

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

MISS ANNE SIBLEY

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Watson Sibley of New Haven, Conn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Anne, to Richard Croft Kennedy, son of Mrs. Harriet Walker Kennedy of Nobleboro, Maine, and Donald Davidson Kennedy of Southern Pines.

Miss Sibley is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harper Sibley of Rochester, N. Y., and of Mrs. William Bradford Robbins and the late Dr. Robbins of Boston, Mass. She was graduated from Miss Porter's School, Farmington, Conn., and was presented to society in Rochester and New Haven in 1953. She is a member of the senior class at Vassar College.

Mr. Kennedy is the grandson of Mrs. William Walker and the late Judge Walker of Birmingham, Ala., and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edward Kennedy of Philadelphia, Pa. He is a graduate of the Pomfret School, Pomfret, Conn., and Columbia College, class of 1956, where he was a member of St. Anthony Hall and the Society of Schems. He served two years in the army and is now employed by the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company. Mr. Kennedy is a member of the University Club of New York.

FRED BETHUNE MONROE, JR., OF WEST END WEDS MISS HATTON IN KENTUCKY

In a ceremony in Flatwoods Methodist Church, Russell, Ky., at 12 o'clock noon on Easter Sunday, Miss Carol Hatton became the bride of Fred Bethune Monroe, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe of West End, with the Rev. R. M. Baldwin officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hatton of Russell, Ky.

Prior to the ceremony Miss Harriette Neal, organist, and Miss Phyllis Hall, vocalist, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length dress of white crepe with matching accessories and carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Patty Garvin was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant.

John Lauchlin Monroe of West

End and Chapel Hill, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were John Powell and Robert Powell, of Russell.

After the ceremony the couple received in the vestibule of the church.

The bride's parents served a buffet luncheon in their home for the wedding party, relatives and friends immediately after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe left Wednesday afternoon by automobile for Lawton, Okla., where they will reside during his tenure of service at Fort Sill, where he is an instructor in the school of electronics and survey.

Those from West End who attended the wedding were the bridegroom's parents and brother, also his aunts, Misses Alberta and Blanche Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Pelton Attend Gathering At Scandia Village

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Pelton went to Raleigh last Thursday, where they picked up Lorraine Jones, who flew in from St. Louis, Mo., and from there to Scandia Village where a group of Biltmore Forest School alumni were gathering. Alumni and wives who attended numbered around 50.

Mr. Pelton and Mr. Jones were chums at Biltmore Forest School and were the oldest graduates attending the meeting. Mr. Jones having graduated in 1901 and Mr. Pelton the following year. They held places of honor in an alumni photograph made at the meeting.

On Friday, the group attended the dedication of 250 acres of woods just out of Raleigh to be known as the Carl Alwin Schenck Memorial Forest, in memory of the man who instituted and ran the Biltmore Forest School from 1898 to 1916. The School of Forestry of N. C. State College is owner of the forest, and a committee of Biltmore Forest School alumni had charge of the dedicatory ceremonies.

After the dedication, State College gave a barbecue dinner at the forest for the alumni.

Mr. Pelton saw a number of old friends at the meeting and it was an especial pleasure to see his old chum, Mr. Jones, whom he had not seen for 15 or 20 years and only a very few times since their school days.

Several From Here Attend Golden Wedding At Albemarle Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Benson, Mrs. R. S. Parker, Mrs. Tom Surratt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Patch, Jr., Mrs. J. D. Arey, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Arey, Jr., and daughter, Babs, all of Southern Pines, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Arey and daughter, Ann, of Aberdeen, and Robert Arey of Greensboro went to Albemarle Sunday to attend the Golden Wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller. Mrs. Miller, Mrs. S. A. Benson and Mrs. R. S. Parker are sisters.

Mrs. Benson presided at the register for two hours of the reception, which lasted from 2 to 6 p. m., and Mrs. Parker took her turn at the punch bowl.

The bride of 50 years is the former Edna Arey. Mrs. Benson was flower girl in her sister's wedding.

Mrs. Harold A. Collins Attends DAR Congress In Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Harold A. Collins of Southern Pines represented the Alfred Moore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, as its official voting delegate at the 66th annual DAR Congress held in Constitution Hall in Washington, D. C., April 15-19.

In addition to attending the business sessions and voting on many important measures, Mrs. Collins was present at a round of social events, including the North Carolina State meetings and tea and a luncheon of the South Carolina delegates by special invitation, she having first joined the organization in South Carolina. She was also present when the North Carolina Society of Washington entertained a banquet at The Mayflower which was a highlight of the Congress.

Around 6,000 women from all over the United States and its possessions attended the convention.

Bird Club Goes To Thagard's Lake

The Bird Club enjoyed another trip to Thagard's Lake last Saturday, listing 50 species of birds seen during the week, including the hooded and prothonotary warblers at Thagard's. It is planned to take trips each Saturday morning, weather permitting. All who are interested are invited to meet at 180 South Bennett Street at 9:30 a.m.

Monroe-Garner Invitations Issued

Friends in the Robbins area have received invitations to the wedding of Miss Wilma Brent Garner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Arnold Garner, and Thomas Lealon Monroe, which will take place in the South Elm Street Baptist Church in Greensboro at 4:30 p.m. next Sunday. Mr. Monroe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Monroe of Robbins.

MRS. WALTER JOSHUA LEWIS

MISS MIXON AND MR. LEWIS ARE WED IN CHURCH RITES AT CHAPEL HILL SATURDAY

Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the University Methodist Church, Miss Clara Jeanette Mixon of Chapel Hill became the bride of Walter Joshua Lewis, also of Chapel Hill. The Rev. Charles S. Hubbard officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edna Dyches Mixon of Estill, S. C., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic W. Lewis of Bethlehem, N. H., and Southern Pines.

Prior to the ceremony, Miss Mae Marshbanks, organist, and David Small, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Selections included "Through The Years," "I Love Thee," and "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

The vows were spoken before a background of woodwardia ferns and palms, wrought iron candelabra holding lighted candles, and floor baskets of white bridal flowers. A white satin prie-dieu completed the nuptial scene. The family pews were marked with white bridal flowers and white satin ribbons.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert C. Mixon, the bride wore a dress of Chantilly lace and pleated nylon tulle, designed with a fitted bodice, circle neckline accented with seed pearls and sequins, and long fitted sleeves ending in calla points over the hands. The full ballerina-length skirt was fashioned with a pleated flounce at the hemline. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a matching Chantilly lace half hat. She carried a cascade of snowdrift and white bride's roses, centered with a white orchid.

Maid of honor was Miss Clara Clontz of Chapel Hill. She wore a dress of mauve and raspberry crystal, fashioned princess style, with a fitted bodice, circle neckline, abbreviated sleeves, and full ballerina-length skirt. She wore raspberry tinted shoes and matching hat, and carried a cascade of mixed spring flowers.

Bridesmaids were sisters of the bride, Miss Hazel Mixon of Wilmington, and Miss Jackie Mixon of Charleston, S. C. Their dresses and flowers were identical to those of the honor attendant.

Best man for the groom was Charles C. Bernard of Chapel Hill. Ushers were Robert J. Nickley of Sidney, Ohio, brother-in-law of the groom, and Ray B. Mixon, Thomas C. Mixon and Frederick D. Mixon, brothers of the bride, of Barnwell, S. C.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mixon wore a dress of navy blue lace, matching accessories, and a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Lewis, mother of the groom, wore a dress of lavender crepe, matching accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, the wedding guests were entertained at a reception in the church parlor. Assisting in serving were Miss Mary Helen Isaacs, Mrs. Robert Gaines, Mrs. Margaret Barbee, Mrs. Bob Rimer, Miss Esther Thompson, Miss Nancy Charles, Miss Jean Mitchell, Miss Mary Anderson, Miss Dorothy Tate, all of Chapel Hill, and Miss Sue Coble of Greensboro.

For a wedding trip to Florida, the bride wore a navy blue shantung ensemble, matching accessories, and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. The couple will be at home on Severin Street in Chapel Hill.

The bride is a graduate of Winthrop College in Rock Hill, S. C., where she received the B.S. degree. She received her M.S. degree in Hospital Dietetics at Ohio State University, and is now employed as a dietitian at the North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill.

The groom is a graduate of Tufts University in Medford, Mass., and is now employed by the Hospital Saving Association in Chapel Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Lewis of Southern Pines, their daughter Miss Eloise Lewis of Boston and another daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nicklet and children of Sidney, Ohio, attended the wedding and the visiting relatives spent some time here with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis.

The Druckenmillers Pay Return Visit To Southern Pines

Dr. and Mrs. Fred W. Druckenmiller of Union, N. J., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bailey. They spent the first days of their post-Easter vacation in a leisurely trip south, visiting scenic and historical spots between their home and North Carolina, coming into this state by way of the Great Smokies and Asheville and reaching Southern Pines Friday afternoon.

The Rev. Mr. Druckenmiller is remembered here by many, particularly for his work with Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Church during his stay in this area as Service Pastor at Fort Bragg a number of years ago. During his weekend visit he spent most of his time visiting friends and refreshing friendships from his previous visit here.

Dr. Druckenmiller is pastor of the Connecticut Farms congregation of Union, N. J., a Presbyterian church whose membership numbers more than 2,100. Because of the pressure of work connected with a group so large as this, Dr. and Mrs. Druckenmiller left Southern Pines Sunday afternoon for their northern home, promising to return at the first opportunity. "Coming to Southern Pines feels like coming home," they said.

Lt. and Mrs. Clayton Are Expected Soon From California

Lt. and Mrs. Grant Clayton are expected to arrive from California around the middle of the month. He will leave for France on May 29 for a three-year tour.

Mrs. Clayton will remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carpenter, of the Aberdeen Road, until she can join her husband. She is the former Martha Carpenter, who was receptionist for Dr. Bruce Warlick for several years. Lt. Clayton was stationed at Pope Air Force Base and they lived at 610 North May Street.

At present Lt. Clayton is stationed at George Air Force Base, Victorville, Calif., which is only about two hours' drive from his home. Since their marriage in August 1955, Lt. Clayton was stationed at Laughlin AFB, Del Rio, Tex., and Nellis AFB, Las Vegas, Nev., prior to his California assignment.

CIVIC CLUB CELEBRATES JUBILEE YEAR AND LIFTING OF MORTGAGE ON BUILDING

The Civic Club ended its season last Friday with a Jubilee Luncheon at the Shaw House at 12 o'clock, to celebrate its 50th anniversary and the payment of the debt on the clubhouse, followed by the annual business meeting at 1:15 at the Civic Club building.

The Shaw House was festive with flowers, and 33 members were present to enjoy the happy occasion. Before the lunch, an orchid corsage was presented to Mrs. J. B. Boyle, the retiring president, with a few words of appreciation by Miss Louise Haynes for Mrs. Boyle's fine work in clearing off the mortgage, with the help of able workers. Another corsage was presented Mrs. Boyle by the Shaw House.

Miss Haynes also paid tribute to all the faithful members who, during the fifty years, had labored for the club.

The luncheon began with the Doxology spoken from grateful hearts and ended with a decorated cake made by Mrs. L. D. McDonald. The cake, which bore a lighted candle, was placed before Mrs. Boyle.

After the luncheon, a rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Edward Schneider and her helpers for planning the delightful affair.

Three past presidents attended: Mrs. L. D. McDonald, who was in office for three years after the war and did a fine work in restoring the club to peacetime activities; Mrs. Virgil P. Clark, who also did splendid work in organization at a more recent date; and Miss Louise Haynes, who followed

Mrs. Clark and served two years prior to Mrs. Boyle's term. Mrs. Charles Whitaker, who was president when the Civic Club house was built, could not attend and sent regrets.

During the business session at the club house, the treasurer's report of a paid-up mortgage was officially made and Mrs. Louise Fitch, treasurer, was given a rising vote of thanks for all her work. An Honorary Life Membership was given Mrs. Boyle with a rising vote of thanks for her untiring work "above and beyond the line of duty."

The new slate of officers was read by the nominating committee and the secretary was asked to cast one ballot for the slate which follows:

President, Mrs. H. C. Lefroy; 1st vice president, Mrs. Gordon Clark; 2nd vice president, Mrs. Louise Fitch; 3rd vice president, Mrs. Wade Stevick; recording secretary, Miss Caroline Day; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thomas Hobson; treasurer, Mrs. Louise Fitch; board of directors, Mrs. C. W. Areson, Mrs. W. O. Spence, Mrs. Virgil P. Clark, Mrs. Dante Montesanti, Mrs. Donald Case, Mrs. J. W. Neal, Mrs. R. M. Cushman, and Miss Louise Haynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Blacklock and baby, Teresa Marie, of Reidsville were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lorenson. Mrs. Blacklock is the former Betty Lorenson of Southern Pines.

Frank Thomson of Glendale, Calif., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Lillian T. Landis of 285 North Weymouth Road.

BUY NOW!

PHILCO.

Bedsider TV

SWIVELS
FULL $ PRICE ONLY 169⁹⁵

THE BEDSIDE COMBINATION FEATURES

- ★ The PHILCO "Seventeener" Portable TV with 149 sq. in. Aluminized Screen. Exclusive Bantamweight Power Plant. FM Sound with Dynamic Diode Detector.
- ★ Sensational New Detachable Swivel Base.

SPECIAL PRICE ON NEW 1-TON PHILCO AIR - CONDITIONING UNITS

Boes Home & Garden Store
U. S. No. 1 South SOUTHERN PINES, N. C.

GREAT OAK

BLENDED WHISKEY

86 PROOF
70% Grain Neutral Spirits

$2.10
PINT

$3.45
4/5 QUART

BLENDED & BOTTLED BY
AUSTIN, NICHOLS & CO., INC. New York - New York