Church Circles Meet

The circles of the Presbyterian Church met Monday evening, using as the topic "Christian Higher Education" and a Bible Study on "Christian Citizenship."

Circle 1 met with Mrs. Clyde Auman with Mrs. William Jackson giving the program and Mrs. Harold Markham having the Bible study.

Circle 2 met with Mrs. G. A. Munn. Miss Treva Auman gave the Bible study and Mrs. Donald Eifort had the program.

Circle 3 met with Mrs. North Lewis. Miss Bert McCrummen gave the Bible Study and Miss Cora Donaldson presented the program.

Youth Week Is Success

The Youth Week conducted by the Rev. Stewart Ritchie last week was one of the most inspiring and largely attended in the history of these youth revivals.

On Monday evening Mr. Ritchie's topic was "An Engraved Invitation," preparation for the meeting. This was followed by "Where Is He," "Regaining Contact with God," and "The Christian Attitude Toward Sex." On Friday night the topic was "A Look into the Next World," after which Communion was served.

Effective altar settings were arranged each evening to make these sermons even more inspirational. The young people enjoyed the music directed by Mrs. W. A. Johnson, Jr., and the fun directed by Mrs. George Houck. Joe Eifort was chairman of Youth Week.

A Daughter

A baby girl, Carol Jean, was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Donaldson in Iceland. Mrs. Donaldson is the former Miss Hrofnildur Ind Joldsdottir, a native Icelander who was married to Bruce last year at the American Air Base there. Bruce is with an aircraft company and has been stationed in Iceland since the fall of 1955.

Mrs. Donaldson has never visited the States and she is looking forward to seeing flowers growing out of doors and the beautiful trees that her Southern husband likes to talk about. The couple, with their little girl, hope to visit Bruce's mother, Mrs. R. B. Donaldson, here in the summer.

Attend Convention

The Future Homemakers of America of the West End Chapter attended the FHA convention held in Raleigh on March 30. At this convention there was an installation of the new officers for the year 1957-58. There was a very inspiring devotional given by the Sandy Ridge Chapter, after which the guest speaker, Dr. Catherine T. Dennis, discussed the problems of Future Homemakers of America. The afternoon ceremony consisted of the presentation of awards.

Attending from the West End Chapter were: Dot Furr, Sherrie Upole, Lois Godfrey, Carolyn Branson, Sarah Joyce, Georgie Mae Joyce, and their Home Economics advisor, Mrs. Ruth T. Brooks.

Scouts Speak To Lions

The Lions Club heard talks by Scouts Jimmie Harris and Jerry Dunn who were recently tapped into the Order of the Arrow at Camp Durant. The boys were accompanied by Scoutmasters Francis Currie, Jr., and Bob Youngblood. The Lions Club sponsors the boys' Scout work and expressed pleasure in the interest of the troop.

Supper Meeting

The Men of the Presbyterian Church held a supper meeting Sunday evening in the basement of the church. Donald Eifort, assisted by Hawley Poole, gave a program on "Christian Higher Education."

The group made plans for a family night supper to be held at their regular meeting in May. Mrs. Archie Farmer, Mrs. Dorothy Black and Mrs. William Jackson served the supper.

Attend Work Day

Attending the work day at Camp Monroe last Saturday were the Rev. W. H. Brown and Donald Brown of Jackson Springs; the Rev. George Houck, Michael Wilson, Marvin Luck, Joe Eifort, and Watts Auman.

Methodist Circles

The Circles of the Methodist WSCS met Monday evening and their topic for study was "Our Plus Becomes a Cross."

The Margaret Brown Circle met with Mrs. Ben Brewer with Mrs. Peace Layfield leading the devotions and Miss Alberta Monroe presenting the program.

The Wesleyan Service Guild met with Mrs. Francis Currie, Jr. Mrs. Lynn McInnis gave the devotional and Mrs. Jimmie Sutphin, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Tart and Mrs. W. M. Chriscoe,

Jr., gave the program. Mrs. Chriscoe was elected leader for the circle for the coming year.

Visit Indian Mound

The Cub Scouts with their leaders and parents visited Indian Mound near Mt. Gilead, Sunday afternoon. The Cubs presented a skit at the Mound site during their visit. They followed Indian trails and the keeper in charge of the mound took pictures of these active youngsters.

Accompanying the Cubs were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Youngblood, Lee Sutphin, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Scarborough, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Holt. Mr. and Mrs. North Lewis and Archie Farmer.

Briefs

Honor awards were given Scouts Jerry Dunn, Jimmy Harris, Richard Sutphin and Mac McDonald at the Court of Honor held last Tuesday evening in Carthage.

The Hawley Poole had as their guest for the weekend Miss Mary Booker of Goldsboro.

Mrs. R. B. Lewis and Mrs. E. R. Outland attended the State Woman's Club Convention held last week in High Point.

The Woman's Club will meet this Thursday evening at the school with the Home Economics girls presenting a Fashion Show and the Girl Scouts as their guests.

The Sandspur Club will have a covered dish supper at 6:30 Thursday evening at the Legion hut. It will be their annual guest night.

William Jackson, Jr., honor senior at Davidson College, has been granted a fellowship in the field of economics at the University of North Carolina for next year.

Roy Carter is recovering nicely following recent surgery at Moore County Hospital. The Carters, with Nancy, visited the gardens at Flora Macdonald College, Sunday.

Mrs. John Thompson is recovering nicely after her recent illness. She wishes to thank all her friends for the many expressions of kindness shown to her and her family. There were cards, letter, flowers, calls, and those who gave blood, to all of whom she is deeply grateful.

Visiting the azalea gardens in Wilmington Sunday were Mrs. M. C. McDonald, Jr., and Mac and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jackson and Jane Ellen.

Miss Agnes Graham of Jackson Springs, who has been a patient at Moore County Hospital, is now at the Pinehurst Convalescent Home and is recovering nicely.

Clyde and Bobby Auman made a business trip to Waynesboro, Va., Saturday. En route home they were dinner guests of the Rev. R. R. Ramsey family at Charlotte Court House, Va.

Visitors to Greensboro Friday were Mrs. Harold Markham, Mrs. A. J. Hanner, Mrs. North Lewis, Mrs. M. J. Davis and Mrs. E. P. Hinson.

Mrs. Paul VonCanon, Dot and Angelina VonCanon were in Greensboro Saturday.

Mrs. Lee Sutphin had her sister, Mrs. George Martin of Richmond, Va., as her guest for several days last week.

Wool production in North Carolina in 1956 amounted to 273,000 pounds, up 3,000 from 1955.

WSP Tops Annual Red Cross Quota

Though the Red Cross fund raising drive in most of Moore County is still lagging and is almost 25 per cent away from the goal, the drive in West Southern Pines has, for the second straight year, been oversubscribed.

Felton Capel, chairman, said today that some $247 had been raised on a $200 quota, about 25 per cent over. The Rev. G. D. McNeil served as co-chairman of the drive, working primarily with other ministers in the community in organizing committees to represent each church.

Others to whom Capel expressed appreciation were James Pugh, Roosevelt Gaddy, and Victor Heading.

Committees, chairmen and funds raised were the following:

Refuge Church of Christ, $8, Rev. J. W. Peek; West Southern Pines school faculty, $37, Mrs. L. M. Barksdale; Emmanuel Presbyterian Church, $20, Mrs. Viola Blue and Mrs. Bertha Stanback; Church of God in Christ, $12.50, Mrs. Lola B. Turner and Mrs. Daisy Ingram; Freewill Baptist Church, $54.75, Mrs. Hattie Durham, Mrs. Dorothy Medlin, Mrs. Beatrice Matthews and Mrs. Lillie Mae Williams; First Missionary Baptist Church, $68.01 (the church gave $20 from its treasury) Mrs. Bessie Byres, James Pugh, Arnix France and Mrs. Jean W. Capel; Methodist Church, $16, Mrs. Bessie Hastie.

It was reported also by Capels that $11.01 was raised at a basketball game played recently.

Blue Knights Get 4th Win of Year Over Cameron, 9-1

Hill Boswell powered a home-run and Dickie McInnis pitched near perfect baseball to lead the Blue Knights to their fourth win of the season Tuesday when they defeated Cameron 9-1.

The Knights, in one of their biggest hitting sprees in the still young season, picked up the easy victory when Lynn van Benschoten, Billq Hamel and Ted Ward added triples.

To date the Knights' only loss came at the hands of Sanford, 8-5. They were playing Aberdeen as The Pilot went to press today.

NIGHT BASEBALL

Night baseball begins in Southern Pines next Tuesday night when the Blue Knights play Vass-Lakeview at Memorial Field. Game time is 8 p.m.

Another game is also scheduled under the lights next week when the Knights play West End.
