AIRMAN WILSON OF WEST END TAKES BRIDE IN FLORIDA GARDEN CEREMONY

In a garden ceremony solemnized at 7 p. m. Sunday at the home of the bride in Tampa, Fla., Miss Mary Virginia Mackintosh exchanged wedding vows with David Michael Wilson. The Rev. Hogan Yancey, Jr., of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church, St. Petersburg, officiated in front of a large white arch lighted by cathedral candelabra. Baskets of white chrysanthemums and California asters flanked the kneeling bench.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Mackintosh, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Wilson of West End.

Mr. Mackintosh gave his daughter in marriage. Her formal gown of imported Chantilly lace over bridal satin was styled with a molded bodice trimmed with pearls, and a sabrina neckline, highlighted by sequin trim. The bouffant skirt was enhanced with lace over crystal pleated back-tiers, and featured a front net panel appliqued with lace motifs. Her fingertip veil of pure silk illusion floated from a queen's crown of iridescent sequins and pearls. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations, stephanotis, and valley lilies, centered with white orchids.

Mrs. Alfred Foster was her sister's only attendant. She was attired in a terrace length dress of pastel blue over whisper taffeta.

The strapless fitted bodice was covered by a matching stole. Matching accessories complemented the ensemble. She carried a cascade of white feathered carnations and blue pompons. Alfred Foster, brother-in-law of the bride, served as best man. Sam Ansley and Jeff Nisley were ushers.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Mary Heaton, pianist.

A reception was held, after the nuptials, on the terrace of the bride's home. A large tiered wedding cake, flanked by silver candelabra holding burning tapers, centered the bride's table, which was overlaid with an imported cut-work cloth. Other appointments were in silver.

When the couple left on a honeymoon trip, Mrs. Wilson was wearing a brown and white wool dress, with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride, a native of Shreveport, La., is a graduate of Plant High School. She attended the University of Tampa and is an employee of the First National Bank of Tampa. The groom was graduated from West End High School and attended East Carolina College, Greenville, N. C. He is with the Air Force, stationed at MacDill Field.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will make their home at 1503 Marti, Tampa, after two weeks.

PROGRAM OF EARLY AMERICAN MUSIC DELIGHTS ALFRED MOORE DAR CHAPTER

Early American Music was the program topic when the Alfred Moore Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held its monthly meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. E. Wilkins in Sanford. Mrs. D. E. Henderson, who has done much research along this line, was the speaker and she delighted her hearers with numerous selections which she sang, playing her accompaniments on an autoharp. One of her numbers was the popular-in-days-gone-by "Go Tell Aunt Patsy Her Old Gray Goose Is Dead." Older folk remember well that it was the "one she'd been saving to make a feather bed."

Mrs. Henderson was introduced by Mrs. Wilkins, who as regent also presided over the business session.

CIVIC CLUB OPENS SEON ON MONDAY WITH LUNCHEON ANIALK ON SUMATRA

The Civic Club had a delightful covered dish luncheon to start the season Monday, and many members and friends filled the room, sitting at small tables. After serving themselves buffet-style, the officers of the Civic Club for the year are: president, Mrs. O. A. Speight; 1st vice-president, Mrs. R. M. Cushman; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. F. A. Speight, chairman of the Program Committee, introducing C. S. Lassiter, of South Carolina Day; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Thomas Hobson; treasurer, Mrs. L. W. Fitch; and Standard Oil Company. He mentioned the island's variety of scenery, its lowlands, its mountains where the wild tribes live, and its cities, which have a Western atmosphere. The oil, he said, is mostly in the southern part of the island and there are large unoccupied areas.

Mr. Lassiter spoke of the artistic ability of the natives in making batiks which they wear wrapped around their waists for skirts. Now the country is a republic, the rule by natives, the speaker intimated, not as good as when foreign had control.

The speaker's hearers showed much interest and appreciation. In charge of the luncheon was the Hospitality Committee, composed of Mrs. Donald Case, chairman, Mrs. Thomas Hobson, Mrs. Charles Loup, Mrs. Vir-ginal Page Clark, Mrs. Marvin R. Cornell, Mrs. Carl Foss, Mrs. Harry Menzel, Mrs. W. O. Spence, Mrs. Wade Stevick, and Mrs. Carl Wallace.
