News and Personals from Vass

Bessie Cameron Smith, Representative — Telephone Vass 2177

Guest Speaker
"Social Security Benefits" will be the topic of the program when the Vass Woman's Club meets at 7:30 Friday night, January 10, at the home of Mrs. R. G. Rosser, with Mrs. H. A. Borst as associate hostess. There will be a guest speaker from the Fayetteville Social Security office.

Mrs. E. L. Finch, chairman of the Public Affairs department, is in charge of the program.

Double Header
Vass-Lakeview girls and boys won a basketball doubleheader from Farm Life Friday night, the girls winning by a score of 55 to 30, and the boys, 59 to 46.

Girls Sponsor Dance
The Senior Girl Scout troop sponsored a New Year's Eve dance at the Vass community house, which was attended by around 30 young people.

Special contests added interest to the evening's entertainment. A brother-sister team, Joe and Ann Edwards, won in the pop contest, and Bonnie Callahan of Vass and Barbara Thomas of Carthage won in ballroom dancing. Boxes of candy were given as prizes.

Dinner Party
Mr. and Mrs. Cortis Thomas entertained seven couples at their home near Vass. Turkey, ham, and all the trimmings were included in the menu. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Edwards, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bud Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mullinix, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Edwards, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. McMillan.

Popes Entertain

PLANTING TIME

Any time between now and the last of March is a good time to finish transplanting shrubs and shade trees. Pick out a day when the soil isn't too wet. If plants arrive when the soil is wet or frozen, keep them outdoors, open the package and pile soil, sawdust or sand around the roots and keep this moist until they can be planted, advises the State College Extension Service.
