

KIWANIS REMAINS SPONSOR

Plans Made for Picquet Music Festival For School Glee Clubs in Moore County

Dr. Arnold E. Hoffman, adviser in music education from the State Department of Public Instruction, met with a representative group of teachers, supervisors and superintendents in the Carthage Library to plan for a Picquet Music Festival to take the place of the former Picquet Music Contest, sponsored by the Sandhills Kiwanis Club each year. Alwin Foley, chairman of the Boys and Girls Committee of the Kiwanis organization was present to assist in the planning.

Elected as chairman of the group was Joseph Beach, Glee Club and Band Director of the Aberdeen School. Under Dr. Hoffman's guidance, the following decisions were made:

1. A committee from the group will be appointed to select the music to be used.
2. Each music director will teach the numbers to the entire High School Glee Club.
3. A proportionate number of students from each high school to be selected to sing—depending on the size of the stage.
4. Dr. Hoffman will direct and put together the voices from all schools in a day long program May 5, then the final production will be presented Friday evening, May 6, as a culmination of National Music Week.
5. Dr. Hoffman will meet with these directors of music at a designated date prior to the final rehearsal.

Attending the meeting were

Mrs. L. R. Sugg, Mrs. Emma Womack, Mrs. C. L. Hensley, Mrs. Annie Upchurch, Mrs. Beulah Womble, Mrs. Emmeline Aull, Joseph W. Beach, Mrs. Ruth Gladstone, William McAdams, glee club director from Southern Pines; and Miss Ann Hovis from Pinehurst; Mrs. Beulah McPherson, Superintendent Luther Adams of Southern Pines Schools; and Superintendent R. E. Lee of the Moore County School system.

This meeting was under the direction of Mr. Lee, who introduced all guests and presented Dr. Hoffman to the group.
