Garden Club Tour

The Carthage Garden Club visited the Ervin Ray gardens in Asheboro Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray have an attractive home in Dogwood Acres, where Mr. Ray has a large bulb garden with a gorgeous array of spring flowers.

After a tour through the garden, Mrs. Ray served the guests Russian tea and sandwiches.

Mr. Ray, a retired pharmacist, is a native of Carthage and a former employee of the Moore County News.

Music Club Meets

The Carthage Music Club met Friday night with Mrs. M. J. McPhail as hostess at her home on Barrett Street.

The president, Mrs. M. T. Stewart, presided and Mrs. John Cline, chaplain, opened the meeting with prayer.

After a short business session, a program on "Spirituals" was presented. Mrs. C. G. Spencer gave a research paper on Spirituals, and Mrs. C. A. Kennedy played "Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child."

Mrs. Laverne Womack sang "Sweet Little Jesus Boy," and Mrs. Colin Spencer, Jr., presented a piano solo, "Deep River."

During the social period the hostess served sandwiches and cake.

Surprise Kitchen Shower

Circles one, and two of the Carthage Presbyterian Church gave a kitchen shower Friday night at the home of Miss Janie McLeod, honoring Miss Florence Gray, recently retired teacher in the Home Mission School in Blackey, Ky., who has come to make her home in Carthage, having purchased a house on Morgan Street.

She was presented a large basket of gifts—preserved fruits, pickles, linens and kitchen ware.

The circle chairmen, Mrs. Charles J. McDonald and Mrs. Harold Parker, served delicious refreshments, consisting of ribbon ice cream and individual decorated cakes with coffee.

Stephen Ernest Freed

The Rev. and Mrs. Paul Freed of Greensboro announce the birth of a son, Stephen Ernest, on March 1 in Wesley Long Hospital, Greensboro. Mrs. Freed is the former Betty Jane Seawell of Carthage. Their other children are Paul, seven, Donna, five, and James, three years old.

Baptist Circle

The Carol Humphrey Circle of the Carthage Baptist Church, with Mrs. Alex Caddell as chairman, remembered the four children in the boarding home last week with a generous basket of fruits, candy, and other little gifts.

Mrs. Oma Blanchard has charge of the Home.

Dinner Party

Mrs. T. N. Frye entertained at a dinner party Saturday night at her home on Pinehurst Road. The guest list included Mrs. Walter Zahniser, Mrs. Edwin Smith and Mrs. A. L. Isley of the McIver School faculty in Sanford, Mrs. C. C. Kennedy, Mrs. W. R. Clegg, Miss Frances McKeithen and Miss Meade Seawell, of Carthage.

Jane Tyson Hunt

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hunt of High Point are the parents of a daughter, Jane Tyson, born Wednesday, March 20, in the High Point Memorial Hospital. The baby weighed seven pounds and eight ounces. Mrs. Hunt is the former Jane Tyson of Carthage.

Little Jane Tyson Hunt is the first grandchild of Mrs. Lucien P. Tyson.

Heart Fund Campaign Netted $1,500 Plus

Final totals on the annual Heart Fund drive in Southern Pines were placed in excess of $1500 this week by Mrs. Garland McPherson, treasurer.

The drive, not quite as successful this year as last, was nevertheless "extremely good," Mrs. R. M. McMillan, chairman, said. "We are most grateful for the response shown to this most worthy project and I'm sure we're all better off for having responded to the slogan—Have a heart, help a heart," she said.

Bobby Hugh and Tommy McCaskill and Dohn Davis, students at Wingate College, spent the weekend here with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kiker and children returned to their home in Dayton, Ohio, Saturday after spending two weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. McDonald, and Mr. and Mrs. Kiker in Wadesboro.
