5 Cases Heard In Short Court Session Jan. 18

Five cases were heard by Judge J. Vance Rowe in a short session of Moore County Recorder's Court held Saturday morning, January 18. No session of the court was held the following Monday, nor on Monday of this week, because of the Superior Court terms in Carthage.

The cases were:
 John Darnell, Alexandria, Va., non-support of wife and five children, warrant amended to charge also assault on wife, six months suspended on payment of costs, and $30 per week toward support of family, with good behavior bond filed with clerk of court to guarantee payments for two-year period; defendant to stay away from premises of father-in-law unless invited in writing.

Raymond Holt, motion to reduce payments, costs of this motion and hearing to be taxed against defendant.

Luther McKeithen, Vass, assault, assault with deadly weapon, threats, etc., judgment continued on payment of costs and on good behavior conditions toward wife during next 12 months.

James Poe, Aberdeen, threats with deadly weapon, drunkenness, continued indefinitely on condition he be of good behavior toward wife.

John C. Baxley, Carthage, route 2, assault on wife, malicious destruction of personal property, judgment continued for 12 months on payment of costs, on condition he be of good behavior toward wife, and be and remain sober and not come home while in an intoxicated condition.

Even though curb markets are sponsored by home demonstration organizations in each county where they are located, anyone who is willing to abide by the rules and regulations as set up by the sellers can sell on the market.

West Southern Pines School News

Wins Award
 Thomasene Davis, a member of the senior class, has won the local Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow award.

She received the highest score in a written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes, administered December 3 to senior girls in the graduating class. Her examination paper will be entered in competition to name this state's candidate for the title of All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow and will also be considered for the runnerup award in the state. For her achievement she will receive an award pin designed by Trifari of New York.

General Mills is sponsor of the program designed to assist schools in education for home and family living.

Wilson Appointed Principal
 Dr. A. C. Dawson, superintendent of the Southern Pines city schools system, announced recently at a faculty meeting that the acting principal, H. A. Wilson, has been appointed principal by the board of education.

Mr. Wilson joined the faculty at West Southern Pines school 12 years ago. He is a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte.

Double Win
 The local basketballers journeyed to Laurel Hill Tuesday night and brought back a double victory over Carver High School.

With only five remaining seconds in the game and a tied score, forward Madelyn Moore pumped in a two pointer to give W. Southern Pines a 41-39 victory.

It appeared that the game was destined to an overtime play-off until the locals' ball hawk, Jean

Gore, intercepted a Laurel Hill pass.

Led by forward Charles Parson, the Yellowjackets avenged an early setback at the hands of Laurel Hill by downing them 59-49 in an important Class A game.

The locals' tight defense and fast breaking offensive pattern proved too much for Coach "Goldie" Jones' cagers, who surrendered their first home loss of the season.

Parson, with 19 points, was followed by Alexander Lloyd, with 16 points and 18 rebounds, and Victor Headen with 12 points, in rejoining his teammates after being
