Commencement

Commencement exercises at Vass-Lakeview High School will begin with the baccalaureate sermon in the school auditorium Sunday night, May 19, with the Rev. A. C. Trivette, pastor of the Vass Presbyterian Church, bringing the message. There will be special music by the combined high school and elementary glee clubs. This service and all other commencement programs will be at 8 p. m.

Wednesday, Class Day exercises entitled "Carnival Capers" will be presented.

Graduation exercises will take place Thursday, with the presentation of diplomas, medals and other awards. Five of the seniors will speak: Johnsey Cameron, salutatorian; Elise McWilliams, valedictorian; Jimmy Key, Joan Baldwin and Frances Johnson. Roger Gibbs, glee club director, will sing a solo and the glee club will also appear on the program.

Senior mascots are Barbara Sawyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Sawyer, and Stewart McFayden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dougal McFayden.

Elementary school graduation will take place Thursday morning. Around 35 or 40 eighth grade pupils of Mrs. P. A. Wilson and R. E. Beasley will receive certificates. There will be no guest speaker, but pupils will take part in the exercises.

Commencement marshals, chosen from the Junior Class on the basis of scholarship, are: Polly Key, chief; Estelle McIntosh, Mary Ruth Smith, D. A. McNeill, Jimmy Mashburn, and Reba Willard.

The local Boy Scouts will sponsor a fish fry at the community house Saturday from 5 to 8 p. m., and the public is invited to attend. These boys, under the leadership of Commander Karl Schweinfurth (ret.) are doing a fine work and previous events make it a sure thing that they will serve the supper in efficient manner. Don't miss it!

Piano Recital

Mrs. Herbert D. McInnis presented her pupils in a delightful piano recital last Friday night that was attended by a large number of parents and friends. The program was well received, with many favorable comments. Each performer played from memory.

The stage was attractively decorated with standards of candles and large arrangements of delicate pink laurel.

Pupils playing were: Mary Cameron, Barbara Ring, Betty Key, Anne Frye, Myrna McRae, Diane Cameron, Joan Flannigan, Diane Lassiter, Dolores Garcia, Jo Callahan, Mac McCrummen, Charles Cameron, Bonnie Callahan, Judy Bailey, Barbara Seagraves, Barbara Jessup, Leon Keith, Ila Ring, Jerry Gulledege.

Also, Regina Cox, Sue Cameron, Karen Wolfe, Patsy Callahan, Dana Thomas, Kay Curtis, Jeannette Mullinix, Sandra Eastwood, Danny Williams, Anne Crockett, Steve Frye, Judy Cameron, Fairley Cameron, Bonnie Hicks, Anne Edwards, Linda Nicks, and Dorene Keith. One other pupil, Paul Cummings, was absent.

Woman's Club
Mrs. N. N. McLean and Mrs. P. A. Wilson were hostesses to the Vass Woman's Club at its May meeting at the home of Mrs. McLean Friday night. Mrs. Leon Keith presided over the business session, during which routine reports were given and several new items of business discussed.

Mrs. Howard Gschwind, program leader, presented State Highway Patrolman A. H. Hight of Carthage, who made an impressive talk on "Highway Safety" and distributed safety literature. A question and answer period followed.

At the conclusion of the program, Mrs. Keith turned the gavel over to Mrs. Charles Ray Pope, the new president, who spoke briefly.

The retiring president thanked support and cooperation, and she, in turn, was given a rising vote of thanks for her loyal service during the past two years.

Refreshments were served in the dining room from a table decorated in the May Day theme. A tall white candle rising from a bowl of pink roses served as a Maypole from which pastel colored ribbons extended to the table, ready for miniature dancers to appear and take over. Party sandwiches, cookies and mints were served, with Mrs. McLean presiding at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Gilbert Graham of Charlotte, guest of Mrs. A. V. Autry, the club women for their fine was welcomed as a visitor.

Church Women Meet

The general meeting of Vass Presbyterian Women of the Church was held at the church on Wednesday night of last week with the president, Mrs. J. A. Hudson, presiding. Plans for an intensive Bible study to be held at the church on the fourth Sunday were made. The pastor, the Rev. A. C. Trivette, will conduct the study.

Mrs. Herbert Caddell was in charge of the program, which was highlighted by a moving picture, "Opportunity Knocks Twice," dealing with the birth-day objectives, Korea and Mexico. An offering for mission work in these countries was made.

Mrs. Hudson read the Scripture lesson.

Mrs. Caddell served birthday cake, nuts and drinks.

A Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Causey are the parents of a daughter, born Friday, May 10, at Moore County Hospital weighing seven pounds, 12 ounces. They have named her Rhonda Darlene. Mrs. Causey is the former Nellie Hart.

WCSA Meets

Mrs. W. A. Muse was hostess to the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service at its monthly meeting in the fellowship hall of the church last week. The president, Mrs. R. R. (Continued on page 11)
