MOORE COUNTY RECORDER'S COURT

9 Defendants Enter Nolo Contendere Plea as Affray Case Goes to Trial

Nine defendants in an affray case arising out of a fight at Robbins Cross Roads entered a plea of nolo contendere to a variety of assault charges and were directed by Judge J. Vance Rowe to pay a joint fine of $50 and the costs, in Moore County Recorder's Court at Carthage Monday. The judge also stipulated good behavior conditions during the next six months for all defendants.

The nolo contendere plea was entered by consent of the defendants and their attorneys.

Defendants in the case were Millard and Paul Wallace, Jim, Marvin and Sam Williams, Gerald Hussey, Elizabeth Sanders Pope, Sgt. Harvey Olen Blanton and James (Jeebo) Sanders. All are from the Robbins Cross Roads community, except Blanton.

Trial of the defendants in an ABC case involving capture of a still near Jackson Springs was again continued.

Participants in a recent fight at Danny's Grill, on No. 1 highway near Cameron were in court Monday and received suspended sentences.

Elmer Gray Southern of Route 4, Sanford, who was injured and hospitalized in the affray, was sentenced to 30 days on the roads, suspended on payment of $25 fine and costs and on condition of good behavior for six months.

Barney Comer of Vass, charged with assault and battery and engaging in an affray, inflicting serious injury, drew a stiffer sentence: three months on the roads, suspended for two years on payment of a $50 fine, the costs and the hospital and medical bills of Southern. Good behavior conditions, for the next two years, were also stipulated and the youth was placed under supervision of the probation officer.

In another case, Comer was charged with careless and reckless driving resulting in accident and property damage and was sentenced to 60 days on the roads, suspended on payment of $25 fine and costs and on condition he not operate a motor vehicle during the next six months.

Other cases heard Monday: Marvin Alex Reynolds, drunken driving, 60 days on roads, suspended on payment of $100 fine and costs; General Palmer, Jr., Pinehurst, driving without operator's license, careless and reckless driving, tried jointly with Norman Gaines, Pinehurst, public drunk on highway, each sentenced to 60 days on roads, suspended on payment of $25 fine and costs in the case of Palmer, and $15 and costs in the case of Gaines; Herbert F. Sheffield, assault and battery with deadly weapon, nolo pro on payment of costs by prosecuting witness, at request of prosecuting witness.

Results Listed For 'Hole-in-One' Pinehurst Event

The Pinehurst Lions Club's fifth annual "Hole-in-One Tournament," a two-day affair completed Sunday, produced no aces again this year but resulted in some "near" shots with a trio of Holly Inn guests four feet or less from the various pins to register the closest measurements.

A pair of Detroit, Mich., men took first on the 9th holes on Number Two and Number Three courses, with P. A. O'Connell firing his blow three feet and three inches from the cup and W. J. Bundy placing his tee shot an exact four feet from the hole. Four feet from the 7th pin on Number One was E. W. Schellentrager of Shaker Heights, Ohio. Carolina guest V. P. Schneider of Pittsburgh, Pa. was first place winner on the 5th hole of Number Four with a nine-foot, seven-inch effort while another Carolina guest, E. L. Keating of South Londonberry, then Pines, seven feet and four inches.

Lions Club members were on duty to measure the distances on the greens. Proceeds of the tournament go to the club's Activities Fund.

Vt. was runner-up at 10 feet and five inches.

Runners-up on the other three courses were: 1—Ed McCarthy of Aberdeen, six feet; 2—Ray Weber of Easton, Pa., six feet and eight inches; and F. W. Bellows of Sou-
