Maj. Swagerty, Assigned Here On Temporary Duty

Maj. C. L. Swagerty will speak to the Youth Fellowship of Brownson Memorial Church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock.

The Major is an Air Force Reservist who has been assigned to this area for a two months' period in connection with the Bright Star Pine Cone, III project coming up shortly at Fort Bragg. In civil life, he is director of athletics and recreation at San Quentin Prison.

Mrs. Swagerty and their three children, Kathleen, 10; Allan Howie, eight and Linda, six, accompanied Maj. Swagerty here from their home in San Anselmo, Calif. and have been occupying one of the Knollwood apartments at 308 Crestview Road since their arrival in early July.

This is the Swagertys' first visit to North Carolina. They are enjoying their temporary base and are interested observers of the contrasts between this state and their home state of California.

MISS PATRICIA ELAINE BULLARD

Mrs. Whitfield Herring of Rowland announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Patricia Elaine Bullard of Winston-Salem to Lt. Garland Frank Pierce of Wright-Patterson AFB, Dayton, Ohio, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Arthur Pierce of Weymouth Road. The wedding will take place in late summer at Davis Memorial Chapel in Winston-Salem.

The bride-elect graduated from Laurinburg High School and is a senior at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital's School of Nursing in Winston-Salem.

Now serving in the U. S. Air Force, Lt. Pierce is a graduate of the Southern Pines High School and North Carolina State College in Raleigh where he was a member of the Pi Kappi Phi fraternity.

Former Resident To Compete In Sports Car Race

Former resident, Mrs. Lucille Dingley of Auburn, Me., who shares with her husband, Henry, an enthusiasm for sports car racing, is an entrant in the National championship sports car races taking place Saturday and Sunday in Montgomery, N. Y. She will drive an Alfa.

The daughter of Mrs. Heitzmann Mudgett of the Ark Apartments here, Mrs. Dingley is a relatively newcomer to the ranks of sports car racing addicts. She and her husband have for many years been interested in flying, and both hold pilots' licenses which they have exercised during many hours in their own plane.

Mrs. Dingley was the only Maine entry in the 1956 Powder Puff Derby, flying in the race from Canada to Cuba.

Both husband and wife enjoy outdoor sports and plan a goose hunting trip to the Canadian Woods next weekend. They are encouraging their son, Peter, to learn proficiency in outdoor games and sports, and he is already at 13, quite an expert skier.

AT MOORE MEMORIAL

Frank Wilson of Manly entered Moore Memorial Hospital Saturday for observation and treatment.

Gen. Read, Wife Visit Col. Smith

Guests for a few days this week of Lt. Col. Frank M. Smith were Lt. Gen. and Mrs. George W. Read, Jr. who were en route to Florida. Gen. Read retired from the Army August 1. Prior to retirement, he was commanding general of the Second Army at Ft. Meade, Md. Previous to this command, Gen. Read served as commander of NATO forces in Greece and in Izmir, Turkey, where Col. Smith served as one of his Staff Officers.

Col. Smith left Friday for Washington, D. C. and will go from there to the Adirondacks in New York State to pick up his wife and son, Marsh, who will return home with him.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Powell Alexander has returned to her Knollwood home following minor surgery Tuesday at Moore Memorial Hospital.

Miss Lurline Willis expects to return to her home today or tomorrow after being a patient at Moore Memorial for several weeks.

INS and OUTS

Mrs. J. J. deBerry returned Tuesday from a vacation at Myrtle Beach, S. C., with her son, James and his family.

Here on a visit with Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Cowin are his nieces, the Misses Jean and Lois Kensley of Cleveland, Ohio, who spent last week and plan to be here a while longer.

Miss Kristen Burrill, James and Lauren Burrill of Warwick, R. I., are visiting their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Cornell and Marvin III, their cousin, at their home in Knollwood.

Mr. and Mrs. H. William Carter, Jr. and two sons arrive tomorrow from Winston-Salem for the weekend with his parents on Midland Road.

Long Island Visitors Honored At Dessert Party

Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas are entertaining tonight at a dessert party at their home on Fort Bragg Road for their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Freeman who are visiting them from Jamaica, Long Island, N. Y. this week. The Freemans plan to return home Saturday, and will be accompanied by their son, Geoffrey, who has been on an extended visit here with his grandparents.

Former Cleveland Couple Now Owns Knollwood Home

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Dreger, who recently moved here from Cleveland, Ohio, have purchased the William Weldon place in Knollwood and are making the Sandhills their retirement home. Mr. Dreger was for 21 years on the Ohio Board of Liquor Control before retiring.

The Dregers have been coming to Southern Pines for several years for visits during the season, and decided, despite rugged weather conditions during their last three weeks' stay here in March, to live in the area permanently.

They were especially attracted to the section because of the foliage and trees and are enjoying their new home which is surrounded with longleaf pines.

Susan Huntley Wins Pink Ribbon at Blowing Rock Show

Susan Huntley, 13, who rode her hunter "So Fine" in several classes of the Blowing Rock Horse Show Thursday and Friday, brought home a pink ribbon (fifth) in the Children's Horsemanship Class.

Susan was accompanied to Blowing Rock by her mother, Mrs. W. T. Huntley for the two days at the Show, and from there, they went on to Mt. Airy for a weekend visit with Mrs. Huntley's sister, Mrs. A. P. Turmyre.

Grahams, Moores, Enjoy Visits from Their Children

Mr. and Mrs. William Moore and daughters, Karen and Linda, returned Saturday to Miami, Fla., after a two-weeks visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Gam Moore. Gam Moore returned to Miami with them, via Eastern Airlines, for a visit.

Also here for two weeks with their parents, the Grahams and the Moores, were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Moore and their children, Tommy and Diane, who have now returned to Miami. The Grahams son, Philip, his wife and daughter, Brenda of Winston-Salem spent a week here with his parents.
