

Heart Ailment Claims Father Of W. C. Darden

W. A. Darden, 65, of Greenville, father of W. C. Darden of Southern Pines, died last Thursday night of a heart attack. Funeral services were held Saturday morning at the Wilkerson Funeral Home and burial was in Greenwood cemetery at Greenville.

Surviving are his wife; three sons, Bert Darden of Charlotte and Harper Darden of Richmond, in addition to W. C. of Southern Pines; six grandchildren, and a brother, Fred Darden, of Farmville.

Mr. Darden had visited in Southern Pines a number of times. On a visit in January he became ill and spent three weeks at Moore Memorial Hospital.

The local son and daughter-in-law with their children, Patricia, Linda and Bill, went to Greenville Friday and remained until Sunday.

Grandmother Of Mrs. VanderVoort Dies

Mrs. Nettie Chadwick Davis, 88, wife of the late A. F. Davis of Davis, died Wednesday morning, April 15, following an illness of 10 days.

The family is one of Carteret County's oldest and most historic. "Miz Nettie," as she was affectionately called by her multitude of friends throughout the county, was one to whom everyone turned for help and encouragement.

The Rev. James Womble, pastor of the Davis Memorial Baptist Church, and the Rev. Van Klyve officiated and burial was in the family cemetery. The grave was banked with lovely floral tributes and many out-of-state relatives and friends attended the rites.

Among the survivors are her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Medlin of Aberdeen, and granddaughter, Mrs. C. R. VanderVoort of Southern Pines.

Maybe you've no intention of ever being a hero—but you can save a life by careful, considerate driving.
