

Worth Fund Has Big Increase In Net Asset Value

R. L. Huffines, Jr., president of Worth Fund, Inc., announced at a stockholders meeting yesterday that the net asset value per share had increased 62 per cent in the period from June 30, 1958, to May 31, 1959.

"This is the best record of appreciation in asset value of any fund whose figures were available to me," he said.

The fund, which was marketed here by Thomas Darst of Cherokee Securities, Inc., was established primarily for investments in the textile field. There are many local subscribers.

At the meeting in New York the stockholders approved a change in the investment policy of the fund to permit more flexibility in investments within a single industry, approved establishing daily prices on the offerings of the fund's shares based on the net asset value as computed each day; and approved the authority of the Board of Directors to call for tenders this year on 10 per cent of the outstanding shares.

Among new directors elected were Lewis C. Burwell, Jr., of Pinehurst, and Huffines, who was also re-elected Chairman of the Board and President.

Funeral Services Friday For Mrs. Courtney C. Moore

Mrs. Courtney Coburn Moore, 74, died Wednesday at Moore Memorial Hospital. Funeral services will be held Friday at 4 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. Maynard Mangum, pastor. Burial will be in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

A native of Jamesville, she moved to Southern Pines in 1920 with her husband, W. A. Moore, who survives. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in February.

Also surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Mildred Merrill, Southern Pines; Mrs. D. T. Read, Plymouth, and Mrs. John E. Daniel, Union City, N. J.; one son, W. P. Moore of Raleigh, and three grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

Soldier Who Beat Constable Escapes From Prison Camp

Word was received by Moore County Sheriff Wendell B. Kelly this week that John Geniting, who was serving an 18 months sentence for the assault of a Cameron constable, has escaped from a prison camp near Murphy in Cherokee County.

Geniting, who was stationed at Fort Bragg at the time he beat Constable Lester Wood, was convicted in Moore Superior Court in January. He beat Wood, according to the trial testimony, after being arrested near Vass. He was arrested several days later at Fort Bragg.

Travel Council Plans Summer Meeting At Beach

The North Carolina Travel Council will hold its summer meeting at Carolina Beach July 15-16, according to Glenn Tucker, president.

Tucker, who is also mayor of Carolina Beach, has invited anyone in the travel industry to attend the meeting. The organization, the only one representing all segments of the travel industry on a state-wide basis, will headquarter at the Bame Hotel for the meeting.

Voit Gilmore of Southern Pines is immediate past president.
