

Women's Activities and Sandhills Social Events

BESSIE CAMERON SMITH, Editor

TELEPHONE 2-6512

Mrs. James Douglas Is Chosen To Head Civic Garden Club

Mrs. James Douglas was elected president of the Civic Garden Club at its annual meeting held last Thursday in the club house, at which committee reports indicating a successful year were heard. Mrs. L. W. Fitch, president, conducted the meeting.

Other officers elected were: Mrs. J. D. Sitterson, vice-president; Miss Norma Shiring, secretary; Mrs. James Ratliff, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. R. S. DuRant, treasurer.

The club has more spring plants for sale, it was announced, and these can be purchased by contacting Mrs. Douglas, OX5-7395.

A picnic meeting at the House in the Horseshoe on May 1 was planned and details may be learned by contacting Miss Helen Butler.

The club presented a gift to the retiring president, Mrs. Fitch, in appreciation of her loyal leadership.

A social hour with tea and other refreshments followed.

Church of Wide Fellowship Notes

The Woman's Society of the Church of Wide Fellowship was represented by Miss Lilla Lee Annis, Mrs. E. Donaldson, Mrs. J. I. Neal, Misses Hazel and Norma Shiring, Mrs. Carl Wallace and Mrs. E. V. Walker at the Spring Rally of the Women's Fellowship, Sanford Division, held at Mt. Pleasant Church Tuesday.

As the pastor, the Rev. Carl Wallace, will be at Moonelon next Sunday, helping in the Church Vacation Retreat for young people, the Rev. Fred Register, secretary of Stewardship and Evangelism for the Southern Convention, will be guest minister at the 11 o'clock service.

The April Church Night covered dish dinner will be held in the fellowship hall at 6:30 o'clock next Wednesday evening. The Friendship Circle will be the hostess group.

CHURCH CEREMONY AT PINEHURST UNITES MISS MARIETTA JOLLIFF, MR. GARRETT

Miss Marietta Jolliff became the bride of Charles Monroe Garrett in an afternoon ceremony last Friday, April 4, at the Pinehurst Community Church, with the pastor, the Rev. Roscoe L. Prince, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. John C. Jolliff and the late Mr. Jolliff of Belvedere. The bridegroom is the son of D. Gentry Garrett, Sr., and the late Mrs. Garrett of Rockingham. Both are members of the Pinehurst School faculty.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Richard Knight, organist, and Mrs. Roscoe L. Prince, vocalist, presented a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Prince sang "With This Ring," "O Perfect Love," and "When I Have Sung My Song."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Guthrie Jolliff of Buxton, wore a waltz-length gown of ice blue silk overlaid with beige lace. Her shoulder-length veil was attached to a pearl tiara and she carried a white Bible, topped with white orchids with purple and yellow throats.

Mrs. Rollo White of Belvedere was matron of honor, wearing a street-length dress of pink linen. Her bouquet was of mixed spring flowers.

D. Gentry Garrett, Jr., of Rockingham attended his brother as best man.

In lieu of a reception, a cake cutting was held Thursday evening at the groom's Cloverleaf Annex apartment in Pinehurst, with the wedding party and out-of-town guests attending. After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in the Colverleaf Annex.

Mrs. Garrett attended Louisville College at Louisville and was graduated from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina in Greensboro.

Mr. Garrett attended Wingate College at Wingate and received his degree from Wake Forest College.

Jr. Woman's Club Hears Program on Carpet Industry

Members of the Junior Woman's Club of Southern Pines gained first hand knowledge of an important Sandhills industry—the manufacture of Gullstrand carpet—from two executives of A. & M. Karagheusian, Inc., Cecil Beith and Edward McCarthy, at their monthly meeting Tuesday night at the Civic Club.

Mrs. Stanley Austin, vice-president, was in charge of the program and introduced the guests. Mr. Beith told about the various kinds of carpeting made by the company and they showed a film of every process from start to finished product. Samples of carpet made at Aberdeen were on display and received enthusiastic admiration from the club members.

Mrs. Joe Marley, the president, conducted the business session, during which plans were made for holding a bake sale on Friday, the 18th, at the Jefferson Inn.

Mrs. R. S. Trudell, Mrs. Joe Carter and Mrs. Stanley Austin were hostesses.

Mrs. Gordon-Mann Entertains Friday For Miss Chester

Mrs. Edward Gordon-Mann is entertaining tomorrow (Friday) at a kitchen shower for Miss Carolyn Chester, bride-elect, and she will be assisted by her daughters, Misses Gabrielle and Patti Gordon-Mann.

Guests will be the honoree and her mother, Mrs. P. J. Chester; their visitor, Mrs. S. H. Phillips of Richmond, Va.; Miss Penelope Dana, Mrs. Bruce Warlick, Mrs. Harrell Johnson, Miss Tirzah Ison, Miss Sally Cowles, Miss Katherine Childs, Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, Mrs. Voit Gilmore, Mrs. D. B. Nettleton, Mrs. J. R. Shamburger.

Also, Mrs. A. C. Dawson, Mrs. Don Traylor, Jr., Mrs. Charles Phillips, Miss Mary Corbin of London, England, guest of Mrs. F. B. Howland, Mrs. Louise Bowman, Mrs. Mildred Merrill, and Mrs. Garland Pierce.

Magnolia Chapter, OES, Honors Memory of Mrs. Dorcas R. Mills

Magnolia Chapter 26, OES, has adopted the following resolutions:

MRS. DORCAS R. MILLS
Whereas it has pleased Almighty God, in his infinite wisdom and mercy, to call from the toil of this earthly life to her eternal reward our friend and our own Sister, Dorcas R. Mills:

Whereas we feel that in her passing her family has lost a devoted wife and mother, Magnolia Chapter, No. 26, has lost a faithful member. Therefore, it is fitting that we pay sweet and lasting tribute to our loved and departed Sister, who so faithfully and honorably lived up to the principles and obligations of our Order. It may well be said:

"She was a friend whose heart was good,
Who walked with her Sisters and Brothers and understood
Hers was a smile everyone loved to see,
Hers was a hand that asked no fee
For friendliness or kindness done;
And now that she has journeyed on,
Hers is a fame that never ends
She leaves behind uncounted friends."

"Be it therefore, resolved:
That we, the members of Magnolia Chapter No. 26 are grateful for the privilege of fellowship with her who endeared herself to others by the beauty of her noble character.

"Second, we extend to her family our sincere sympathy in their bereavement and say, 'Not now, but in the coming years we may understand.'

"Be it also resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, a copy entered in the minutes of our Chapter, and a copy sent to The Pilot for publication."

The resolutions were submitted by a committee composed of Past Matrons Vera Sitterson, Kathleen Woolley and Ruth McRae.

Miss Julia Weaver, who was a patient at Moore Memorial Hospital for two weeks, resumed her duties at Mrs. Hayes Shop on Tuesday.

MISS BLANCHE EAKIN

MRS. ETHEL DONALDSON

MRS. PEARL STANLEY

District Convention of Woodmen Circle Will Be Held Here April 16; Several National Officers Expected

Plans are now being completed for a convention of the South Eastern North Carolina District of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle to be held in Southern Pines next Wednesday, April 16. The South Eastern is one of five districts in the State.

Dogwood Grove No. 253 will be hostess to the meeting at the Southern Pines Country Club. Mrs. Cornelia Pritchett of Raeford is district president.

Registration will begin at 5:30 p. m. A banquet is scheduled for 6:30 p. m. and the meeting for 8 o'clock. Around 100 women are expected to attend.

Mrs. Ethel M. Donaldson, state manager and national committee-woman, of Charlotte, will be toastmistress at the dinner. Mrs. Graham Culbreth will bring greetings from Southern Pines, and Mrs. Jayne Campbell, state chaplain, of Raeford will give the invocation.

A song about the Woodmen Circle, composed by State President Mary Scott Newton of Southern Pines, will be sung by Southern Pines members.

Drill teams from Raeford, Lumberton and Southern Pines will participate in the convention.

Other officers planning to attend include Miss Blanche Eakin, national first vice-president, of Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Lue Morehead, national representative, of Shelby; Mrs. Pearl Stanley, national alternate representative, of Wilmington, Mrs. Georgia Shepard, manager of the Atlantic Coastal District, Jacksonville; and Mrs. Katie Bell Newkirk, state junior director, of Wilmington.

Miss Newton is in charge of local arrangements for the convention. Other committee members are Mrs. Amelia Crain, Mrs. Lois Snipes and Mrs. Florence Perham.

EXHIBITS FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES TO BE DISPLAYED ON WORLD CRUISE NIGHT

Several added attractions are announced for World Cruise Night, Thursday, April 17, at the Pinehurst Country Club, when the Shearwood Travel Service will present a special motion picture in sound and color of the great world cruise of the Cunard luxury liner, the S.S. Caronia.

Indonesia, much in the world news these days, will be represented by a special display of exhibits, and there will be another exhibit from South Africa. It is anticipated that Japan, India, and possibly other countries which will figure in the screen entertainment will also send displays. A model of the Caronia will be a feature of the evening's show, according to Capt. George F. Shearwood, who will introduce the picture and who adds that the audience will have the opportunity to sample the Caronia's 108-day cruise in 56 minutes.

Of special local interest is the fact that three Pinehurst winter residents were on the cruise to be shown, while two others are on the current version of the cruise. While the picture is being shown the Caronia, with Mrs. C. Louis Meyer of Pinehurst, and Mrs. Kenneth B. Trousdell, former Southern Pines resident, on board, will be in mid-Pacific, and the cruisers will have the experience of living a 48-hour long Thursday, April 17, as they cross the International Date Line, to catch up with western hemisphere time again.

The show will follow the regular Thursday evening buffet supper of the Country Club and is timed for 8:45 p. m.

Reservations for the buffet supper preceding the show should be made by calling CY 4-4611. Harmon Hagenbuckle states that for this occasion the buffet supper will begin at 6:30 p. m. as an especially big turnout is indicated.

Baptist Circles Hold Meetings

Circle 3 of the Baptist Missionary Society met Tuesday night with Mrs. Henry Dunn, with Mrs. Edward Koshak as co-hostess. Mrs. Dunn led the devotions and Mrs. James Ratliff was in charge of the program. There were 14 present, including two new members, Mrs. Evelyn Knight and Mrs. F. E. Underwood.

Mrs. Leon Seymour was hostess to Circle 5 Tuesday with 11 present. Mrs. Norman Caudle was a guest. Mrs. Thomas Howerton led the devotions and the program.

Duplicate Club Has Master Point Night

Tuesday was master point night for the Sandhills Duplicate Bridge Club, and five tables turned out for the game at the Southern Pines Country Club. Winners were Mrs. B. W. Dickinson and Mrs. Elizabeth Hogan of Hamlet.

Miss Katherine Wiley and Mrs. C. H. Bowman placed second; Mrs. Roy Grinnell and Mrs. Jean Edson, third; and Col. F. N. Oettinger and Capt. Wayne G. Barker, Fort Bragg, fourth.

A refreshment period was enjoyed.

Bird Club Sees Interesting Sights On Lakeview Trip

Ten members of the Bird Club and a guest went to Lakeview last Thursday and saw 39 species of birds during the morning. Perhaps the most interesting were a great blue heron, flapping over the lake, and many purple martins nesting in gay pottery jars put up for them near Highway 1, whose traffic did not appear to disturb them.

Anyone who wishes to join the group on weekly trips is welcome to do so. Newcomers may telephone Oxford 2-7881.

Shaw House Hostesses For Next Week Named

The following members of the Junior Woman's Club of Southern Pines will serve as hostesses at the Shaw House next week, according to the following schedule.

Monday—Mrs. Norris L. Hodgkins, Jr., Mrs. J. H. Carter, Jr., Mrs. Charles P. Cole, and Mrs. Irie Leonard.

Tuesday—Mrs. Vance Derby, Mrs. Lynn R. Warren, Mrs. John Jones, and Mrs. Luther Lewis.

Wednesday—Mrs. Raymond Griffin, Mrs. Roger Gibbs, and Mrs. Donald Denoff.

Thursday—Mrs. William J. Graham, Jr., Mrs. Cheves Ligon, Mrs. Ted Klingenschmidt, and Mrs. William Shore.

Friday—Mrs. Maynard Mangum, Mrs. Joseph P. Marley, Mrs. Austin H. Sauls, and Mrs. John W. Langford, Jr.

Saturday—Mrs. W. Murray Clark, Mrs. Gordon Echols, Mrs. Norman B. Caudle, and Mrs. Thomas S. Craven.

Dogwood Grove Holds Rehearsal

Dogwood Grove No. 253 of the Supreme Forest Woodmen circle met Wednesday night of last week for regular meeting and special drill team rehearsal in preparation for the district convention to be held at the Southern Pines Country Club on April 16.

Those serving on various convention committees are Mrs. Florence Perham and Mrs. Stella Hornaday, registration; Mrs. Theodosia Bailey, banquet tickets; and Mrs. Lois Snipes, in charge of prize tickets. The decorating committee is composed of Mrs. Raywill Pearce, Mrs. Hornaday, Mrs. Perham and Miss Mary Scott Newton.

The Southern Pines Drill Team, "The Dogwoodettes," will be responsible for the floor work during the initiation ceremony.

Refreshments of cupcakes, potato chips, candy and cold drinks were furnished by the hostesses, Mrs. Lola Palmer and Mrs. Eliza McDonald.

Hollywood Club Lists Winners

The Hollywood Bridge Club, meeting Tuesday at the hotel whose name it bears, spent a delightful afternoon at play. Winners were Mrs. F. Thompson, Mrs. F. M. Trimble, Mrs. M. Barnes, and Mrs. Rene deMilhau.

Local Girl Elected Duke Dorm President

Willene Catherine Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Davis of "Sandavis" here, has been elected president of her dormitory, Aycock House at Duke University's Woman's College.

In addition to her duties as House president, she will also serve on the council of the Woman's Student Government Association.

Miss Davis, a rising senior, has served as Aycock House's representative to the campus Judicial Board during the past year. She is a member of Sandals, sophomore honorary leadership society, and Pi Beta Phi social sorority.

New Heir-Rivals

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Tew of Southern Pines are the parents of a daughter, Katherine Marie, born Thursday, March 27, at Moore Memorial Hospital weighing seven pounds, six ounces. Their other children are Jimmy, Elizabeth and Danny.

BABY BREWER
Mr. and Mrs. Bion Brewer of Raeford are the parents of a son, born Wednesday, April 9, at Moore Memorial Hospital weighing nine pounds. They have two other children, Suzanne, about four, and Joseph Bion, two years old.

Miss Barbara Guin of Charlotte spent the Easter weekend here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Guin.

Announcing The Opening
DIXIE INN DINING ROOM
VASS, N. C.
SUNDAY EVENING
Three Meals Served Week-Days
AL SOLOMON, in charge

COMPATIBLE
RED!

Hat by Lilly Daché

THE NEWEST... TRUEST... RED THIS SPRING
BURSTS INTO FAME...
AND CREATED IT!

Premiere Special
Full-size Coty "24" lipstick in brilliant new Compatible Red plus full-size Coty "Air-Spun" Face Powder. $7 plus tax. Both only $2.95.

*INSPIRED BY RCA VICTOR COMPATIBLE COLOR TV
Coty "Air-Spun" Face Powder in 4 world-famous fragrances:
L'Origan • L'Aiment • Emeraude • "Paris"

OPEN SUNDAY
Come See the New Spring Look at
Sandhill Drug Company
Southern Pines

Agnes Dorothy Beauty Shop
is pleased to announce that EDITH SWOOPE
is now a member of the staff and is available for appointments

Agnes Dorothy Beauty Shop
Helen Johnson - "Red" Parsley - Edith Swoope
Ph. OX 2-2701 SOUTHERN PINES

GAY GIBSON
hints sheer witchery

Soft floating voile leads the way to gaiety. Draped V front above a full, full skirt. The matching satin belt adds a touch of elegance. Black, Caribbean coral, beige. Sizes 5-15—$17.95.

Mrs. Hayes Shop
SOUTHERN PINES, N. C.