

Lions Seeking Old Books For Library At McCain Hospital

Have any old books (but in good condition, please!) you don't want?
 The Southern Pines Lions Club would like to have them for distribution to patients at McCain Hospital library. With more than 500 patients there, the Lions say, it has become difficult for them to have enough varied books to go around.
 They're asking that each family in Southern Pines give at least one book to the drive. "Any book, any age, any kind, is acceptable, needed and wanted," they say.
 McNeill's Feed Store on Broad Street in Southern Pines is headquarters for the drive. Pat Patterson at the store will accept the books. Those wishing to have them picked up may phone 2-6224.

The spring pig crop is expected to be down 2 per cent from last spring.
