

Mile-Away Horse Is Champion Of Savannah Show

"Battle Ways," one of the youngest horses in the Mile-Away Stable of Mr. and Mrs. Ozelle Moss, was named working hunter champion in the annual Savannah, Ga., Horse Show just concluded.

The horse, shown very little but already considered one of the top possessions of Mile-Away, won four blue ribbons, one third, and the championship in the showing. He was entered in the open class, which has horses of all ages.

Another horse entered by Mile-Away was "Tea-au-Lait," who won a second, two thirds and two fifths.

Senior Members Honored
Mr. and Mrs. John A. Dalrymple, senior members of the Jonesboro Heights Presbyterian Church, Lee County, were honored Sunday morning at the service in the church when a picture, "The Likeness of Christ," painted by Mrs. J. E. Brinn of Sanford, was presented to the Woman's Bible Class of the Sunday School, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Dalrymple.

The presentation was made by the pastor, the Rev. M. J. Murray, and was accepted by the class president, Mrs. H. H. Brewer.

Neill Mac Dalrymple of Florida, son of the honorees, spoke a few words of grateful appreciation for the family.

Lavender floral decorations were placed in the sanctuary by the Dalrymple families.

Following the service, members of the Dalrymple family and invited guests enjoyed a picnic dinner in the fellowship hall of the church, with around 60 members of the family enjoying the get-together meal.

Attending the service from Carthage were Sheriff and Mrs. Charles J. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dalrymple and son Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. McDonald, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Worth McDonald, and Dr. D. N. McDuffie of Robbins.
