesting feature of the day was the tour of the capitol where the students were greeted by Governor Luther H. Hodges. Both houses of the Legislature were visited. In the Senate the group was recognized by Senator Jordan of Hoke. Hon. Claude Currie of Durham, president pro tem, extended special courtesies to the students and honored his cousin, Martha Currie, by making her page of the Senate for the day. From the Senate the group went to the House. Representative H. Clifton Blue came to the gallery to greet personally his Moore County boys and girls. Later from the floor of the House Mr. Blue recognized the West End School and extended to them the courtesies of the floor.

The tour was planned and sponsored by the Civics, History and Sociology classes. They include Martha Currie, Merle Fletcher, Esther Martin, Mary Pusser, Maxine Jenkins, Bob Carter, Joe Eifort, Donald Porter, Watts Auman, Carolyn Williams, Hilda Richardson, Hilda Chisholm, Joyce Martin, Edna Monroe, Karen Farmer, Jimmy Blakely, Jean Hannah, Jerry Dunn, Linda Munn, Cassie Gibson, Hilda Laton, Willie Jane King, Dot Furr, Lois Godfrey, Mary Kellis, Clifton Munn, Elizabeth Thomas, Patsy Clark, Dot VonCanon, Bobby Auman, Eugene Blakely, Louise Baughn, Patsy McDonald, Sarah Bost, Jean Barnette, Clement Richardson, Libby Britt, Jane Hartsell, Evelyn Thomas.

School Events
In chapel Friday morning Mr. Sinclair read a citation, honoring Charles Brewer, a 1955 graduate of West End School, from the Naval Military Training Station at the Great Lakes. Charles was commended for his good work, efficient leadership, and wholesome character. A Naval Military annual from the school was presented as a gift to Charles to be placed in the West End Library. The annual was received by Mrs. W. M. Thompson, librarian.

Carolyn Branson, president of the West End Chapter of the Beta Club, presented to Mr. Sinclair, a check for $81.61 for the last payment on the stage curtains. This is the conclusion of a three-year project undertaken by the club in 1954.

The seniors received their annuals last week and in chapel Friday Editor-in-Chief Carolyn Branson read the dedication which was to Mrs. Martha Parrish, the commercial teacher, and is as follows:

"We, the Senior Class of 1957, wish to express our thanks to one who has shown great interest in us and has very graciously assisted us in many of our activities. We appreciate her encouraging us to do better work and her devotion to her duties in the school. This, the 1957 Pine Burr, is sincerely dedicated to Mrs. Martin Parrish."

Merle Fletcher read the last will and testament of the Senior Class of 1957 from the new annual. Joe Eifort, business manager, and Carolyn Branson issued the annuals to those who had purchased them. The padded cover is very attractive, done in two-toned green, all pictures are very clear throughout the book and the Seniors are, to be complimented for their excellent taste and artistic work.

Personals
