WMU Meets
 The Woman's Missionary Union of Ives Memorial Baptist Church met at the church on Monday evening with nine members and one visitor present. Mrs. Herbert Van Boskerck gave the devotional and program, "Three Knocks In The Night." Mrs. Luther Tyner presided over the business and heard reports from committees and circle chairman. Plans were made for Week of Prayer December 2 through 6 and the annual Christmas party to be on December 16. Mrs. Claude Williams closed the meeting with a prayer.

WCSA Meets
 Mrs. Dorothy Brawley and Mrs. E. H. Mills were hostesses to the Woman's Society of Christian Service Monday evening at the Methodist Church. "Christ On The Campus" was the topic of a program presented by Mrs. James Teal, assisted by Miss Juanita Teal and Mrs. Douglas Morgan.

Circle 2 led in attendance with 15 members present.
 Mrs. Growland McCaskill presided over the business and heard reports. Final plans were made for the bazaar and turkey supper scheduled for Wednesday, November 20.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served refreshments to the 26 members and several visitors present.
Birthday Party
 Tommy Baggett celebrated his second birthday anniversary at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Baggett, last Thursday. Favors of hats and balloons were given the guests, and after Tommy had opened his many gifts Mrs. Baggett served ice cream and birthday cake to the following guests: Dickie and Davie Dixon, Liza and Mike Wylie, Sonya and Kin Anderson, Deborah Sherrill, and Tommy's sister, Joan Baggett.
