Homecoming a Success

The annual Homecoming Sunday at the Vass Methodist Church was a big success, with many former members and friends from other places present. Rally Day was observed in the Sunday School, with the presentation of promotion certificates and perfect attendance awards highlighting the hour.

The Rev. Angus McK. Cameron of Jackson, son of Mrs. A. M. Cameron and the late Mr. Cameron of Vass, brought an appropriate message at the 11 o'clock service, and there was special music by the choir.

A feature of this service was the dedication of two beautiful gold-plated collection plates, given by Mrs. Ben W. Smith of Sanford, the former Retha Bynum Moffitt, in memory of her parents, the late Thomas A. Moffitt and Sallie Bynum Moffitt, and the Bynum family. Mr. and Mrs. Moffitt were married in Johnson's Grove Church, forerunner of the Vass Methodist Church. The pastor, the Rev. T. Fant Steele, Jr., read the service of dedication and Edwin L. Finch, chairman of the Official Board, accepted the gift in behalf of the Church. Mrs. Smith was present.

At the noon hour a long table under the trees in the churchyard was loaded with food and after a blessing by the Rev. Mr. Cameron, those present did full justice to it.

Music was enjoyed in the afternoon.

Among the homecomers were Mrs. W. P. Parker of Aberdeen, who spent the weekend with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Gschwind, Mrs. Emma Jeffreys, a former local resident and long-time member of this church who was here with her daughter Anna (Mrs. Ed Williams) and Miss Frances Williams, with whom she lives in Reidsville. Mrs. Helen McCaskill and daughter Maxine, of Niagara; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Graham and Dan A. Graham of Ruffin, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Will Graham, Miss Janice Graham and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Autry, Jr., and children, Martha and twins Larry and Linda of Asheboro.

Also, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simmons and Mrs. Ruth Allen Edwards of Greensboro; Miss Martina McKay of Fayetteville, who with the Rev. and Mrs. Angus McK. Cameron and son, Stephen, was a weekend guest of Mrs. A. M. Cameron; Mr. and Mrs. Avron Upchurch and daughters, Vicki and Diane, of Deep River. With Mrs. W. D. Matthews were her youngest son, Warren, with his wife and children, Lana, Kay, Duncan and Mike, of Fayetteville, and Frank Leaf, here from Anchorage, Alaska; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Evans of Vass attended with their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Martin and children and Leighton Hall of Greensboro.

A Masonic Body from Carthage composed of Herman Seawell, Charles Barringer, James Campbell, O. U. Alexander, L. R. McDonald, S. J. Bradshaw, Fleet Allen, Aubrey Everett, Woodrow Branch and Gerald Caddell attended, as did Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Woolley and Melissa Woolley of Southern Pines; Mrs. W. T. Cox and Merwyn Cox of Sanford; Miss Barbara Stephenson of Greenville, S. C. It was nice to have Joe Edwards of the US Navy, present, after a lengthy absence while on a Mediterranean cruise. Mrs. Bob Perry of Wake Forest attended and spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Keith, who returned home with her for a week's stay. Mrs. R. L. Oldham was welcomed, also, as a guest.

Attend Fair
A number of local people attended the Lee County Fair Tuesday night, when Vass-Lakeview School had an entry, Miss Mary Lynn Oldham, in the beauty contest.

Max Edwards, Roby Futrell and Horace Mullinix have a Vass Saw Service booth at the Fair where they are demonstrating Pioneer chain saws.

Harvest Sale, Supper

Cypress Presbyterian Church several miles out from Vass will hold its annual Harvest Sale and supper at the church Saturday, October 1, with the proceeds going to the church building fund.

In the past the fried ham suppers served there have attracted large crowds from a wide area, and these patrons will be interested to know that ham will again be served, with chicken salad for those who prefer it. Serving will be from 5 to 7 p. m., with the sale of household articles and farm produce following.

This church will hold its annual Homecoming on the third Sunday in October.

Lions Club

The Vass Lions Club met last week at the community house in Cameron with the president, Curtis Thomas, presiding. John McCrummen, superintendent of Vass-Lakeview School, spoke to the group on "Community Betterment," with emphasis on what the school is doing and can do to make a better community.

Dinner was served by Mrs. A. L. Keith, Mrs. Clinton Peele and Miss Vera McLean.

Rally Day Program

A Rally Day program entitled "The Bible—the Book of Faith" was presented at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning with Mrs. C. C. Crockett as leader and Mrs. Bobby Hudson and David Crockett as readers. Ann Crockett sang a solo.

In the absence of Sgt. Julian Smith, superintendent, who was on field duty, Herbert Caddell, assistant superintendent, presented perfect attendance awards, as follows:

Eleven years, Mrs. Roger Marion; 10 years, Bobby Hicks; nine years, Joyce Jessup; five years, Myra Price; four years, Ronnie and Eddie Smith; three years, Billy Jessup, Jr.; one year, Joan Hudson; nine months, Cheryl Howell and Vicki, Ann, Mel and Teresa Blackburn; three months, Timothy Gschwind.

Promotion certificates were presented, also.

Mrs. Hudson Honored

Mrs. James Hudson was honored at a layette shower at the Vass community house Friday evening, given by Mrs. J. A. McRae, Mrs. Bobby Hudson and Mrs. Walter Boggs. Contests were won by the honoree and Mrs. James Selby. The hostesses served sandwiches, potato chips, mints and punch from a decorated table. Mrs. Hudson's mother, Mrs. Edd Boggs, presided at the punch bowl.

The honoree received many dainty gifts, for which she expressed her thanks.
