By Mrs. T. C. AUMAN
Bride-Elect Honored
 Two former West End High School classmates of Miss Patricia Farmer, Mrs. Albert Blue (Lois Eifort) of High Point and Mrs. Clinton Williams (Geraldine Freeman) of Eagle Springs, honored her at a shower party which brought a number of old friends together at the Williams home Saturday evening.
 Upon arrival Miss Farmer, a bride-elect of December 21, was presented a corsage of white carnations. The bridal theme was used in games and contests, and winners gave their prizes to the honoree, who was later presented a shower of lovely gifts which had been placed in a decorated umbrella.
 The refreshment table held an arrangement of pink snapdragons and fern flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabra. Individual cakes decorated in green and white, nuts and lime ice were served, with Mrs. Blue presiding at the punch bowl. Mrs. Joe Pusser assisted Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Blue in serving the 25 guests.
Family Dinner
 Mr. and Mrs. Harold Markham entertained at a family get-together at their home Thursday, with Mrs. M. L. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Lewis and the North Lewis family as guests. Hunting at Lake Mattamuskeet last week, North Lewis killed two geese and Mrs. Morris prepared these as a special dish for the Thanksgiving dinner, which all enjoyed.
