Dentists To Hold Annual Meeting At Pinehurst

The North Carolina Dental Society meets for its annual convention in Pinehurst Sunday through Wednesday.

A series of informative lectures and instructive sessions has been arranged for the convention, which will attract most of the state's dentists. Top men in the dentistry field will attend and conduct the lectures, which will be built around the general theme: "Restorative Dentistry." Recreational activities are also planned.

Members of the Society from Southern Pines are Dr. L. M. Daniels, Dr. B. J. Durham, Dr. William H. Johnson, and Dr. Bruce Warlick.

Roads are most dangerous when it first begins to rain. All dirt, oil, etc. that may be on the highway makes an emulsion which reacts like soap, thus making the highway slippery—and hazardous.
