BEAUTY SPOT—This is one of the many spots of breath-taking beauty which visitors to Homewood Gardens, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Denison K. Bullens, will see this Sunday when the gardens are open to the public as a benefit for the Moore County Hospital Auxiliary. Although called a benefit for the hospital, the opening of these gardens, located just off Midland Road between Southern Pines and Pinehurst, is in reality a "benefit" for everyone who visits them, with their dazzling azaleas, other blooming shrubs, dogwood, flower-bordered, velvety green walks and entrancing vistas. As one Sandhillian expressed it, "I visit Homewood Gardens every time they are opened, to feed my soul!"

Organ and Vocal Recital To Be Given At Pinehurst Sunday

Professor John E. Williams, head of the Organ Department at Flora Macdonald College, and Miss Julia Lee Ribet, a voice student at the college, will present a joint recital of organ and vocal music at the Pinehurst Village Chapel on Palm Sunday (April 14) at 5:00 o'clock. Professor Williams has chosen a selection of sacred music appropriate to each of the important dates for the entire year, in the Church Calendar, beginning with Advent and ending with Ascension. Miss Ribet's solos are from Mozart and Mendelssohn.

Following is the program in detail:

Prelude: Trumpet Voluntary in D (Purcell); Annunciation: "My Soul Doth Magnify the Lord" (Bach); Advent: "From Heaven Above to Earth I Come" (Pachelbel); Christmas: "The Nativity" (Langlais); and Epiphany: "How Brightly Shines the Morning Star" (Pachelbel), Mr. Williams. "Alleluia" by Mozart, and "Hear Ye, Israel!" (from the "Elijah"), by Mendelssohn, Miss Ribet.

Passion Week: "O Sacred Head Now Wounded" (Bach); Maundy Thursday: "The Last Supper" (Weinberger); Good Friday: Jesus is Nailed on the Cross (Dupre); Easter: Ye Sons and Daughters of the King (Willan); Ascension: Prayer from Christ Ascending unto His father (Messiaen), Mr. Williams.

Presbyterian Circles Meet

Mrs. Clyde Morrison of Midland Road was hostess to Circle 5 of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church at its April meeting last Thursday, with an attendance of 13, which included two visitors, Mrs. Frank Buchan, Jr., and Mrs. Dan S. Ray, who led the Bible study. Mrs. Austin Sauls presented the program article from Presbyterian Women.

Eighteen members attended the meeting of Circle 7, held at the church Thursday night with Mrs. F. M. Dwight as hostess. Mrs. Dan Sheffield conducted the Bible study and Mrs. William Spence gave the program article.

Mrs. Ayre was a guest and Mrs. Frank Yandell was enrolled as a new member when Circle 3 met Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. I. Foy Horton. Mrs. James Douglas and Mrs. Walter Harper were in charge of Bible study and program, respectively. There were 14 members present.

Mrs. Coates was hostess to Circle 10 at the church. Eleven members were present and one visitor, Mrs. John Reagan, who conducted the Bible study. Mrs. W. B. Bodine led the "Let's Talk About..." discussion.

Circle 5 met with Mrs. Paul Butler on Midland Road at 10 a. m. Tuesday. Mrs. William Morris presented the program article and Mrs. R. O. Cowin led the Bible study, with each member participating. Mrs. Kessler and Mrs. Ethel Jordan of Smethport, Pa., who are spending some time in Pinehurst, and Mrs. Howard Butler were guests.

Mrs. Kelly Shows Movies of Homewood Gardens To Club

Colored movies of the beautiful Homewood Gardens, shown by Mrs. Roy Kelly, highlighted the monthly meeting of the Civic Garden Club, held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Hale, the president, presiding.

Mrs. W. O. Spence gave the garden calendar, discussing the planting of different kinds of flower seeds as to time of planting, fertilizer, and the care of the plants. She urged the growing of herbs for home use.

The clubroom was lovely with many arrangements of spring flowers, which were judged, with prize arrangements being awarded blue and red ribbons.

The club meets regularly on the first Thursday of each month at 3 p. m., and visitors are welcomed.

Mrs. Dunn Is Circle Hostess

Mrs. Henry Dunn was hostess to Circle 4 of the First Baptist Church at her home Tuesday night, with nine members present. Mrs. George B. Little led the devotions and Mrs. M. G. McRae was in charge of the program.

District 10 HDC Clubs Will Meet In Jonesboro Heights Next Tuesday

The 10th District meeting of the Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs will be held in the Jonesboro Heights Baptist Church next Tuesday, April 16. The district is composed of Lee, Harnett, Moore and Montgomery Counties.

The meeting will open at 10:30 a. m. with Mrs. Paul Stone, district chairman, presiding. The Rev. John D. Smith, pastor of Jonesboro Heights Baptist Church, will lead the devotions. In addition to routine business, there will be special music, a report of the U. N. Study Tour and an address by O. B. Copeland, head of the Division of Agricultural Information, during the session. Mrs. Lloyd Thomas is chairman of the resolutions committee, Mrs. C. M. Burkehead of registration, Mrs. C. A. Ledbetter of courtesy, and Mrs. Johnnie Barnes of the nominating committee.

The meeting will adjourn at 12:30, and at 2 o'clock a tour of the Carolina Wholesale Florists plant will be conducted.
