

New Enlisting Procedure Told

Young men in Lee, Moore and Chatham counties can now choose their assignments in the Army Air Defense Command before enlisting, according to Sgt. Paul H. Hawks of the Army Recruiting Station in Sanford.

Under this plan, the applicant applies for enlistment and is processed at the Raleigh Recruiting Main Station. While there he selects three metropolitan areas at which he wants to serve and returns home and awaits a reply which will take about 4 to 6 days. After receiving a reply from the Air Defense Command that he has been approved for one of his three choices he then returns to Raleigh to enlist.

The following areas are now open according to Sgt. Hawks:

Pittsburg, Pa., Los Angeles, Calif., Shreveport, La., Albany, Ga., Macon, Ga., Austin, Tex., Roswell, N. M. and Salina, Kan.

Further details can be obtained by calling Sgt. Hawks at Spring 3-4292 or 2-3191 in Sanford.

Forestry Field Day Monday, Feb. 15, Will Show Land Clearing Methods

By F. D. ALLEN
County Agricultural Agent

Do you have land that needs to be cleared of hardwoods and set in pines? If so, you will want to go on the Forestry Tour and see the land clearing demonstration on Monday, February 15.

At 10:30 a. m. Monday, we will assemble at Clyde Auman's home, West End, to begin a forestry tour. We will look at a stand of slash pine to see how they grow in this area. A stop will be made to observe pine tree seedlings growing where mechanical clearing of hardwoods was done six years ago and two years ago.

At 1:30 p. m., the K. G. Blade will be demonstrated on N. C. Cagle's farm six miles from Carthage on the West End road, near Thomas' cross road. This is a new piece of equipment for destroying hardwood. What can it do in our area? Come out and see!

At 2:30 p. m. the fire plough will be demonstrated for destroying hardwood. A mechanical planter will plant seedlings behind this plough in the same operation. Will this equipment work on your farm. Come see for yourself.

At 3:15 p. m., poisoning undesirable hardwoods will be demonstrated. Is this the best method of destroying undesirable hardwood on your farm? Come out and make your own decision.

We will have a better opportunity to make the right decision on hardwood control on our farms after attending this forestry field day.

'Spirit World' Beauty Winner Will Be Chosen

A contest to find "Miss Spirit World of 1960" is being conducted among spiritualists and their followers.

The contest was announced in the February 10 issue of the Psychic Observer which is published in Southern Pines.

Entries will consist of pictures of departed beauties taken by spirit photographers and submitted with notarized statements. Where possible, photographs of the astral women taken while they were still on earth will be matched against the ectoplasmic prints," said an announcement of the contest received by The Pilot.

Among the scores of occult photographs already received by Tom O'Neil, 110 Highland Road, publisher and editor of the Psychic Observer, is one of Astrid, late Queen of Belgium, it was stated. Many of these spirit pictures were purported to have been taken during seances.

Judges of the entries will be the readers of the publication. The contest closes on April 30. The first three winning entries will receive cash awards.

PJC EVENT

Founders' Day will be observed at Presbyterian Junior College, Maxton, on Saturday, February 20. According to custom, high school juniors and seniors of nearby high schools are invited to visit the campus on that day and take part in the program. Highlights of the occasion will be a discussion of the subject "Today's Student—Tomorrow's Leader" by a panel of Presbyterian Junior College alumni, and an address by Dr. Ansley C. Moore, new president of Consolidated Presbyterian College at the luncheon.

Science Youth Day

honors his touch of genius

This singular man still touches your everyday life in countless ways. For Tom Edison, born February 11, 1847, invented the lamp destined to light up the world and spawn a vast industry of service to mankind.

He, above all, harnessed the elusive mystery that was electricity. Today your life is more abundant, more convenient because of his capacity to make this new force serve the will of man.

It is only right to honor this man of science and service. It is particularly fitting that his birthdate, February 11th, has been designated as Science Youth Day. For this man's life was a model for future Edisons to follow. More than ever, America needs the vision, the vigor, the resourcefulness of people like Thomas Edison, today and in years to come.

An Invitation on Science Youth Day:

We at CP&L invite you as individuals or as members of educational and civic groups to visit our plants and other facilities on Science Youth Day, Thursday, February 11th. Especially trained personnel will be on hand to conduct tours between the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Everyone is welcome.
