

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-4512

Jordan J. Frassinetti Is New Member of State Bar Association

Jordan J. Frassinetti is now a member of the North Carolina Bar. He recently received his LL.B. degree from the law school of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and last week successfully passed the State Bar examination.

Mr. Frassinetti and his fiancée, Miss Elizabeth Studdert of Midland, Tex., who is doing graduate study at UNC, spent last weekend here with his mother, Mrs. Edward Gordon-Mann, and family.

Paul Jones Family Has House Guests From Tennessee

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and young son, Joe, have as guests at their home at 620 Valley Road Mr. and Mrs. William Hooper and Miss Jane Hooper of Humboldt, Tenn. Mrs. Hooper and daughter came by plane to Charlotte, where they were met by the Jones family, and after a few days in Southern Pines, the Joneses and their guests went to Myrtle Beach, S. C., to spend last week, returning Sunday. Mr. Hooper drove here to join the group Sunday night.

Miss JoAnne Harriss Is Bridesmaid In Wedding At Kannapolis

Miss JoAnne Harriss was a bridesmaid in the wedding of Miss Royce Jeroline Watts and Ned Grady Robinette, both of Kannapolis, who were married in the First Baptist Church there at 5 o'clock on Saturday, August 3. Another bridesmaid, Miss Barbara Proctor of Lincolnton, and Miss Harriss taught with the bride in the A. L. Brown High School at Kannapolis last year. They entertained for her at a luncheon at Chirburko's in Kannapolis as a pre-nuptial courtesy. The bridegroom is in the teaching profession, also.

Misses Alberta and Blanche Monroe of West End Entertain Guests

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Monroe of West End held their annual get-together last weekend at the Monroe home with Misses Alberta and Blanche Monroe. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Monroe and family, including their little granddaughter, Cheryl Bryson, all of Charlotte, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Monroe and daughters, Mary and Anne, of Pinehurst, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Monroe of West End and their son John Lauchlin Monroe, who is a rising senior at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill.

Miss Mary Hebe Degler of Cleveland, Ohio, a former anesthetist at Moore Memorial Hospital who is now supervisor of anesthetists in a Cleveland hospital, also her niece, Mrs. Stanley Chidister and two sons, of Lancaster, Pa., left Saturday after spending a week with the Misses Monroe. Mrs. Tom West and Miss Ellen Bruton of Chadbourne visited the group on Tuesday, and Mrs. Violet Young, assistant superintendent of nurses at Moore Memorial Hospital, was a dinner guest in the Monroe home Friday evening.

Calling on Miss Blanche Monroe Sunday were Mrs. Kenneth Foushee of Sanford, Mrs. Lillian Cole of Cameron, Mrs. Hawley Poole of West End, Mrs. Myrtle Fitzgerald, Mrs. Earl Bruton, Mrs. Elva Ewing and Miss Annie Campbell of Candor, and Miss Luna Monroe of Southern Pines. Miss Blanche Monroe, while attending the N. C. State Classroom Teachers' meeting at the Blue Ridge assembly last spring, slipped on a freshly waxed floor as she was leaving for home and suffered a broken hip. She has been recuperating at home following a stay at Moore Memorial Hospital, and her friends will be interested to know that she is getting along so well that she expects to be ready to return to her classroom when school opens. She teaches in the primary department of the West End school.

Church Circle Meets With Mrs. Mitchell

Mrs. W. M. Mitchell of Midland Road was hostess to Presbyterian Circle 10 Tuesday morning, with nine members attending. Miss Effie Bailey conducted the Bible study and Mrs. Mitchell led the "Let's Talk About..." discussion from Presbyterian Women.

VACATION SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT SET FOR SUNDAY, WIDE FELLOWSHIP CHURCH

Commencement exercises for the Church of Wide Fellowship's daily vacation Bible school will be held as a part of the 10 a. m. service Sunday morning, and parents of the children are especially invited and urged to be present, according to Roger Gibbs, director of the school, which started on Monday of last week, and is continuing through tomorrow (Friday).

Seventy-eight boys and girls from four years of age through 13 have been enrolled in the school, and their commencement will consist of songs, recitations, and handwork, the latter to be exhibited as a part of the service, and in the educational building.

Friday morning from 11:30 to noon, a "last day" picnic will be held in the fellowship hall, to which parents of the children are invited, also.

Miss Mary Jane Prillaman is assistant director, and the following are serving on the faculty: Beginner Department, Mrs. T. E. Shockley, Miss Barbara Blackwelder and Mrs. Eugene Blackwelder; Primary, Miss Mary Jane Prillaman; Junior, Mrs. Charles Austin; Teen-age, Mrs. R. M. Cushman, Jr.; Handicrafts, Mrs. Elmer Donaldson, Mrs. Roger Gibbs, and Elmer Donaldson.

Mrs. Stanley Austin and Mrs. Gibbs are co-chairmen of the refreshment committee; Mrs. Gibbs heads the transportation committee; pianists are Mrs. Lillian Miles Raymond, Mrs. R. M. Cushman, Jr., and Mrs. T. E. Shockley; and Miss Gerrie Madigan is serving as secretary.

Jeffrey Lee Williams Has Birthday Party

A 7 p. m. party Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barrett Harriss marked the first birthday of their little grandson, Jeffrey Lee Williams, who with his mother, Mrs. Raymond Williams (Martina Harriss) is here from Fayetteville on a visit. Sixteen children were there to celebrate with Jeffrey Lee.

The birthday cake was in the form of a circus tent and this was served with a special treat—homemade ice cream. Party hats and favors added to the fun, and pictures were made to record the event. Jeffrey's father was here for the party, also, as were mothers of the little guests.

Mrs. James Ratliff Is Circle Hostess

The Virginia Oliver Circle of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. James Ratliff. Mrs. Ray Huffman was enrolled as a new member and Mrs. Houser of Pennsylvania was a guest, bringing the attendance to 11.

Mrs. Ned Busby conducted the devotions and Mrs. J. H. Caulfield led the program.

Looking Ahead

CHURCH WOMEN
The monthly meeting of Brownson Memorial Presbyterian Women of the Church will be held at 8 p. m. Monday in the church sanctuary, with Mrs. J. W. Causey, chairman of church extension, in charge of the program. A film, "The Church In Thy House," will be shown, and Miss Elaine Berrong, Brownson Memorial's educational director, will report on Camp Monroe activities. Miss Berrong served as a counselor there for a while during the summer, and a number of boys and girls from this church have attended the camp.

BAPTIST MEETING
The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church will meet at 8 p. m. Tuesday, August 20, at the church.

INS AND OUTS
Miss Letha Copeland spent last weekend in Charlotte. Mrs. Howard Butler and son, Dan, went to Kuszehqua, Pa., last week to spend the remainder of the month. Mr. Bruton drove up with them and returned. Mrs. Frank Walker spent last week in Sanford with her daughter, Mrs. Ray Backlund, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Freeman left Sunday for their home in New York after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas. Jeffrey Freeman, who had been with his grandparents for the summer, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sitton and daughters, Dolly and Cathy, of Charlotte spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Prim, Carole Anne Prim, who had been visiting the Sittons for a week, returned to Southern Pines with them.

Mrs. Irie Leonard and son, Gregg, are leaving Saturday for Burlington to spend about a week with her mother, Mrs. J. R. Copland, Sr.

Capt. and Mrs. Ralph Kester and son, Wayne, of West Palm Beach, Fla., former residents of Knollwood apartments, stopped by to see Mr. and Mrs. Irie Leonard this morning. The Leonard family are entertaining as their house guests from today until Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Garland Wyrick of Yuma, Ariz., who are in North Carolina for three months.

Miss Vonnie Mae Frye And Cranford Allred Are Wed At Vass

In a private ceremony at the Methodist parsonage in Vass at 8 p. m. Saturday, August 10, Miss Vonnie Mae Frye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Frye, became the bride of Cranford Allred, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Allred of Aberdeen.

The Rev. T. Fant Steele, Jr., officiated at the double ring ceremony, which was performed in the presence of the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Black of Pinehurst, and Mrs. Steele.

The bride was wearing a peacock blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Allred is a 1957 graduate of Vass-Lakeview High School and is employed by the Aberdeen Hosiery Mill in Aberdeen. Mr. Allred attended high school in Aberdeen and is employed by the Aberdeen Coca-Cola Bottling Company.

Melanie Montesanti Has Birthday Party

Melanie M. Montesanti, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dante Montesanti, was honored at a birthday party at her home at 345 Country Club Road from 3 to 4 p. m. Tuesday. The tots had a good time playing indoors, and watching as Melanie opened the many gifts she received.

Mrs. Montesanti was assisted in entertaining and in serving ice cream, heart-shaped cakes, each bearing the figure "3," chocolate milk and lollipops by Adrienne Montesanti, Cathy Wilson and Susan Ewing. Party hats and balloons were given as favors.

Melanie's small guests were: Joy Page, Jean and Micky Hunemann, Kathryn Ewing, Matthew Mills, Mark Branigan, Robert Buchholz, Brad Montesanti, Todd McKinney, Jimmy Howerton, and Mark Lowstetter.

Mothers attending the party were Mrs. Joe Montesanti, Mrs. John Buchholz, Mrs. R. N. Page, III, Mrs. Lynn McKinney, Mrs. Russell Mills, Mrs. John Hunemann, and Mrs. William J. Wilson.

Mrs. Jones Reports On Convention Of BPO Does

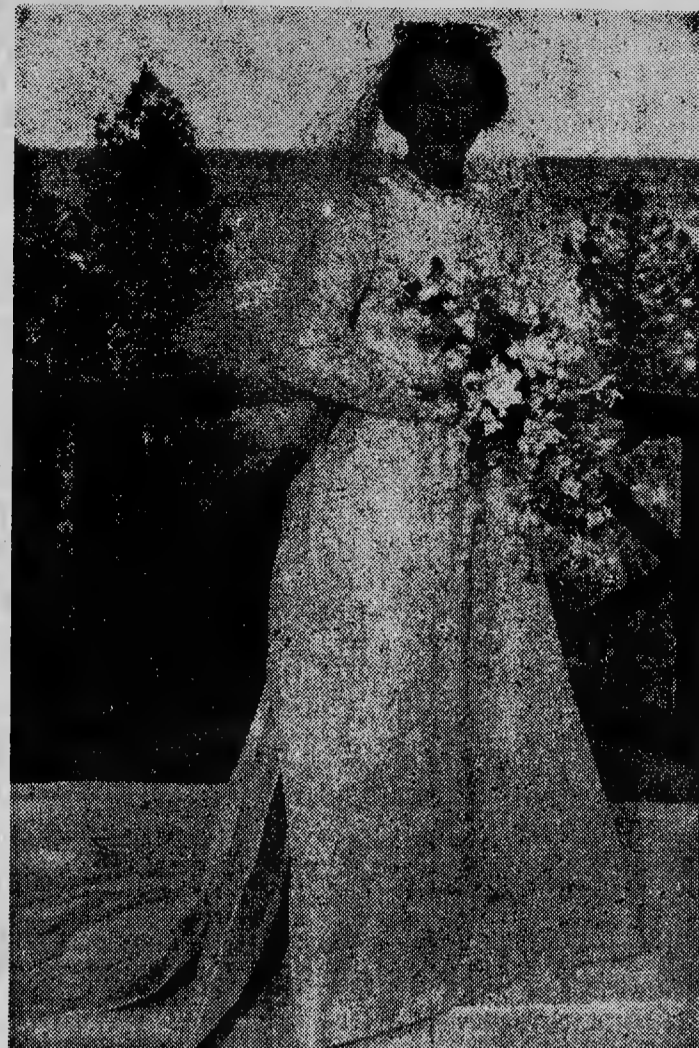

Drove 42 Benevolent Patriotic Order of Does, met in regular session last week and heard an interesting report on the National Convention held at Idaho Falls, Idaho, given by their president, Alma Jones, who was the official delegate. She gave the total attendance as 438 and next year's convention city as Albuquerque, N. Mex.

The new Supreme President, Lillian Tomilson of Ogden, Utah, is to visit here next spring when Southern Pines is hostess to the State meeting.

Melba Busby reported that the Sanatorium committee had visited the children at McCain Sanatorium, taking gifts, toiletries and clothing.

The Fall Festival to be held in September was brought to the attention of members by the chairman, Louise Johnson, and the discussion brought out the fact that members are already engaged in planning their projects.

Mrs. W. H. Thornley and Mrs. Mattie H. Currie, of Charleston, S. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Blue and Mrs. Jean Edson.

MRS. THOMAS JOHN FREDERICK BECKER

OVER 1,000 PEOPLE FROM 43 COUNTRIES ARE PRESENT AT BECKER-DEANE WEDDING

Miss Agnes Carol Deane, daughter of former Congressman and Mrs. Charles B. Deane of Rockingham, became the bride of Thomas John Frederick Becker of London, England on Tuesday, August 6. He is the son of Mrs. John Guise and the late George Becker.

The ceremony uniting this couple followed immediately the marriage of Mr. Becker's sister Jane to Herbert Allen of Seattle, Wash., in a double wedding ceremony.

Over 1,000 people from 43 different countries attending the Moral Re-Armament Assembly of Nations were present at the service, which took place in the Great Hall of the Assembly Center, Mackinac Island, Mich.

The marriage was performed by the Rt. Rev. George West, formerly Bishop of Rangoon, Burma.

Special Guests
Among the chief guests were Dr. Frank N. D. Buchman, initiator of Moral Re-Armament; General Ho Ying-chin, chairman of the Military Strategy Advisory Board of Formosa and former Prime Minister of China; Major General Hayaddin, Pakistan Military Attaché in Washington; six members of the British House of Commons; Prince Castelbarco of Italy, and Senator Shidzuze Kato, member of the Upper House in the Japanese Diet.

H. W. "Sunny" Austin, former British Davis Cup tennis star, gave the address. He spoke of the far-reaching effectiveness of the lives of both the bride and Mr. Becker in many nations and around the world in bringing an answer to Communism and in creating unity at a time when division was on the increase.

Their marriage, he said, because it was based on absolute moral standards would unite not only two people from different nations but would give hope and faith to many.

Mr. Deane gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a long-sleeved gown of white peau de soie. The skirt was straight in front and gathered into a bustle at the back from which two panels fell forming a train. She wore a crown of orange blossoms which held a ballerina-length veil in place. A spray of gardenias, white carnations, and pink roses made up her bouquet.

Mrs. Blanton Belk of Summit, N. J., and Richmond, Va., was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. John Hallward, Montreal, Canada, and Miss Anne Twitchell, New York City. They wore floor-length dresses of lilac-colored organdy over taffeta. The other bridesmaids were Mrs. Anne Howard, London, England, who wore a Greek national costume belonging to her mother's family; Miss Jon van Os, The Hague, who wore a Dutch costume; and Miss Madi Hegetschweiler of St. Gallen, Switzerland, who wore her national costume.

The bridesmaids carried baskets of mauve and pink zinnias, phlox, asters, and baby's breath. The bride's mother wore a gown of aqua lace over taffeta.

Mr. Becker's best man was the bride's brother, Charles Deane, Jr. The ushers were John M. Hallward, Montreal, Canada; Jerome Nelson, Los Angeles, Calif.; Vere C. James, London, England; Saami Contractor, Bombay, India; Ronald Pratt, Melbourne, Australia; and John Hugh Vanes Nowell, Runcorn, England.

Mrs. C. R. Mills Plays For Wedding of Niece At Chapel Hill

Mrs. C. R. Mills went to Chapel Hill last Friday and played for the wedding of her niece, Miss Jane Kelly, and Dr. Thad Monroe, which took place in the Baptist Church there at 5 p. m. Saturday. She returned home Sunday.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollie Olive Kelly of Apex, and Dr. Monroe is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thaddeus Monroe of Fayetteville. They will make their home in Raleigh.

The bride is a graduate of the University of North Carolina with a B.S. degree in nursing. She was formerly employed as a staff nurse in the operating room at N. C. Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill, and will be employed in Raleigh as an instructor with the Department of Nursing Education at State Hospital.

Dr. Monroe is a graduate of Davidson College and the University of North Carolina School of Medicine. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa honorary fraternity, Beta Theta Pi social fraternity, Alpha Omega Alpha honorary medical fraternity, and Phi Chi. He interned at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston and is now a resident on the psychiatry staff at N. C. Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Henry Jones Is Honored At Farewell Parties

Honoring Mrs. Henry Jones, who with her children, Henry, Jr., Jane and Susan, will leave Monday to join Captain Jones in France, Mrs. Irie Leonard, Mrs. Charles Cole, and Mrs. Joe Marley entertained around 25 guests at a Coke party at Mrs. Marley's Friday morning.

Sandwiches, cheese biscuits, cookies and Coke were served and informal conversation was enjoyed.

Mrs. Jones was complimented again on Monday afternoon when Mrs. Victor Sheppard gave a tea for 15 guests.

Wide Fellowship Church School Picnic Set For Wednesday

The annual church school picnic of the Church of Wide Fellowship will be held at Pinebluff Lake next Wednesday. Sandwiches are to be carried by those who attend. Beverage and extras will be furnished by the church school.

Cars will meet at the church at 3:30 p. m. for those who wish to go to the lake for swimming, and it is hoped that many will go at this time. Supper will be at 6 o'clock.

All members of the church and church school are invited to attend.

Dr. Vida McLeod, Injured In Fall, Is Hospital Patient

Dr. Vida McLeod of 265 North Ridge Street, is playing the role of patient at Moore Memorial Hospital, and reports of her progress indicate that she can be a wonderful patient, as well as a wonderful doctor.

Shortly after 2 p. m. Tuesday, Dr. McLeod fell when a rug skidded on a waxed floor in her home. She returned to her office for the afternoon hours, but that evening suffered intense pain. A doctor was called, and she was sent by ambulance to the hospital, where an examination revealed a broken left hip. Surgery was performed the following morning, and the doctor-patient is getting along nicely.

Dr. McLeod's children, Alex, a Duke medical student who is doing research work this summer, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert McLeod of Charleston, S. C., visited her as soon as they learned of the accident, and they will return this weekend for another visit.

Preston Matthews Is Here From Alaska

Preston Matthews of the Anchorage Daily News, Anchorage, Alaska, arrived Tuesday to visit his mother, Mrs. W. D. Matthews. He is the Alaskan delegate to the International Typographical Union convention to be held in New York City August 17-20. He will go to New York Friday, and will return to Southern Pines the middle of next week to spend a few days more before going back to Alaska.

Duplicate Club Lists Winners

Mrs. James Besley and Roy Grinnell were winners in the Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club's play Tuesday night. In second place were Mrs. B. W. Dickinson and Mrs. L. Fetner of Hamlet, and in third, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hall of Fayetteville.

New Heir-rivals

PIERRE T. SPENCER, JR., Mr. and Mrs. Pierre T. Spencer, of 565 East Indiana Avenue, are the parents of a son, Pierre T., Jr., born Thursday, August 8, at St. Joseph's Hospital. They have three daughters, Lee, 10 years of age, Lynn, nine, and Deana, a year and a half.

The Spencers have resided in Southern Pines two years. He was in the service when they moved here. They liked Southern Pines so much that they decided to stay, and have bought a home here. Mr. Spencer is with the Prudential Life Insurance Company.

Over 50 Years!

- For more than half a century we have
- been engaged in the important task of
- compounding your doctor's prescriptions to his specifications.
- It has been our job to compound the
- medicines he prescribes to make you
- well and safeguard your health.
- AND A PLEDGE TO THE FUTURE:
- We shall remain constantly alert to the
- rapid advance of modern medicines;
- Your doctor's prescription will be compounded to the exactness of his order
- when it is placed in our hands.
- Above all, the good health of our community shall be foremost in our minds
- and we shall extend every effort to
- keep it so.

OPEN SUNDAY

Broad Street Pharmacy

SOUTHERN PINES

Your Family Druggist for Over Half a Century
Phone 2-5411 Southern Pines, N. C.