

MRS. GEORGE FREDERICK MOORE

Agnes Lavinia McLean Is Wed To George F. Moore Of Binghamton

In a 4 o'clock double ring ceremony held here June 13, in the Trinity A.M.E. Zion Church, Miss Agnes Lavinia McLean became the bride of George Frederick Moore of Binghamton, N. Y. The Rev. J. G. Flowers officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nora McLean Jackson, of Southern Pines, and Mr. Mitchell McLean of Philadelphia.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mitchell McLean, Jr., of Philadelphia, the bride wore a gown of white nylon tulle and chantilly lace over satin. The bouffant tulle skirt with bands of lace ended in a cathedral train. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and a white orchid.

Miss Helen V. McLean, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length gown of pale green taffeta and carried green carnations. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Mary McLean Townes, sister of the bride, of Durham, N. C.; Mrs. Grace F. Lee of Southern Pines, Mrs. Doris M. Taylor, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Eleanor Hamm of Baltimore, Md. Their dresses were pink and they carried pink carnations.

J. C. Hasty, organist, and Albert Lutz, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. Emilie M. Townes, niece of the bride, and Theresa Lee served as flower girls and Charles Henry Clark as ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a dress of mauve lace and chiffon; the mother of the groom was dressed in beige.

Mr. Moore had as his best man Joseph Wilson of Binghamton. Ushers were J. Rochelle Small, J. V. Gordan, Jr., and P. I. York of Southern Pines, and Leslie Green and Joe Taylor of Binghamton.

For traveling the bride wore a princess dress of navy blue linen with white accessories. Mrs. Moore is a graduate of Cortes Peters Business College of Baltimore, Md. She is employed as a private secretary.

Mr. Moore attended New England School of Art, Syracuse University, and the University of Hawaii. He is employed as a commercial artist for International Business Machines Corp. in Oswego, N. Y.

Following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained at a garden reception. After the wedding trip to New York City and Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Moore will make their home in Binghamton, N. Y.

at her home on Sunset Drive, honoring Miss Rose Miller, bride-elect, and her attendants.

Covers were laid for eight guests at a beautifully appointed table. Miss Miller's place was marked by a gift of silver in her chosen pattern.

Miss Brown Is Wed to Lt. Cowell

The First Presbyterian Church was the setting Sunday afternoon for the wedding of Miss Barbara Hope Brown and Lt. (i.g.) George Leaman Cowell Jr.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Hope Brown, the bride is a member of the English Department of Princess Anne High School, Lynnhaven, Va. She is a graduate of Peace Junior College and the University of North Carolina, where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Leaman Cowell of Belpre, Ohio. He was graduated from Marietta College, where he was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity and Omicron Delta Kappa honorary fraternity. He is now Special Services Officer at Virginia Beach, Va.

The Rev. Bernard E. Dotson officiated and music was presented by Mrs. L. R. Suggs, organist, and John R. Kelly, Jr. vocalist.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. The bridal gown was a family dress of white faille taffeta. A Juliet cap of Chantilly lace held her fingertip veil, and the bride carried a cascade of white bridal roses and baby's breath, centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Carl Meroney of Rutherfordon was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length dress of white silk sheer with aqua print and a picture hat of aqua sheer braid. She carried a nosegay of painted daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Modie of Marietta, Ohio, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Shirley McArthur of Carthage, Mrs. C. D. Gaskins of Charlotte, and Mrs. L. M. Barnes, III, of Rocky Mount. Miss Marian Elaine Brown, sister of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid.

Lloyd D. Cowell of Belpre, Ohio, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Richard S. Brown, Robert Modie, of Marietta, Ohio, James E. Cunningham of Belpre, Ohio, William D. Frischeimer of Coraopolis, Pa., Donald J. McCool of Parkersburg, W. Va., and James E. Poth of Norwalk, Ohio.

The parents of the bride entertained at a reception at the church following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip to the mountains of North Carolina, the couple will make their home at Virginia Beach, Va.

Pre-Nuptial Courtships

Mrs. A. G. Gaskins, Mrs. Carl Meroney and Mrs. B. C. Wallace were hostesses Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at a wedding breakfast for the Cowell-Brown wedding party and out of town guests, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Lane in Brooklyn.

Following the Cowell-Brown wedding rehearsal Saturday night, Mrs. Lee Wheeden and Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Traynham, grandmother, uncle and aunt of the bride, entertained the wedding party at a cake cutting at Mrs. J. M. Lane's home.

The home was decorated with pink flowers, and the pink motif was carried out on the bride's table, centered with an arrangement of pink flowers, flanked by silver candelabra, holding pink candles. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, was served by Mrs. Raymond Cole, aunt of the bride, after the first slice was cut by the bride, Mrs. G. L. Cowell of Belpre, Ohio, poured punch. Around 50 attended.
