Peach Growers Say Crop This Year To Be Above Average

Sandhills peach growers have reported their crop at about 30 per cent above the same period last year. Prospects for the crop are rated from good to excellent and with the chances for a killing frost all but diminished, farmers are currently forecasting above average production. The crop this year is rated at 88 per cent of normal on April 1, best crop since 1953, a record and 19 per cent above year.

the 1946-55 average. Most farmers say this year will produce the biggest and best crop since 1953, a record and 19 per cent above year.
