

St. Anthony's Charity Ball To Be Held Dec. 9

The second annual Charity Ball of St. Anthony's Church will be held December 9 at the National Guard Armory, Mrs. Dante Montesanti, general chairman, announced today.

Dean Hudson and his orchestra, which provided music last year, will return, Mrs. Montesanti said, and perform from 9 o'clock until 1 o'clock. Mrs. Donald Denoff is chairman of the decorating committee.

The ball is held to raise funds for parish work and is one of the principal efforts along those lines made by church members.

The Hudson orchestra will, in addition to providing dance music, stage several production numbers, contests and other extras.

Concert Planned At Presbyterian Junior College

Dr. Charles O. Vardell, Jr., Dean of the Conservatory of Music at Flora Macdonald College in Red Springs, will be presented in a concert at Presbyterian Junior College in Maxton tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock.

The program is under the sponsorship of the Glee Club of PJC as a public service. It is the first of a series of four evenings of music planned for the session at the college. Other programs will include members of the Conservatory of Music at Flora Macdonald in a concert December 12, a Glee Club concert in the spring, and another program as yet unannounced.

Starview Drive-In To Begin Winter Dates

The Starview Drive-In Theatre begins its winter schedule tomorrow (Friday), according to C. A. Huntley, manager.

The theatre, which is located on US Highway 1 between Southern Pines and Aberdeen, will be open only on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays until next spring.

SUNRISE THEATRES

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday MGM presents a distinguished attraction in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," filmization of the Tennessee Williams stage hit, which won both the Pulitzer Prize and the New York Drama Critics Award.

Elizabeth Taylor, in her first role since her Academy Award nomination for "Raintree County," and Paul Newman, one of the screen's most popular younger stars, portray the wife and husband on the verge of a marital crack-up, with the ace cast also starring Burl Ives, Jack Carson and Judith Anderson, with Madeleine Sherwood.

Both Ives and Miss Sherwood recreate their original Broadway stage roles of the Williams drama; Ives as Big Daddy, the rich Delta plantation owner, Miss Sherwood as Mae, the avaricious daughter-in-law married to Carson. Judith Anderson, one of the stage and screen's outstanding actresses, plays Big Mama, whose arch of the family never wavers. "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" tells the story of a divided family and the conflict between its members when they are faced with the impending death of the father. The crisis brings to the surface the innate character of the two sons and their wives, revealing in one instance greed and opportunism; in the other unselfishness and devotion.
