

CURVED BAR WINNERS—Six Girl Scouts from Troop 53 were awarded Curved Bars, highest award in intermediate scouting, at the annual Girl Scout Awards night ceremony held in Weaver Auditorium Monday night.

saluting their leaders after receiving the awards are, left to right: Diana Gorman, Joan Grover, Diana Bridges, Janet McKenzie, Adrienne Montesanti, and Sandra Bridges. (Photo by Emerson Humphrey)

had been April 5. Pinebluff Mayor Eutace Mills, unopposed in his present bid for re-election to the Town's governing body, leads a field of candidates that now numbers six. At the caucus held earlier this month, only three people were nominated for the three-member Board: Mrs. Timothy Cleary, Robert Brock and John Burrer. But with a deadline of April 30, three more candidates filed: John Tulloch, Vernon Davis and Brady Brooks.

MUSICIANS (Continued from Page 1) Currie. From Cameron: Brenda Campbell and Tommy Wallace, pupils of Mrs. Warren G. Ferguson. From Vass-Lakeview: Bonnie Callahan and Bonnie Hicks, pupils of Mrs. Kate McInnis. From Farm Life School: Anne McLeod, pupil of Mrs. C. L. Hensley. From Robbins: Jane Anne Culbertson and Nancy Street, pupils of Mrs. William Hancock, and Jacky Scoggin, pupil of Mrs. Poole. From Southern Pines: Sally Springer and Glendia Maness, pupils of Mrs. C. C. McDonald, Susan Huntley, pupil of Miss Jean Saunders, Diana Fields, pupil of Mrs. C. R. Mills, Jean Franklin, (voice), pupil of Mr. Gibbs, Rosie Chandler, pupil of Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr. From Pinehurst: Nancy Gouger, pupil of Miss Julia George, and from West End: Dorothy Leigh VonCanon, pupil of Mrs.

Wilbur M. Currie. Adding variety to the program will be the appearance of the boy choir of Emmanuel Church, Southern Pines, under the direction of Mr. Gibbs. Members of the Young Musicians Concert Committee are: chairman, Mrs. N. L. Hodgkins, Sr., Mrs. H. G. Poole, Mrs. James Boyd, and Miss Mary Logan. Bloat is caused by gas forming in the stomach of farm animals.

GIRL SCOUT COURT OF AWARDS IS HELD MONDAY NIGHT WITH LARGE ATTENDANCE

Girl Scout troops of Southern Pines held their annual Court of Awards in Weaver Auditorium Monday night, with a large number of parents and friends present. The program began with a processional "Girls Scouts Together," followed by an invocation by the Rev. Martin Caldwell. Seated on the stage were Mrs. Audrey Kennedy, president of Central Carolina Girl Scout Council; Miss Creasman, an executive from Sanford; Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., pianist for the program; Mrs. Marvin Wicker, district chairman for Moore County; Mrs. Voit Gilmore, neighborhood chairman, and the Rev. Mr. Caldwell. Troops 48 and 53 conducted the Flag Ceremony, followed by the pledge of allegiance and song, "America the Beautiful," in which the audience participated. Sally Springer, a Brownie, welcomed the visitors and Brownie Troops 109, 117 and 78 recited the Brownie promise. Troop 82 had the Girl Scout promise and laws. Jackie Browning and Jane Wicker of Troop 50 told the audience "What It Means to be a Girl Scout," after which the scouts joined in singing "When E'er You Make a Promise." Carol Staples of Troop 48 gave a report on the birthplace of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouting, which is located in Savannah, Ga. After a few remarks by Miss Creasman, and an explanation of the meaning of Court of Awards by Troop 64, each troop leader presented to her girls the merit badges which they had earned. Six girls were presented the Curved Bar award, highest in intermediate scouting. They are: Diana Gorman, Joan Grover, Diana Bridges, Janet McKenzie, Adrienne Montesanti, and Sandra Bridges. * Three troops were recognized as being newly formed: No. 109, of which Mrs. Earl Parker and Mrs. O. T. Parks are leaders; and two Catholic School troops, No. 117, led by Mrs. Norman Black with Mrs. Peggy Thompson as assistant, and No. 118, led by Mrs. Marge Sweiger and Mrs. Rachel Cuff. The girls sang "O Beautiful Banner," followed by the benediction by Mr. Caldwell, "Taps," and the recessional.

OPEN HOUSE

Open House to observe Armed Forces Day will be held at Fort Bragg May 18, according to an announcement this morning by Maj. Gen. Paul D. Adams, commanding general. Theme for this year's observance is "Power for Peace." Gen. Adams said that an all-day program is planned and that further details would be announced next week. In the meantime, he urged the public to make arrangements to attend the open house and view the many new accomplishments the Armed Forces are making today.

Constance dePool, 11, Is Victim Of Leukemia

Constance Lyda dePool, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman dePool of Southern Pines, died Tuesday in Duke Hospital after an illness of several months. The little girl, a leukemia victim, had been at Duke for the past several weeks. Doctors had discovered last November that she suffered from leukemia, for which no cure has been found. Graveside services were conducted this morning at 11:30 by Dr. Wofford C. Timmons, minister of the Church of Wide Fellowship. Burial was in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

STIFF RACES

(Continued from page 1) on the board. No interest attaches to the commissioner race, where five are running for the five-man board. They are incumbents Wilton H. Brown, Wesley Caviness and H. G. Poole, Fred N. Flinchum and L. R. McDonald. Vass The present mayor of Vass, A. G. Edwards, Jr., is unopposed for reelection in Tuesday's vote. Seven are running for the five-man board—Henry A. Borst, J. A. (Buddie) McRae, Edd Boggs, D. Hugh McLean, James Edward Hudson, Vernon Ray Griffin and Duncan H. McGill. Three were nominated for mayor and 15 for commissioner at the caucus last month. However, several withdrawals and some additional filings have changed the picture. Robbins G. B. Williams is the only candidate to announce for the mayor's post in Robbins, a post which had been held by Wayland Kennedy for two consecutive terms. Mayor Kennedy announced in March that pressure of business would prevent him from seeking re-election. Williams, long prominent in the civic and business life of Robbins, is owner and operator of a hosiery mill and a planer mill there, and has extensive holdings in real estate. He is also a member of the present Town Board. Seeking the five seats on the Town Commissioners Board are eight candidates: John L. Frye, incumbent, who is a prominent merchant; Johnny Myers, president of the Merchants Association; Joe Cranford, automobile dealer; Richard James, insurance agent; William McLaurin, who is with Standard Minerals Company; H. B. Clark, oil dealer; Charles Barringer, who is with Amerotron Mills; and Henderson Britt, merchant. McLaurin was an unsuccessful candidate in the last election. Frye, considered by many as the only sure winner, is presently serving his third term on the Board. Deadline for filing in Robbins

INS and OUTS

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Lewis, who have been winter residents at The Homestead, left Wednesday for their home in Bethlehem, N. H. Mr. and Mrs. Foster A. Jones left Sunday for their home in Johnstown, Pa., after a 10-day Easter visit to their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Flannery of Fort Pierce, Fla., spent from Friday until Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson of Manly. Another son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Martin Tinker, and children arrived Saturday from Fort Thomas, Ky., to visit the Wilsons. Lt. Tinker has returned to Kentucky, leaving his family for a visit. He will come back the first of June for a month's leave before going to Germany early in July. Russell Lorenson is attending a joint meeting of the North and South Carolina 1957 Convention Committee to make plans for a joint convention of the N. C. and the S. C. Society of Accountants to be held in June at the Ocean Terrace Hotel, Myrtle Beach. The committee met at Myrtle Beach Wednesday and was to convene in Columbia today (Thursday) with the boards of directors. Miss Lee Powers made a trip to New York this week to buy merchandise for her shop. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller of Charlotte have been spending several days at Mid Pines enjoying golf and good food. Mrs. Miller is a niece of Mrs. Mangum Webb of Southern Pines. Graham Culbreth, who underwent an examination at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore last week, returned home Saturday night.

Two Local Men To Be In Inaugural Of UNC's Friday

Two local men will be official delegates, representing their alma maters, to the formal installation of William C. Friday as president of the consolidated University of North Carolina in ceremonies next Wednesday in Raleigh. Dr. John E. Elmendorf, Jr., who lives on Midland Road, will represent Rutgers University in New Jersey, and Harry H. Pethick will represent Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn. Both will appear in the inaugural parade in full regalia—caps and gowns—and will attend several official functions connected with the inauguration. President Friday, whose appointment received widespread favorable comment, is a native of Dallas, N. C. and a graduate of N. C. State College. One of the youngest university presidents in the nation, he was formerly Dean of Men at the University and succeeded Gordon Gray, present Undersecretary of Defense.

Homer Cummings Golf Tournament Set For May 9-12

The annual Homer Cummings Invitational Golf Tournament, one of the area's top events, will be held May 9-12, it was learned this morning from officials at Mid Pines Club. The tournament, which has received wide publicity because of the calibre of men who enter—most are nationally known—is named for its founder and, until his death last summer, one of its most ardent players, Homer Cummings, one-time Attorney General of the United States. Mid Pines officials said that some 38 players would be entered this year, a little less than previously. The tournament is a twice-a-year affair, with events in both spring and fall. Mr. Cummings attended the spring tournament last year and had already made arrangements for the fall tournament when he died. Most of the players have indicated they plan to continue the tournament as a memorial. It is considered one of the outstanding events in the entire year by Mid Pines Club owners, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cosgrove.

School Cafeterias

EAST SOUTHERN PINES Monday—Sliced luncheon meat with mustard and catsup, sandwich bread, and butter, buttered potatoes, turnip greens, pineapple-cheese salad, milk. Tuesday—Vienna sausage, baked beans, tossed green salad, bread, butter, jello, milk. Wednesday—Hamburger on bun, whipped potatoes, whole kernel corn, carrot sticks, milk. Thursday—Chili con carne, rice, tossed green salad, biscuit, butter, orange, cookie, milk. Friday—Tuna fish salad, French fried potatoes, string beans, bread and butter, milk.

FOR RESULTS USE THE PILOT'S CLASSIFIED COLUMN

The Pilot
PRINTERS For The SANDHILLS
Right Copy
Right Delivery
Right Price
In Other Words
RIGHT
STATEMENTS
BILL HEADS
LETTERHEADS
ENVELOPES
BUSINESS CARDS
WINDOW CARDS