Several From This County Are Recent Recruits In Army

Sergeant Paul H. Hawks, the local Army recruiter, announced this week the names of several young men from this area who have recently joined the US Army.

Harold W. Williams, Route 3, Carthage selected assignment to the Army's artillery radar maintenance course at Ft. Sill, Okla. He is a graduate of Pinkney High School and recently completed four years with the Navy.

Walter Audry Cameron, Route 2, Cameron, selected a special assignment in the Army. He graduated from Benhaven High School in June of 1958 and was employed by Watson Specialty Company in Jonesboro Heights before enlisting.

Ralph A. Anderson, Route 1, Jackson Springs, reenlisted in the Regular Army unassigned. He was employed by Roberts Company in Sanford and was a 13 year veteran of Army service in World War 2 and during the Korean War.

Claude Reams, Jr., of 650 E. Mass. Ave. Southern Pines, enlisted in the US Army Reserves for six years. He is a 1956 graduate of Southern Pines High School and attended the University of Virginia before entering the Army for 24 months of active duty.

Sergeant Hawks asks interested young men in the Moore County area to see him Thursday at the Southern Pines Post Office from 9 a. m. to noon, and at the Carthage Post Office from 1 p. m. to 4:30 p. m. His office is located at 234 Carthage Street in Sanford.
