Winners from Moore were Billy Sheppard of Aberdeen, beekeeping; Jane Owen, Robbins, electric demonstration; and Burgwyn Fields, Star Route, Carthage, tractor driving.

Young Sheppard used as the topic of his demonstration, "How to Re-Queen a Hive of Bees and the Necessary Equipment." By winning the state title, he became the recipient of an all-expense paid trip to State 4-H week and a $15 cash prize.

Miss Owen, a student at Elise High School, placed sixth in a field of 95 in the dress effort, in addition to her winning efforts in the electric demonstration. She was also entered in the health pageant as Moore County representative.

Fields won a trip to Richmond, Va., September 20-24, to compete against winners from 20 other states in tractor driving. From there, if he wins, he will go to Oklahoma for further competition for the national award.

Others from this county who won prizes at the event were Lonnie McKenzie, Route 3, Carthage, who placed third in a tobacco demonstration; Gwynn Voss of Aberdeen, fourth in public speaking; and Lester McCasbill and Billy Sheppard, fourth in poultry production.

Others attending from this county were Bobby Auman, Route 1, West End; Nancy McLeod, Route 2, Carthage; Dwayne Price, Route 2, Robbins; Vivian Tucker, West End; Gayle McNeil and Lorna Cockman, Robbins; Mrs. Nancy Currie of Southern Pines, assistant home agent; and Thomas Hall, assistant farm agent.
