Flora Macdonald
Announces Varied
Summer Courses

Flora Macdonald College at Red Springs will offer about 40 courses during the 1957 summer session, beginning June 10.

There will be courses offered by the departments of Bible, Business, English, French, Fine Arts, History and Social Science, Psychology, Education, Spanish, the Natural Sciences, and Music.

Five workshops are scheduled. They include: "Art in the Elementary School," "Guidance and Counseling in the Public Schools," "Speech for the Classroom Teacher," "Field Biology," and "Music Education."

Private voice lessons will also be available and Dr. Charles G. Vardell, Jr., will offer piano instruction.

There are a number of scholarships available and persons interested are urged to write Professor Rodger Decker as soon as possible. The summer session will last five weeks, through July 13.

Visiting lecturers include Mrs. William Reagan of the Red Springs school system, Mrs. Francis Smith McNeill of the Robeson County school system and Mr. S. R. Cotton of the Cumberland County school system.
